Moulding, 28 West

"I met Byron, near the umpire's dressing room after the game. I had been ordered from the field during the game. Byron said to me: 'McGraw, you were run out of Baltimore.' answered, 'Do you say that I was run out of Baltimore?'
"He answered: 'That's what they say about you.'
"I answered: 'Well, don't you say that about me.'
"Then I hit him. I maintain that I was given reason."
During an effort of the ground keeper to separate the two, Bairden, the New York catcher, not knowing the ground keeper, came to what he supposed was McGraw's assistance, and hit the ground keeper. A gen-
