DUAN AND CHARLES V.

Large Historical Reels By Pathe

Harrison, the Eminent Art Critic and Writer, writes on this picture says: "TO ITS HISTORICAL VALUE AND ACCURACY, Duan and Charles V. boldly presents the contrasts and contradictions of character and is replete with picturesque settings. It is one well calculated to bring out the historical nature of court life in the time of Phillip II. It is a masterpiece, any one individual setting of worthy of a place in exclusive art collections."

FLORENCEVILLE FOLK

EXTEND WELCOME TO NEWLY WEDDED PAIR

Florenceville, Sept. 10.—A very pleasant function took place in the Assembly Hall of the Florenceville Consolidated School on Wednesday evening the fourth inst., when a reception was tendered to Principal and Mrs. I. C. Squiers on their arrival to their new home at Florenceville, from their wedding, which took place at Richibucto on Monday last.

A large crowd was present to greet Mr. Squiers and his bride as they entered this city sphere of their labors.

The receiving line was Miss M. Maxwell, Mrs. E. Alward, Mrs. O. N. Miller, Mrs. I. C. Squiers, I. C. Squiers and Rev. Jos. Cahill.

The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Murray Manuel in happy and well chosen phrases reminiscent of the old days when he and Mr. Squiers were students of the same institution of learning and filled with warm greetings and well wishes for the future.

The presentation of a handsome Morris chair was made to the groom by the bride and the school trustees by Rev. Jos. Cahill in an incisive and witty address of good cheer and fellowship.

The gift of a beautiful cut glass sugar bowl and cream pitcher and silver sugar shell was presented to the bride on behalf of the pupils of the advanced department of the school in a graceful and well delivered speech by Rev. E. C. Turner of East Florenceville.

Mr. Squiers replied in a fitting manner to each of the addresses and behalf of the bride and himself, and thanked those present for the heartiness of their welcome and the deep honor conferred upon him.

Several numbers were rendered by the Florenceville quartette which were appreciated by all.

Rustic Curiosity.

"What's the trouble?" asked the policeman in great city.

"Nothing in particular," replied Farmer Cottrell.

"Then what do you mean by standing on the corner and yelling for the police?"

"Well, I've read so much about you fellows in the paper that I've wanted to have a good look at one of you!"
