TWO TRAIN WRECKS NOT FAR FROM TOLEDO

Pennsylvania Cars Jump
Track—Engineer Badly Hurt —Passengers Escape.

Toledo, Feb. 7.—G. C. Finley, 42, engineer on Pennsylvania passenger train No. 411, was scalded so badly that he is not expected to recover, and his fireman, W. R. Ritter, was injured severely when their locomotive jumped the track at Bloomville, fifty miles east of here, at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

The locomotive, tender and baggage car turned over into the ditch but the two coaches, laden with passengers, many of them from Detroit, remained on the tracks. The passengers were unhurt aside from a shaking up.

The train was westbound from Mansfield to Toledo and was traveling about fifty miles an hour when the locomotive left the rails.

Engineer Finley was taken to a hospital at Lima, where it was said that he will lose his sight even if he recovers. Fireman Ritter was brought to Toledo.

An eastbound train due at Lima at 4:17 p. m., carried physicians and other forms of relief to the scene of the wreck.

New York Central express train No.
45, bound for Chicago, also was in a wreck at Swanton, 15 miles west of here, at 5 o'clock this morning. E. B.
Lahomaden, engineer, 1084 South Main street, Elkhart, Ind., and his fireman, William Baum, 501 Higley street, Elkhart were brought to a hospital here badly injured.

HAS BEEN FINE FOR HIS WIFE, HE STATES

Hubble Says Tanlac Restored Him Last Winter and Is Doing His Wife a World of Good.

"You can tell them that Tanlac has certainly been a fine thing for my wife, too, and we just think it's the greatest medicine in the world," said Robert Hubble, of Waverly, N. S., an employee of the Canadian National railroad, while at Kenney's drug store in Halifax recently.

"My wife was in such a weak, rundown condition that she couldn't get out of bed without help, and for over three years she wasn't even able to walk about the house. She suffered terribly from stomach disorder and a complication of other troubles. Indigestion and bloating caused her so much of worry, and she had no appetite whatever. She was so nervous and restless everything seemed to annoy her, and a good night's sleep was simply out of the question. Although we tried everything in the way of medicine we knew of, she could get no relief at all.

"Well, it's certainly wonderful what Tanalac has done for her. She has only taken three bottles so far, but even this has helped her so remarkably that she can get up without help and walk about the house, and, on pleasant days, even go out in the yard. Her appetite is greatly improved, and she is not troubled with indigestion a bit. She believes a few more bottles of Tanlac will restore her health entirely.

"Last winter I had influenza and lost my appetite altogether, but it only took Tanlac a little while to set me eating good and hearty again. It is certainly a great medicine."

Tanalac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., E. W. Munro and by T. H.
Wilson, Fairville, N. B., and R. D.
Wolmore, Perry's Point, N. B., under the personal direction of a special Tanalac representative.—Advt.

SKY PILOT LEADS FLOCK TO THE STARS

Upton, Mass., Feb. 7.—The Rev.
William Poor became sky pilot to his parishioners of the First Congregational Church tonight in a liberal as well as a narrative sense. As an added attraction to Sunday evening services he gave first lessons in astronomy, making a spiritual application to each.
His reference to the moon, for example, was supplemented by a suggestion to young couples that they do some of their Sunday night mooning in the church instead of in the park.

EXCHANGED HIS WIFE FOR $500 BUILDING LOT

Attempt to Regain Transferred Spouse Causes Riot Call to be Sounded.

FOUR MIXED UP
IN THE TANGLE

Woman Says New Husband's Safe Contains All the Signed Papers.

Special to The Standard.
Chicago, Feb. 10.—To have and to hold, to love and to cherish, for richer or poorer, in sickness or in health, for better or for worse, till someone offers a $500 vacant lot.

That, in substance, is declared to have been the marriage vow of Eric Johnson of Rockford, and had lived up to it.

"In consideration of a vacant lot valued at $500," Eric is alleged to have "relinquished all claims to a wife, Marie, 20 years old, value not stated," to Berger Peterson, a butcher.

That August Peterson, who had a half interest in the lot made the purchase more intricate. The police, who captured all four principals in the transaction after a night spent with fist fights, riot calls and hotel raids, attempted today, with little success, to solve the marital real estate tangle.

Johnson's attempt to regain possession of the transaction to the blotter of the Sheffield avenue station with humorous embellishments, John traced the woman and Berger Peterson to an apartment, but was met by "Gus" Peterson.

"I am looking for Mr. Peterson," said Mr. Johnson.

