TALK OF REFERENDUM CONSCRIPTION QUESTION

As Alternative for Election if Dangerous Hostility Develops During Later Stages of Bill's Progress in Parliament — Situation Calmer Following Government's Big Majority on First Reading.

London, Jan. 7.—The political situation today was calmer, after the overwhelming vote secured by the government in the House of Commons Thursday night on the first reading of its conscription bill. The reassuring size of the government's majority in the lower House of Parliament offset to a considerable degree the anti-conscriptionist vote of the Labor Congress, which also was partly discounted by the attitude of such important labor leaders as Arthur Henderson, who resigned, as president of the board of education, and John Ward, George Nicholl Barnes, and John Hodge, members of the House of Commons.

The position of these men is that the vote of the Labor Congress was too hasty and ill-considered to be regarded as reflecting the actual feeling of the labor men of the country.

Parliament did not meet today, and will not sit again until Monday. The indications are that the conscription bill will be passed through the House of Commons in order that it may reach the House of Lords in ample time for passage before the end of the month. In some quarters talk of a general election still persists, but it is certain that a considerable part of even the opponents of conscription don't want a resort to the ballot.

DEATH AND BLOODSHED IN RIOTS IN E. YOUNGSTOWN, O.

One Killed, Nineteen Wounded and Fire Damage $300,000 as Result of Strike of Steel Workers — Frenzied Mob Beyond Control of Police and Troops Rushed to Scene.

Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Two buildings are burning, the fire is not under control, and threatens the whole East Youngstown business section, as a result of the steel mill riots tonight. State guardsmen from Alliance are expected here by 11 p. m. Youngstown and county authorities declare the situation to be beyond their control.

A wild mob was still surging through the streets, while the authorities were powerless to control the populace. The estimated fire loss is $300,000 already.

1,500 Troops Rushed to Scene.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Two regiments of the Ohio National Guard, comprising more than 1,500 men, tonight were on their way to Youngstown to assist local authorities in quelling rioting which broke out late today in connection with the strike of steel workers in that city, another regiment—the Fourth—was mobilizing in this city to await orders to proceed to Youngstown.

Before daybreak tomorrow it was expected that 2,000 guardsmen, under command of Brigadier-General John C. Speaks of Columbus would be in Youngstown ready for duty.

Shortly before five o'clock Governor Willis received an urgent request for troops from Sheriff J. C. Unstead of Mahoning county. This was followed by a report from General Speaks, who had been sent to Youngstown to represent the governor, that the situation was grave and that troops would be necessary to assist the local authorities in maintaining order.

Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 7.—One man was killed; nineteen wounded, including a woman, were wounded in the course of the rioting in East Youngstown.

The trouble was the culmination of a strike of laborers, which began at the plant of the Republic Iron & Steel Company a week ago, and spread to the plants of the Tube Company, the Youngstown Iron & Steel Company, and the Briar Hills Steel Company, all "independent" concerns.

The men demanded 25 cents an hour; the company offers an increase from 15-12 to 22 cents per hour.

The trouble started early this morning, when strike sympathizers and workers at the sheet and tube plant clashed. Stones were thrown and several shots were fired, but no one was injured. Later in the day a riot occurred just outside the tube company plant, and two men were injured so badly that they were taken to a hospital.

The most serious trouble started tonight, when the day shift at the sheet and tube mills let work.

A crowd of 6,000 gathered at the entrance of the works and stoned a squad of private police, in charge of Chief J. P. Woltz, of the sheet and tube company force.

Nineteen Wounded. According to a statement made by Woltz, he fired a blank shot into the air to scare the crowd, and then fired only acting in ignorance for another. Two other persons at the same court were each sentenced to a week in gaol and fines of 100 kronen ($24) for selling potatoes at 28 heller a kilogram, which he had bought for 20 heller.

CONDITIONS AS THEY REALLY ARE IN VIENNA

Freedom of Speech Not Permitted—Police Break up Meeting of Protest.

OVER 160,000 POOR FAMILIES IN CAPITAL.

German Officer and Four Men Go to French Internment Camp Rather than Face Allies Again at Ypres.

(London Chronicle.) At Meidling, the workers' quarter of Vienna, a mass meeting was convened the other night to discuss the prevailing high food prices. A leading Socialist named Pirkeiner occupied the chair, and a dense throng of men and women filled the hall.

