No Possibility of Success, They Claim, Until United in Large Organization.

London, Jan. 2.—(Continued from page 1) support of a project to amalgamate all the different unions of transport workers excepting the railway men. A resolution was adopted at a meeting in which all sections of the transport workers in London were represented. Several thousand were present.

Under the plan the resources of the unions would be pooled and a central office staff created. Harry Gosling, leader of the workers, presiding, said it was ridiculous that the men should be divided into small unions when the employers were banded into a single organization.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are especially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. TROOPS BURN IRISH HOMES FOR REVENGE

Military Gave Seven Families One Hour to Get Out Before Firing Homes.

IN REPRISALS FOR AMBUSHING TROOPS

Two Killed and Five Hurt in Battle in County Monaghan.

(Continued from page 1) Cork, Jan. 2.—(Continued from page 1) military troops burnt by the military last night as a result of an ambush of the police near Midleton, it was announced here today. The story of the incident was related in a statement issued this morning by the military authorities in Cork. As a result of an ambush on the police at Midleton and near Gleebe House, it stated, the military governor decided that certain houses in the vicinity of the outrage be burnt as the inhabitants were bound to have known of the ambush.

Hear to Get Out

"Houses of the following were destroyed between the hours of 3 and 4 p.m., January 1:—John O'Shea, Paul McCarthy and Edward Casey, Midleton; Samuel Coster and Mr. Donovan, Bellinam, and Michael Dorgan and Mr. Ahern, Knockgriffin. A notice was handed to each of the above persons, stating why the houses were destroyed. Each resident was given an hour to remove his effects, but no furniture, and the houses were then destroyed. Nothing apart from the houses and the furniture was destroyed."

Burned for Ambuscade

A general headquarters report today, the first communication of its kind ever issued, explains that the burnings at Midleton and near Gleebe House were the result of an armed ambush on a police patrol in Midleton by civilians last Wednesday night, when one policeman was killed and eight others wounded, two of whom have since died.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR GIRL

By HELEN ROWLAND
Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

In these high-powered days, a "reserved girl" is one who reserves her kisses until she has known a man for at least a half hour.

The average man is capable of only ONE love in a lifetime; but, alas! he has to do such a lot of experimenting in order to find out WHICH one!

Marriage is always a surprise—like asking Santa Claus to bring you a twelve-cylinder motor-car, and finding a washing-machine or a pair of wooden gloves in your stocking.

It is this sign that a man is getting serious, dear heart, is not his interest in your soul, but his interest in the drop in the price of food and inferior furniture.

Cold water never cured the love-fever; but an over-warm response will almost immediately reduce any man's sentimental temperature.

Grandfather spent his evening playing cribbage, sipping port, and arguing with the neighbors; but nowadays, a man's three great pastimes are writing, movie-seeing, and hating the home-brew, and playing word-golf.

Let him kiss you, at the first opportunity, if you care to, Deities! but don't forget that a man's love never lived half so long on memory or gratitude as on hope and civility.

Whenever a woman disagrees with a man about anything, he sets her down as "temperamental," and let it go at that.

After all, a Pekingese is not so much a "pet" as a part of the modern girl's scenery.

TWO KILLED BY EXPRESS AT BEDFORD

James Terrell, K.C., and Capt. James Adams Hurler to Death by Express.

CLOSED AUTO HIT ON LEVEL CROSSING

Two Were Returning to Halifax After Dinner at Commander Atwood's.

(Continued from page 1) Mr. Terrell was a native of Wales and, in early life, was an English solicitor. His father was a former recorder of Swansea, and he had two brothers who are noted King's Counsel in London. He came to Halifax about 15 years ago and was admitted to the bar of Nova Scotia. For about ten years he specialized in commercial work and was regarded as an authority on company law.

For the last five years, he has specialized in criminal law and is a lawyer on negligence. He was made a K. C. three years ago.

An Enthusiastic Yachtsman

Mr. Terrell had a wide acquaintance among military and naval officers here. He was a popular man with Beach and was an enthusiastic yachtsman and was owner of the yacht Princess. In politics he was a Liberal and frequently appeared on the hustings in support of that party's policies.

Mr. Terrell was married and besides his wife he survived by two daughters. The home is at 40 Ingalis Street.

Captain Adams

Captain Adams was born in Saskatchewan, Canada, and was in the service of the Western Union Cable Company since 1890 and in command of that company's ships since 1916. The first ship on which he served was the Minnie, on which he went overseas in April 1918. He served on her on overseas until 1919, doing cable work, and returned in December of 1919, to take command of the Lord Kelvin, which he did until the summer of 1920, when he was promoted to command of the Halifax station.

Captain Adams had his home in Hampton, N. B. He is survived by a wife, a son and two daughters. The son and one daughter are married in Saskatchewan, and Captain Adams' wife is now visiting them. The other daughter, Margaret, was visiting her father in Halifax and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell.

Never Saw Accident

The Maritime was in charge of Conductor William Smith, of Truro and Driver Miles of Truro. The train crew knew nothing of the accident until when parts of the car were found on top of the engine.

Conductor Smith went out to Truro again in charge of Train No. 3 and Engineer Miller went to Bedford to attend the inquest, which was held Saturday night.

The bodies of the victims of the accident were brought to the city. The finding of the coroner's jury was that there was no blame attached to the train crew.

FORMER GERMAN CHANCELLOR IS DEAD AT BERLIN

Dr. T. Von Bethmann-Hollweg Expires After a Brief Illness.

