Uncle Walt The Poetic Philosopher

Tell me not, in mournful legends, that the pole will never be found; we'll have crossed the Arctic regions ere six months have rolled around. Men are daily making pledges that the pole they soon will gain, not with dogs and cumbersome sledges, not by drifting on the main, but by sailing through the breezes in the airship "Sunbeam," and no more Dame Science sneezes at fantastic schemes like that. When the wondrous craft has hovered over that waste of snow and sleet, and the North Pole is discovered, then our joy should be complete. If you ask me why the finding of the pole should banish woe, and the troubles that are grinding—I'll be jiggered if I know! But so many men have hunted for that pole, in days of yore, and have died in ways unwonted on the silent, frozen shore; and so many ships a-sailing from the harbor, never returned; and so many women, waiting for their loved and lost ones yearned; and so many bones are lying on the glaciers and the floes, and so many ghosts are sighing in the wilderness of snow; and so many now are freezing, trudging, northward, mile on mile, that, of course, it stands to reason, the old pole must be worth while!

EXPLODE MINES KILLING MANY

Moors Put Up a Brave Resistance at Capture of Tasquin

LISBON, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Penor de la Gomera today says that the Spaniards in Morocco, exploded a number of mines, killing one hundred Moors. The Spaniards were re-laying the mines in the darkness when the Moors returned and attacked them savagely. Three Spanish officers and fifty men were killed.

According to another message received here, a Spanish division left El Aghar, hoping to push on to Zeboun. But it was repulsed by the enemy with considerable loss and fell back to El Aghar to await reinforcements.

STUBBORN RESISTANCE

MELLILA, Aug. 28.—Official details of the capture of Tasquin, Carcarp de Laxeau show that the Moors put up a stubborn and brave resistance. The Spaniards formed in two columns, including a band of friendly Kabyles, five miles from the enemy. They opened the engagement with fierce fighting, but after a prolonged struggle the Spaniards gained the top of the hill and drove the enemy back. The casualties are not given.

DESTRUCTION OF SWITCHES TIES UP TRAIN SERVICE

No One Hurt in Train Accident at Canton Junction, Mass.

CANTON, Mass., Aug. 28.—Through the destruction of the switches at Canton Junction, when the engine of the 448 passenger train from Mansfield for Boston left the iron and plowed the tracks, all traffic on the Providence division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad was tied up for several hours late this afternoon and tonight. No one was hurt in the accident and none of the cars of the passenger train left the rails.

The cause of the wreck is not known. The train, which consisted of the engine, three passenger cars and a smoker, was going at a moderate speed when the engine suddenly jumped the tracks at the junction of the main line and the Stoughton branch and plowed across the tracks, destroying the switches, finally tipping over on its side. Both the engineer and fireman escaped safely, and beyond a shaking up none of the passengers was hurt. A large wrecking and repair crew was set at work immediately to repair the damage, but all trains were held up for several hours, and passengers on the local trains had to make their journey by electric.

THIS SUMMONS WAS DEFECTIVE

As a Result Turnbull, Convicted of Scott Act Violation, is Released

FREDERICTON, Aug. 28.—A young man named William Turnbull, sent to jail about a week ago for thirty days for violation of the Scott Act, was yesterday released under habeas corpus proceedings and taken before Judge Wilson. A summons was issued by Justice Clarkson of Cross Creek in this week since Crowley's former appearance on July 21st. Turnbull took no notice of the summons and he was convicted. A warrant followed and Turnbull was placed in jail. A. J. Gregory yesterday took proceedings and obtained the man's release, the summons being defective.

At Burton yesterday Herbert Green pleaded guilty of stealing a watch, and was sentenced to two years in the Industrial Home.

A rally of the temperance people was held at the Opera House this evening, the chief speaker being M. McTavish of Toronto.

Col. Clinch, who has been in charge of the R. C. R. here for several years past, left for his new home in Ottawa yesterday. Before his departure he was entertained by a number of his friends.