On the platform beside the chairman was Police Commissary Leuther. The chief speaker said: "We have to live on what we have. The bread for us, but it is? We also require some meat, fat and milk. Potatoes, after all, are only potatoes, and man cannot live by potatoes alone. We have a potato diet he suffers from under-nutrition. The price of vegetables has risen to the anti-war price of meat and how can one afford vegetables when the price of fat has risen to 30. id. a pound? We have made proposals to the government, but they remain unanswered. We have demanded milk-cards, as under existing circumstances only a portion of the people can obtain milk. Our children are supplied with the worst substitutes in the market."

In the course of this war we have been favored with 500 ordinances and instructions and prohibitions. What excellent times we might have were we only able to bake bread with them. And his pay? The speaker interrupted the speaker. "It is true that the workmen is earning more, but if he works more he must eat more. He is working now 14 hours a day instead of nine. And his pay? We have declared that there were industries which were paying their hands only 7s. 6d. a week. "We have made a collection of the household budgets of working families." (Another interruption.) "We dare not speak we can recognize the conditions under which we are governed." (The audience applauded.) "If the possibility is taken from us to speak openly with the people, it must be that our rights to not recognize the seriousness of the situation in Vienna at the present time support is being paid to 163,000 poor families. There are thousands of children who are living on 6d. a day. Our population has been reduced beyond the proverbial patience of the Viennese."

The speaker then wished to propose a resolution to the meeting, but the commissary asked to see the text. He studied it a moment or two, and then declared that it must not be published. Councilor Neumann rose in great agitation and pointed out that other political parties might hold meetings without this interference. (Loud cheers.) The sacrifices which the people offered daily were great. Fathers and sons were at the front bleeding for the country. He demanded the increase of the bread ration for the workers.

He would have continued but the commissary rose from his seat and covered his head. He stated that in consequence of an attempt to incite the meeting against the government, he declared the meeting dissolved. Thereupon, a military force of 20 men entered the hall, at their head a police officer. There was immense excitement, but the stewards of the meeting managed to keep the throng quiet and induce them to go home.

Food Usurpers Punished. The latest reports of police court proceedings in Vienna contain the following: The second-hand dealer, Karl Dorfer, was summoned for selling a military field glass for 120 kronen which he had bought for 60, and for selling another for 120 which he had bought for 60. He was sentenced to five days' confinement and to pay a fine of 1,000 kronen ($24). Sixty-six glasses found on his premises were confiscated.

Friedrich Florian for selling pork in portions of ten grams at the rate of 11 heller per portion or 11 kronen per kilogram (4s. 6d. a pound) was sentenced to pay a fine of 1,000 kronen ($24). He had bought the pork at 6 heller a portion for sale among the most necessitous sections of the people.

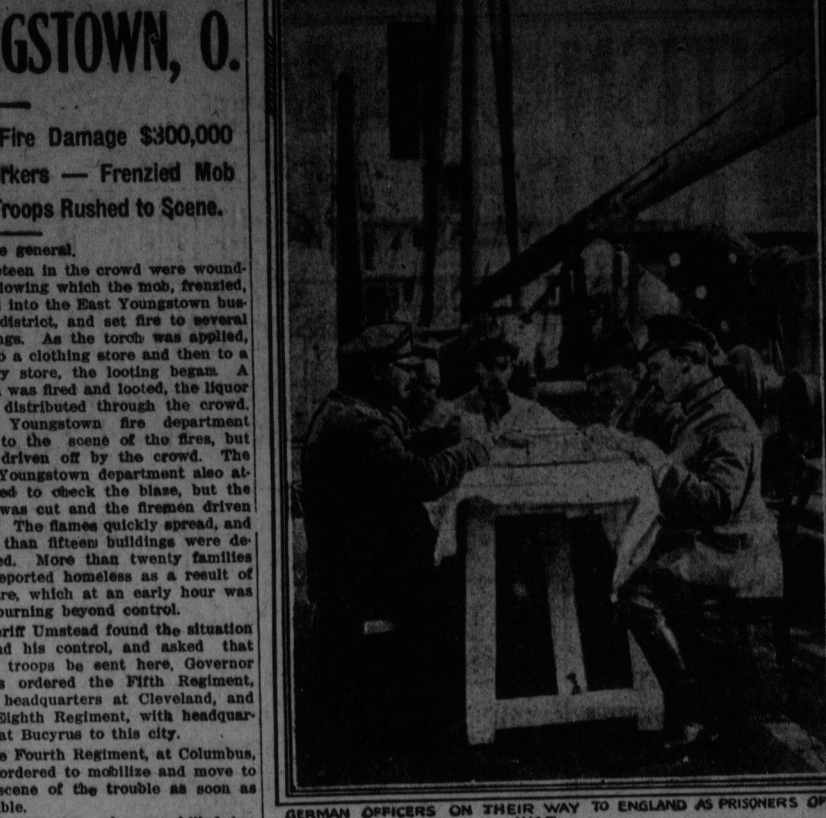

Katharina Stefanitch for selling spinach at double the usual prices was sentenced to pay a fine of 20 kronen ($5), and imprisonment for three days. She got off so easily because she was a German. Nineteen in the crowd were wounded, following which the mob, frenzied, surged into the East Youngstown business district, and set fire to several buildings. As the torch was applied, first to a clothing store and then to a jewelry store, the looting began. A saloon was fired and looted, the liquor being distributed through the crowd.