"SCRAP OF PAPER" WAS HIS PHRASE

Hated the Socialists But Threw Out Offers of Peace to Allies.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Dr. Theobald Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German Imperial Chancellor, died last night after a brief illness on his estate at Hossens, near Berlin. Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg was the originator of the famous reference to the treaty guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium as a "scrap of paper."

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg was Chancellor of Germany from July 14, 1909 to July 14, 1917. He was succeeded in the office by Dr. George Michaelis, an appointee of the former Kaiser. It was said that Von Bethmann-Hollweg was forced out of office through the efforts of the military, headed by Hindenburg and Ludendorff, largely because of his "scrap of paper" story, and admission that the German invasion of Belgium was unjust. The former Chancellor had on several occasions issued statements, blaming the militarists for the war, the appearing in 1916 and 1917, while in the two previous years, he had frequently declared that England alone was responsible.

Offered Himself for Kaiser.

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg received prominent attention throughout the world in June, 1919, when he formally asked the allied and associated powers to place him on trial instead of the former Kaiser.

His national activities before 1914 were marked by his strong opposition to democratization of Germany. At times he was sharply outspoken in his defiance of socialism, and he rejected any move to make himself and other German ministers responsible to the Reichstag. Late in 1919 reports from Geneva said he was credited in diplomatic circles there as being at the bottom of a monarchist movement in favor of both the Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs, the nucleus of which was said to be under way in Switzerland. On several occasions during his tenure of office, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg threw out peace feelers, particularly in 1916 when he invited the allies to enter negotiations.

His Career.

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg was born in 1856. He was educated at the Florida Gymnasium, and at the University of Strasbourg, Leipzig and Berlin. Entering the Prussian administrative service in 1882, he rose to the position of president of the province of Brandenburg in 1899. In 1905 he was appointed Prussian minister of the interior, and two years later became imperial secretary of the interior and vice-president of the Prussian ministry of state, which was the chancellor's office. He succeeded Prince Von Buelow when he became imperial chancellor in 1909. Following his retirement from office, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg took his residence at Hohenfow.

SOCIAL WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

A congregational social, which was largely attended, was held at the Douglas Avenue Christian Church on Friday evening. The evening passed pleasantly with games and music. Refreshments were served by the Society of Friends.

200 Out of Employment

With the closing of the Maritime Nail Works about 200 men are thrown out of employment, and the city will miss the benefits of a monthly payroll approximating $26,000. Coming just at the season of the year when there is no other industry to absorb any of the men without a job, an extra burden is placed upon the city.

Cause of Suspension

It is largely a question of internal policy that has brought about the suspension of work at the plant. There is a lessened demand, to be sure, for all new products at present, but the stone cannot be said to be the real cause of the move made by the Maritime Nail Works. Stanley E. Elkin, M.P., managing director of the company, views the wage schedule existing as absolutely prohibitive to the carrying on of work, especially in view of the uncertain market conditions prevailing. In other words, from a business standpoint, it is suicidal to attempt to manufacture at their plant with such high wages in force as are being paid.

A Disadvantage

Other works producing the same grade of goods as is being manufactured by the Maritime Nail Works are on a 10-hour basis, while the St. John industry is on the 9-hour schedule.

Woman Furrier Makes Fortune

(Copyright, 1920, by Crues-Atlantic.) London, Jan. 2.—To change $1,250 into $150,000 in two years has been the remarkable achievement of London's only woman wholesale furrier, Miss Cecelia Frager, who has just married Mr. Sidney Joyce, another furrier, and formed a business as well as a domestic partnership with him.

Two years ago Mrs. Joyce, daughter of a city furrier, began business with $1,250 she had saved. She relied solely on her expert knowledge of pelts and today her third street business has a capital of $150,000. "It requires expert knowledge to detect some imitation pelts," she says, "but no mock-fur, however skillfully dressed, can deceive me. I have travelled in South Africa, Russia, and practically every other fur-bearing country."

"I buy at the Queen street fur auctions. Many of the skins I buy are modelled in garments in Paris; some of these garments are delivered in London by airplane almost daily. Mrs. Joyce now hopes that her new partner will enable the turnover to be doubled. "For a man to understand business," says Mrs. Joyce.

NEW YEAR CONCERT AT COUNTY HOSPITAL

New Year's afternoon a very successful concert was given at East St. John County Hospital under the direction of Captain Stokes of the T. C. C. A. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Flowering and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flowering. Those taking part in the programme were: Miss Edith Mackenzie, Miss Gladys Tweedie, F. J. Pendergast, Thomas Brindley, pianist. For an hour an informal programme was given in one of the downstairs rooms, which was greatly enjoyed. Captain Stokes, assisted by the ladies, visited every patient, distributing apples, oranges and chocolates, which were much appreciated.

Imperial Theatre Presents

Powerful Abe Lincoln Story

Featuring Lionel Barrymore

They called him "traitor," and he gloried in the shame. His cronies were those who sneered when the flag went by.

His soldier son, giving his life for the Union, left him only a message of scorn. His wife, the love of his youth, turned from him as from a thing unclean, and died without saying goodbye. The lads in the street reviled him—cheered when he went to prison.

But one day this "traitor" received a letter bearing the mark of the White House and scrawled by a big rough hand—

"I alone know what you did and what you endured. I cannot reward you. Man cannot reward anything worth while. I send you the flag that flew at Vicksburg. Some time I hope to shake your hand."

Your friend, A. Lincoln.
