

The daughters of Miss Norma Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fenton, West St. John, to Mr. Thomas McAvity, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. McAvity, will be solemnized at St. Jude's Church, West St. John, on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Miss Norma Fenton has been the guest of honor at many social functions recently, in honor of her approaching marriage.

On Thursday afternoon at her residence, Douglas Avenue, Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell gave a largely attended tea for Miss Fenton. The drawing room was prettily decorated for the occasion with purple, yellow and white, and the tea table had in the center a silver basket containing the same flowers. Mrs. Seymour Rathbone presided over the tea cups and was assisted by Mrs. Ronald Miller, Mrs. Sidney Jones, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Freeman Hamm, Mrs. Usher Miller, Mrs. H. O. Evans, Miss Jean Fenton, Miss Marion Belyea and Miss Frances Beattie. Among those present were Miss Fenton, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Leslie Peters, Mrs. Percy Bonnel, Mrs. Chester Gandy, Mrs. John H. Allingham, Mrs. H. O. Clark, Mrs. Frederick W. Gilman, Mrs. Frederick Simms, Mrs. Neil McLean, Mrs. J. H. McLean, Mrs. Daryl Peters, Mrs. Henry O'Brien, Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Miss Leslie Skinner, Miss Leslie Grant, Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Constance Ewing, Miss Irene McArthur, Miss Hortense Maher, Miss Margaret Murray, Miss Zola Lamoreaux, Miss Macmillan, Miss Frances Jordan, Miss Alice Hayes, Miss Helen Hayes, Miss Janice Creighton, Miss Helen Morrison, Miss Thelma Alward, Miss Nellie Melrose, Miss Clementine Fenton, Miss Barbara Jack and Miss Gladys Dowling.

The engagement has been announced of Elsie MacArthur, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Rowan and the late John C. L. Hathaway to Mr. Alexander Forbes O'Brien of Edinburgh, Scotland. The marriage is to take place July 1.

Mrs. Daryl Peters entertained at a very enjoyable bridge of four tables on Wednesday evening at her residence, Limestone street, in honor of Mrs. Henry O'Brien, of Toronto. Prizes for the highest scores were won by Miss Mary White and Mr. Gerald Anglin. The guests included Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence MacLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. William Vassie, Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carter, Miss Mary McArthur, Mr. Harold Peters and Mr. McCarthy.

Mrs. John H. Allingham was the hostess at an enjoyable luncheon at the Sign of the Green Lantern on Wednesday in honor of Miss Norma Fenton. Covers were laid for twelve guests. The table which was artistically arranged, was inclosed in the center a bowl of pansies and at each guest's place were dainty bouquets of sweethearts and lilies. Those present were: Miss Norma Fenton, Mrs. N. I. Fenton, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Frank Tilton, Mrs. Harold Mayes, Mrs. Percy D. McAvity, Mrs. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. Sidney Jones, Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell, Miss Nellie Melrose and Miss Janice Macaulay.

Dr. F. R. Taylor was the host at an enjoyable dinner at the Golf Club on Wednesday evening in honor of General McLean, who returned on Sunday from a trip to China and Japan.

Mrs. Alexander C. Orr was the hostess at a beautifully arranged luncheon at the Golf Club on Tuesday, in honor of Miss Norma Fenton. Wild flowers in profusion decorated the artistically arranged table, and dainty bouquets were at each guest's place. Those present were Miss Norma Fenton, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Percy D. McAvity, Mrs. Ronald McAvity, Mrs. Seymour Rathbone, Mrs. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell, Miss Catherine McAvity and Miss Dorothy Bilard.

Mrs. Frank Miller entertained very enjoyably at the tea hour at her residence, Canterbury street, on Friday afternoon, last week in honor of Miss Norma Fenton. The table which was centered with purple iris was presided over by Mrs. Percy D. McAvity, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell, Mrs. John H. Allingham, Mrs. Neil McLean, Miss Nellie Melrose and the Misses Jean and Clement Fenton. Among those present were Mrs. Thomas Guy, Mrs. Leslie Peters, Mrs. David W. Ledingham, Mrs. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. Laurence MacLaren, Mrs. Chester Gandy, Mrs. Hugh McLean, Mrs. Harold Mayes, Mrs. Arthur Carter, Mrs. Freeman Hamm, Mrs. John H. Allingham, Mrs. Usher Miller, Mrs. W. A. Clark, Mrs. LeLachur, Miss Lota Dykeman, Miss Janice Creighton, Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Phyllis Kenney, Miss Hortense Maher, Miss Jennie Clark, Miss Wetmore (Truro, N. S.), the Misses Sturdee, Miss Caroline Page and Miss Leslie Grant and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McAvity entertained informally at dinner at their residence, Burpee avenue on Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Norma Fenton and Mr. Thomas McAvity.

Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Mahoney entertained at a beautifully arranged bridge party on Friday evening, last week at their home on Princess street. Prizes for highest scores were won by Miss MacLachlin and Mr. Geoffrey Stead. The spacious drawing rooms and library were beautifully decorated with white lilies, rose carnations and rose shaded candles in brass candle sticks of antique design. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Stead, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. A. Lawton, Dr. and Mrs. Peat, Mrs. J. P. Estey, Miss Jardine of Rexford, Mrs. Miss Norma Fenton, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Seymour Rathbone, Mrs. Usher Miller and Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell.

Mrs. Charles Miller entertained informally at the tea hour on Tuesday at the Hitching Post, near Woodville, in honor of Miss Norma Fenton. During the afternoon an attractively arranged shower of handkerchiefs was presented to the honored guest. Those present were Miss Norma Fenton, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Seymour Rathbone, Mrs. Usher Miller and Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Purdy, 193 Princess street, received the congratulations of their many friends on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. An abundance of roses, carnations and other cut flowers, gifts in honor of the event, decorated the dressing room. At the tea table Miss Dorothy Purdy presided and was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Henderson and Miss Annie Scammell. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Purdy of New York, Mrs. Albert Lockhart, Mrs. W. H. Barnaby, Mrs. D. Carleton Clinch, Mrs. G. Frederick Sanctor, Mrs. Walter W. White, Mrs. Charles A. Palmer and Miss Blanch Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McAvity are entertaining at a family dinner at their residence, Rothesay, on Monday evening in honor of Miss Fenton and Mr. Thomas McAvity.

Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod and Mrs. Busby entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Ambrose of Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Foster and family and Mr. and Mrs. James Gilchrist and family are spending the summer months at Duck Cove.

Many old friends took advantage of Mrs. A. C. Skelton's afternoon at home on Thursday to call upon her guest Mrs. W. J. Ambrose of Halifax and to extend to her a welcome, if for only a visit, to St. John. The tea table was centered with pink roses and was presided over by Mrs. M. B. Edwards. Assisting with the delicious refreshments were Mrs. Thomas Guy, Miss Clara Schofield and Miss Christian Edwards.

Miss Frances Jordan gave an enjoyable bridge and novelty shower at her residence, Paradise Row, yesterday, in honor of Miss Fenton.

Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Dorchester street, returned on Monday from Toronto, where she has been studying music.

Many relatives and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Waterbury assembled at their residence in Fair Vale on Monday evening to celebrate with them the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. A beautifully worded and illuminated address was presented to them and was read by Miss Alice Belling, who composed the verses. It was a matter of regret that Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury's eldest son, Mr. Harold Waterbury, and his family, of Lothbridge, Alberta, were unable to be present on this happy occasion.

Miss Saubier left this week for Harcourt, where she will spend her vacation.

Rev. A. L. and Mrs. Fleming will be passengers on the Cunard liner Tyrenia, which sails from Montreal on June 27th. They will spend two months in England and Scotland.

Mrs. Daniel Mullin and Miss Katherine Mullin returned on Saturday from Philadelphia.

Miss Helen B. Walker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dacre Walker, Andover, Mass., and granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, was a visitor in St. John this week, en route to Mill Cove, Labrador. Miss Walker has volunteered to teach a year under the Grenfell Education Mission as a part of the system of education welfare work in which she is engaged. Miss Walker is one of a party of eleven young ladies, most of whom are from Bryn Mawr, who are on their way to Labrador to assume similar duties.

Miss Mary White entertained at bridge at the family residence, Sydney street, yesterday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Henry O'Brien, of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Foster and children left yesterday for Hilldale to spend several weeks at The House of the Seven Gables.

Miss Marjorie Lee, of New Glasgow, who has been the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jack, Princess street, leaves today for Duck Cove to visit Mrs. William Avery.

Miss MacLaren is expected in St. John this week-end and will be guests for a few days at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Coburg street, en route too St. Andrews.

Mrs. W. J. Ambrose, of Halifax, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Skelton, Gormain street.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Short are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the arrival of a little son at the Evangeline Hospital on Tuesday.

Lieut. Colonel Robert Moran and Mrs. Moran, of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent last week-end in St. John at the Royal Hotel. Mrs. Moran left on Monday for New York, and was accompanied by Miss Edith White. Colonel Moran accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Donald MacKenzie, of New York, left on Monday afternoon for St. Martins.

The Misses Sturdee are the guests of Miss Lucille Hawkins at Fredericton.