The Youngstown fire department went to the scene of the fire, but were driven off by the crowd. The East Youngstown department also attempted to check the blaze, but the hose was cut and the firemen driven away. The flames quickly spread, and more than fifteen buildings were destroyed. More than twenty families are reported homeless as a result of the fire, which at an early hour was still burning beyond control.

Sheriff Unstead found the situation beyond his control, and asked that state troops be sent here. Governor Willis ordered the Fifth Regiment, with headquarters at Cleveland, and the Eighth Regiment, with headquarters at Bucyrus to this city. The Fourth Regiment, at Columbus, was ordered to mobilize and move to the scene of the trouble as soon as possible.

"The Strife Eternal"—Romance of Lovely Jane Shore WHEN EDWARD IV WAS MIGHTY KING OF ENGLAND

A Mutual Five-Reel Historical Masterpiece. IMPERIAL THEATRE FREQUENTERS will today and tomorrow be lifted up of modern times back nearly five hundred years to the life of England when Edward IV, returned from his wars all covered with glory. It was a time when the peripatetic Richard of York (afterwards Richard III.) was plotting for the throne; when Lord Hastings was snatched from his wedding altar and sent to the block; when lovely Jane Shore, favorite of the now deposed Edward was made to do penance by walking barefoot in the snow through London until she fell dead. Around this brief but intense romance of Jane Shore our pictorial offering today is woven. The production is a stupendous one, a wonderful pageant, a heart-throbbing love affair, a spellbinding adventure. The battle scenes with 3,000 warriors in old-time equipment are wonderful, the London scenes enchanting, the whole atmosphere of the story like the spirit of one of W. Harrison Ainsworth's early English novels.

GERMAN For American Lives Promises No Further Warning and Opportunity to Not Admit

Washington, Jan. 7.—Count Von Bernstorff, presented to Secretary of State Lansing, indemnity for Americans lost in the Lusitania, concludes that controversy, and gave a submarine in the Mediterranean would any character without warning, or destruction for non-combatants to reach a place of safety. While offering to pay indemnity, it makes the reservation that it is done without any official indication was given as to but one set of American officials took controversy. The assurances regarding submarine are of broader scope than those given covering the warlike in the North Sea, the safety of liners. Those for the Mediterranean cover Count Bernstorff also told Secretary Lansing of the sinking of the Persia, through no other information. The assurances regarding the Mediterranean convey the first information were operating there. As for the disavowal asked by the government was represented as consideration of disavowal was assurances that such in the future.

The following statement was issued by Secretary of State Lansing: "The German ambassador today left at the Department of State, under instructions from his government, the following communication:

- "1. German submarines in the Mediterranean have, from the beginning of the war, orders to conduct cruiser warfare against enemy merchant vessels only in accordance with general principles of international law, and in particular measures of reprisal, as applied in the war zone, around the British Isles were to be excluded.
  - "2. German submarines are therefore permitted to destroy enemy merchant vessels in the Mediterranean, that is, passenger as well as freight ships, as far as they do not try to escape or offer resistance—only after passengers and crews have been secured safely.
  - "3. All cases of destruction of enemy merchant ships in the Mediterranean, in which German submarines are concerned, are made the subject of investigation, and besides submitted to regular prize court proceedings. In so far as American interests are concerned, the German government will communicate the results to the American government. Thus, also, in the Persia case, if the circumstances should call for it.
  - "4. If commanders of German submarines should not have obeyed the orders given to them, they will be punished; furthermore, the German government will make reparation for damage caused by death or injury to American citizens."
- Mr. Lansing made no announcement of the Lusitania proposals, saying the subject was still confidential. The Persia case, dealing with the small boat question, will be made public later.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF
Hair becomes charming, wavy, lustrous and thick in few moments.
Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.
For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant, and appears as soft, lustrous, and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderrine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderrine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see your hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderrine from any druggist or toilet concern and just try it.