The Row Begins.

"This is Mr. Peterson," said Mr.
Peterson, punching his visitor in the eye.

"The wrong Mr. Peterson," said Mr.
Johnson.

In the argument that ensued a riot call was turned in by neighbors and the negative and affirmative of the debate were taken to the police station. Later Berger Peterson and Mrs. Johnson were located at a hotel and arrested.

Berger said the woman told of the vacant lot transaction and said the papers, signed by all parties to the agreement, were in his safe in Peterson's butcher shop in Rockford.

"We were married in Rockford during the war while I was working as freeman in a machine shop," he said, "and I was very happy until one day I saw my wife casting longing glances at the butcher shop across the street. I asked her what the attraction was and she said that the dressed pig looked so good to her. I found later that the real attraction was the beautiful butcher."

The police are holding a principal pending an investigation of Mrs.
Johnson's "sale" by which she was transferred to Berger Peterson.

Jaunty Bandits
Served Customers

Sold Goods in Broadway Store After Binding Salesman and Rifling Register.

Special to The Standard.
New York, Feb. 7.—Entering a United Cigar Store at 2,945 Broadway, corner of 118th street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, two young men, dressed soft felt hats, pulled down over their eyes, asked the salesman, William Einhorn, to hand them a package of cigarettes. The salesman reached for the package from the shelf and as he turned around he found himself facing the muzzles of two well-polished revolvers. One of the hold-up men ordered Einhorn to get into a back room in a hurry, which he did.

The two young bandits followed close at his heels. While one held a revolver close to his body the other aimed him securely with wire for hanging pictures. Having tied up the salesman, one stood guard over him while the confederate went to the store and started to rifle the cash register.

Waited on Customers.

Several customers entered, and the highwayman, doffing his hat, assumed the part of the salesman and made several sales, which he rung up on the cash register. As the customers departed he called to the other bandit, standing guard, saying:
"Everything's all right." His confederate then joined him and the two took $159 from the cash register. They sauntered jauntily out of the store as Malcolm Levy, a Columbia University student, living at 532 West 114th street, entered the store.
He heard the salesman in the back room crying for help and went there to unbound him. Einhorn then notified the police of the West 125th street police station, and detectives from there were sent to make search for the bandits, who are believed to have escaped in an automobile, perhaps waiting a block away.

FOUND JOB AT LAST;
FELL DEAD AT TASK

Special to The Standard.
New York, Feb. 10.—Joseph Samich-anski of Perth Amboy, N. J., lost his job two months ago. He made every effort to obtain employment, but failed.
Yesterday morning, when he had spent his last quarter for breakfast, he walked over to the foreman of an excavation job located not far from his home and asked for work.

"Sure," said the foreman. "Here, take this shovel."

"Thanks. You're a regular guy," Smichanski told him, and then, as he fitted the first shovel of earth, he toppled over. He was dead from heart failure before an ambulance could be called.

Fined For Impeding Street Car Traffic

E. S. Buchanan Paid Ten Dollars for Holding up Five Cars Fifteen Minutes.

A fine of ten dollars was struck against E. S. Buchanan in the police court yesterday afternoon for impeding traffic at the corner of Sydney and Union streets.

John Woods, motorman for the N.
B. Power Co., was the only one to give evidence. On being recalled to the stand, he stated that he saw the defendant get out of his car and go to the curb with a notebook, looking for witnesses from amongst the bystanders.

The witness stated that, according to the city by-law, street cars had the right-of-way over all traffic, except the fire department, ambulance and the company's own emergency repair cars.
The company's employees were all supplied with copies of the law and instructed to govern themselves accordingly. The tie-up resulted in the loss of from ten to fifteen minutes to four Haymarket cars running on a five minute schedule, and a West St. John car.

In reply to the request of H. S.
Kerby, who appeared for the defendant, Magistrate Ritchie said that he could not consider allowing the fine to stand, in view of the great inconvenience the general public had been put to by the action of his client.

A second charge of failing to carry a 1921 license tag was allowed to stand. J. B. Dever conducted the prosecution for the N. B. Power Co.

One drunk, an Indian from Nova Scotia, was brought before the court and was remanded to jail.

Nine protectionists spent the night at the police station.

Wm. P. McDonald, of Kane & Mc-Donald, paid a $2 fine for smoking in the city market.

Four men were reported for violating this market rule, but not fined.
Under new conditions, the fine imposed may be as high as $20.

Missing Girl Returns
Only To Disappear

Refused to Answer Questions in Her Half Hour Stay at Home.