MRS. RIVERS DECLARES LOVER MURDERER HER

Woman Found on Landing Just Outside Her Door at Lowell, Mass.—Attacked While in Bed.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 28.—Injuries received in a brutal assault, made with an axe at midnight Thursday, resulted in the death tonight at the St. John's Hospital of Mrs. Flora Rivers, aged 35 years, and the state police are looking for Henry Ferron, said to be the woman's lover, with whom she had been living for some time and who, in a statement written just before her death, she charges with the crime. Ferron has not been seen since the assault.

Mrs. Rivers, who has been separated from her husband for some time, is believed to have come here from Fall River with Ferron, through little is known of the couple. They were known as man and wife and occupied an apartment in the upper floor of No. 3 Hereford place.

On Friday morning the injured woman was found on a landing just outside her door, where she had dragged herself, by a millman. She had four bad gashes on her body, evidently inflicted with an axe and her windpipe was severed so that she could not talk. She was removed to the St. John's Hospital and was revived sufficiently to write on a slip of paper the name of Henry Ferron, who was supposed to have been her husband and when asked if he was the man who assaulted her she nodded her head to signify that it was. Today, when it was seen that she could not live much longer, she wrote that on Thursday night at about midnight, while she was in bed, she was attacked by a man with an axe. It was too dark to see who it was, but she was sure that it was Ferron, with whom she had quarrelled a few hours ago. Ferron has since escaped detection.

Mrs. Rivers is believed to have once resided at Hildesford, Maine.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Tonight and Tuesday, Aug. 30-31 will find The Great Clivette and his own company of European entertainers at the Opera House. Clivette had a run of one year and four months in the City of London, which is a recommendation of the superior order of his rare abilities.

The London, Eng., Standard records the following:—
"After witnessing the performance of Mr. Clivette for the tenth time I am honor bound to state that his popularity is well deserved. As an artist, pure and simple, his equal has never appeared in the Metropolitan. We all like to have the mysterious side of our nature catered to, and here we have the essence served in palatable form. Long will the show of this remarkable man be remembered."

"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST"

The liquor problem plays a large part in the plot of William B. Gray's successful pastoral play, "The Volunteer Organist," which comes to the Opera House the first three nights of next week.

The fact that the young minister of the piece is in love with the daughter of the village tavern keeper might lead some to think that his infatuation for the fair heroine would interfere with the performance of his ecclesiastical duties, but such is not the case. On the contrary, his broad minded views bring about a happy and satisfactory solution of a most perplexing problem.

"GREAT EGYPTIAN MYSTERY" AT STAIL

What will prove of very unusual interest will be the Star Theatre's great film "The Egyptian Mystery" and there will be comment sure to follow. A strong social drama is the film story, "A Woman's Way," by Vitagraph Co., and in the Edison comedy, "Caught By The Coupon Craze," the men will certainly have a good poke on their wives and sisters. The third reel of pictures will be scenic and industrial. Miss Annie Edwards in songs.

THE GREAT CROWLEY AT H.H.H.

Today the H. H. H. presents a programme that the management is proud of. The Great Crowley, the King of all Female Imperators, will open a return engagement of one week since Crowley's former appearance here a few weeks ago, hundreds of patrons have requested the management to secure him again. During his former visit here Crowley so completely delighted both men and women that it was not until the last night of his engagement here, when he removed his wig, that they would believe it was a man. This is certainly a tribute to Crowley's wonderful ability to masquerade as a woman. Ladies will have a chance, during Crowley's engagement, to see some magnificent gowns which he wears, and which were made by Worth at Paris and Redfern of London. In addition to these, during his previous visit here, Crowley purchased two magnificent imported gowns, in M. R. & A.'s, and they are described as two of the handsomest gowns ever brought to this city. In hats Crowley has some magnificent creations. Ladies can depend on Crowley's performance being a thoroughly refined one. If you see him before, you'll want to see him again; if you didn't, don't miss him. In pictures a very fine programme will be given. The Jit is one of the famous Biograph pictures, founded on Boucualt's famous play. The story is "Has a Woman the Right to Jilt a Man For No Good Reason? If So, Has Not Another Man the Right to Jilt Her?" It is positively the best picture the H. H. H. has shown this year. There are two others.
