PERFORMANCES OF GORMAN, THE HUMAN DYNAMO, WERE THE MOST BRILLIANT FEATURES OF THREE DAYS' SKATING

The St. John Flash Was the Outstanding Feature in Large Field of Contestants at International Amateur Skating Championships—Brings Stands to Their Feet With Lusty Cheers When, by Spirited Skating, He Captured the 440 Event—Frank Garnett Gets Third Place—Gorman Third in Meet.

Joe Moore, of New York, who lost the international title at the meet, won the race, the first heat he took in the meet, with Valentine Biala, of Lake Placid, second, and Richard Donovan, of Chicago, who fell in the stretch but recovered his footing, third.

Gorman set out at the beginning of the race to win the lap race. However, after leading for five laps, he slipped out of the race.

Howard Glover, of Toronto, won his heat in the 440, coming from third with a brilliant dash. In the second heat Garnett finished a close second to Jewrow, who won the dash. Gorman won the fourth heat after a close race, his footing at the first turn of the lap, Dave Patrick, of Winnipeg, was distanced in this heat. In the third heat, Wheeler won after a brilliant start at the finish line.

In the first heat of the 220 for boys of 14, W. Smith, of Montreal, was distanced. Ralph Bloomfield, also of Montreal, fell in the stretch after skating too wide at the last turn. ## Acadia Defeated The U. N. B. Team

Fast Hockey Game Played at Wolfville Last Night in the Intercollegiate Series.

Wolfville, N. S., Feb. 2.—Acadia defeated the University of New Brunswick in the intercollegiate hockey game here tonight by 4 to 2. Acadia aggressively surprised their supporters at the outset when they forced the pace, attacked heavily, and scored twice. Acadia, then, while Acadia, the U. N. B. goal defender covered himself with glory by stopping repeated stinging shots. Acadia was scroubled little until the last shot of the period when he was beaten by an offside.

The second period, like the first, saw the Acadia aggression by fast combination and speed sustaining the attack, excepting when Acadia's attack, saving, fell, and a minute later was beaten by Lounsbury from behind him. McKeighe, the other end, stopped repeatedly until Morrison from a rebound added Acadia's third score. The last effort was worthy of the professionals, both sides exciting themselves. N. B. scored twice, but Acadia with his view gave a wonderful display of alertness by super stopping from all angles. Hirtle was slightly hurt just before the bell rang. Finally when Acadia won by 4 to 2 the band again played.

SUSSEX CHAMPION HOCKEY TEAM WON FROM ANTIGONISH

On Slushy Surface That Prevented High Class Hockey—New Brunswickers Defeated Nova Scotia Champions for Maritime Title by a Score of Four to Two.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 2.—On a slushy surface that prevented high class hockey, Sussex, champions of New Brunswick, defeated Antigonish, champions of Nova Scotia, four to two at the Arena tonight before 1,500 spectators. Up until the last ten minutes of play it was anybody's game, the territory being evenly divided, but Sussex outplayed Antigonish in the final stages of the game and won a slim victory.

Both teams had good stickhandlers and speed skaters on their lines, but their efforts at puck-carrying were at times unsuccessful. When some of the players did get going, the puck would roll and the old-fashioned game "shiny" was indulged in.

Sussex outwitted the Nova Scotians and were better stickhandlers, but the college team boys had as much speed as the champions of the rival province. Good work around the nets and interference was instrumental in winning for Sussex. When the puck was near the rival net, the Sussex front liners got in their work. They never roamed from their position; and on four occasions when the rubber was passed out, a time and white jerseyed puck chaser was in the right place.

Sussex back-checked more than Antigonish, Radcliffe, Leclair and Friars paying more attention to this important department of the game, than puck-carrying. Freddie McDonald was the whole show for Antigonish when it came to interference.

The main was falling heavily when Referee Joe Corbett and Neil Wilkie gave their players their final instructions.

D. Chisholm carried the rubber into the Sussex defence, where Bill Hay intercepted a pass and skated down to Sears who passed to Joe Leclair who banged the rubber behind Sears after five minutes of play, but he was offside. A minute later he missed a sure score, when Sears made a beautiful stop.

Both goalies stood out prominently in the opening period and made all but impossible stops. Finnegan stopped two hot ones from Joe Gillis, with his neck; when the flashy winger was inside of the defense. Gillis played a

Canadian Pair Were Victorious

Most Spectacular Game of the Canadian Racquets Championship Tournament being played in this city. A. S. Cassila and Alex Wilson, locals, defeated L. W. Noel and C. R. Leonard of New York by four games to one here this afternoon. The Canadians pair took command early in the game and were never seriously threatened.

In the singles Clarence Pelt, of New York, successfully defended his Canadian Championship title against Alex Wilson, he holding the advantage of play throughout the game. S. G. Mortimer, of New York, defeated L. W. Noel, of New York. Pelt and Mortimer, holders of the National Doubles title won from O. H. Turpin and A. B. Chipman, both local players.

The semi-finals in each event will be played tomorrow afternoon and the finals are scheduled for Saturday.