New York, Feb. 10.—Grace Elva Anderson, a fourteen-year-old school girl, who had been missing more than a week from her home in 82 Sterling place, Brooklyn, returned home yesterday afternoon, but she left again half an hour later and last night the police again were searching for her. During her short stay she talked with a neighbor, but refused to say where she had been or why she had returned. She left the second time when the neighbor went to notify the police.

The girl, who had been attending Manual Training High School in Brooklyn, walked into the house yesterday carrying the same suit case she had when she disappeared last Tuesday with $150 belonging to her brother. When she went out again it was without the suit case, but with a dollar bill she had found in a bureau drawer. Mrs. Catherine Deoley, who lives with her, said that the girl was apparently healthy and happy, but would not answer questions.

Miss Grace Cole, a school teacher and aunt with whom the girl has made home since the death of her mother, said she believes Grace is acting under the "influence of a master mind of the criminal world."

"I think," she said, "that this master mind sent her back to get more money." Miss Cole was not at home when her niece appeared.

Billie Burke
Takes A Bath

A modern shower bath complete in every detail, with a picture of a modern Artcraft motor picture studio in New York for Billie Burke. Not that the pretty star in the Paramount apartment in New York is doing working hours. A scene in her latest picture, "Wanted—A Husband," requires her to shiver and dance under an ice-cold shower-bath of realism. Moreover, she insisted that the water be really cold, and grimaces she makes on the screen are hard to fathom.

It is all in the interest of beauty.
Miss Burke has the role of a slovenly little wallpaper designer, living in a Boheman apartment in New York.
She is indifferent to her appearance and is altogether impossible as far as men are concerned until the engagements of her two girl companions to male charmers and their gibe arouse her to action. She not only feigns a fiancé of her own, but goes through a course of training that so beautifies her that the improvised sweetheart is quite willing to become a real one.

Hoboken, N. J., Feb. 7.—The fire which caused the death of 13 persons in the Colonial Hotel on Jan. 30 was accidental and of unknown origin, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury given at an inquest here yesterday into the death of Daisy Gray, one of the victims.

FUNERALS.

The death of James C. McAllister occurred at his residence 184 Adelaide street, on February 6. Mr. McAllister was well known on the head waters of the St. John as a lumber operating foreman for the Temiscouata Lumber Co. for the last twenty-three years.
Funeral services were conducted at his late residence on Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Spencer, of St. Matthew's church, assisted by Rev. G. D. Hudson, of Victoria street Baptist church. A quartette was beautifully sung by Messrs. Burr, Wood, Holder and Girvan. The body was taken to Chipman on Monday morning.
Burial took place from the home of his brother, from Bound Cove, the funeral service being conducted on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Sutherland of the Chipman Presbyterian church. Service at the grave was conducted by the Loyal Orange Association of which he was an honorary life member.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Muriel and Gladys, and one son, George, all at home. He also leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs.
J. D. Colwell, of Victoria street, and four brothers, John, of this city, and David William and Zeb of Iron Bound Cove.

Among the beautiful floral tributes received were: Wreath, Mr. and Mrs.
C. H. Gibbon; broken circle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Manson; spray, Mrs. E.
B. McLean; wreath, H. M. Jones; spray, Mrs. George Larkin and family; spray, Mrs. Akerley and Miss and Roy Colwell; wreath, girl friends and Roy Colwell McAllister.

The funeral of Henry G. Nixon was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 56 Sydney street, to Cedar Hill. Service was conducted by Rev. E. E. Styles.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie B. Parks was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 100 Elm street, to Cedar Hill. Service was conducted by Rev. Harry B. Clarke and Rev.
Neil McLaughlan.

The funeral of Miss Doris Sides was held yesterday morning from Fitzpatrick's undertaking rooms to the cathedral for requiem high mass celebrated by Rev. H. Ramage. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetry.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Connell was held yesterday afternoon from 181 Erin street. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Service in connection with the funeral of Miss Annie Dupluis was held Wednesday evening at her late residence, 1 Orange street, Fairville, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Fairville. The body was taken on the Boston train yesterday morning to Hoyt Station for interment.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Arthur Sapier.

The death of Mary Ellen, wife of Arthur Sapier, and daughter of Peter and the late Alice Paul, occurred at the General Public Hospital, Wednesday afternoon. She leaves, besides her father, one brother, Joseph, of this city, and two sisters. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning from her late residence, 73 Bridge street, to St.
Peter's Church.