The Misses Jean and Katherine Angus, of Montreal, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John A. McAvity, Orance street.

Mr. Frederic Hudd, who was formerly a member of the Canadian Buffs under Colonel Cooper, while stationed in St. John, spent a few days this week, en route to St. Andrews.

Mrs. Howell, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilly at Carleton House, returned to her home in Winnipeg on Monday.

Miss Christian Edwards, a student at Vassar College, is spending her holidays with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. M. B. Edwards.

Mrs. Frank Walker, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop, is spending a few days in St. John, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph deBorja, before returning to her home in Bathurst.

Mrs. Charles M. Bosworth is spending the summer months at Smith's Cove, N. S.

Miss Elizabeth Dodd, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kimball, Carleton street, has returned to her home in Montreal.

Miss Frances Pearson and Miss Kellogg, of Chicago, graduates of Vassar College, are expected to arrive in St. John on Monday and will be the guests for a few days of Colonel and Mrs. M. B. Edwards, Sydney street, en route to Labrador to spend a year at Dr. Grenfell's Mission.

Miss Ethel Sidney Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gillis Keator, at Halifax.

Miss Sybil Barnes returned on Friday from Rochester, Minn.

Many old friends in St. John regretted to hear of the death at Montreal on Saturday of Mrs. Dunlop, Frances Simonds. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, June 23—On Tuesday next week the closing exercises of Rothesay Consolidated School take place.

At the tennis courts tomorrow, Saturday, the tennis team will be a club tournament and novelty shower.

Among those who recently reopened summer homes here are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilly and family, of St. John.

At the Riverdale Golf and Country Club on Tuesday, Mrs. Alexander Orr was hostess at luncheon for Miss Fenton, of St. John, in honor of a happy event to take place next week. Covers were laid for ten. The place cards were dainty ornate roses of several pale shades and the blossoms used in decorations were wild flowers.

Those present were Miss Fenton, Miss Dorothy Bilard, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Bainham (Ottawa), Miss Catherine McAvity, Mrs. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, Mrs. Percy McAvity, Mrs. Ronald McAvity and Mrs. Orr.

Among those here for the college-closing were Rev. and Mrs. Lance, of McAdam, who have a son at the school. They were guests of Rev.

SCALE AND RASH ON CHILD'S HEAD

Scalp Sore and Inflamed. Cross and Fretful. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"From a scale and rash on her head and her scalp was sore and inflamed, and she was cross and fretful and lost sleep. Her hair would not grow, and her head was so itchy that she would scratch it. This trouble lasted for several months and I finally sent for a bottle of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and now she is healed." (Signed) Mrs. Lydia E. Ellis, 750 Ocean Park, Calif. Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes.

Send for free booklet. Address: "Cuticura," South Scituate, Mass. "Cuticura" Soap every where. "Cuticura" Ointment in drug stores.

of Gen. B. Jones, M. P., and Mrs. Jones.

Rev. L. H. Jewett, of Oak Hill, Chatham County, visited friends here this week en route home from the N. B. & P. E. I. Conference which convened in Sackville.

Mrs. G. N. Pearson, Sussex, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Harry C. Jones. G. B. Jones returned to Ottawa this week after having spent the period of political campaigning in Kings Co.

Mrs. Jarvis Osbourne, of Penobscot and Mrs. R. L. Moore of Mecklenburg, were guests of Mrs. E. J. Wallace on Monday.

Mrs. J. V. Wright spent the week-end in Fredericton, guest of her son H. L. Wright and Mrs. Wright.

Rev. J. S. Gregg, of Boiestown, Northumberland Co., visited his brother, Geo. W. Gregg and Miss Gregg, the clergy part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gaudin, of Gagetown, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Lelper.

Miss Nettie Manning of Sussex is spending a few days with Mrs. G. B. Jones.

The outbreak of black diphtheria, which horrified the residents of Colima last week, has been under the keen observation of medical men and health officials and has apparently been subdued since no new cases have as yet materialized and those who were stricken with the disease are slowly convalescing.

Mrs. Richard Moore and Mrs. John Kelly, of Upper Sussex, were guests of Mr. J. P. Connely on Monday.

Major Jones, Mrs. Jones and sons, Mr. and Mrs. John last Sunday and spent the day.

A number of pupils from schools in the Rural Districts are taking High School entrance examinations in the Apohaqui Superior School.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, June 23—Miss Hemmison, who has been teaching at Vermont, is spending a few days with Mrs. H. C. Fawcett, on route to her home at Wolfville, N. S.

Mrs. P. W. Fawcett is spending a few days at Cape Breton, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chapman, at their summer cottage.

Hostesses at the golf tea on Saturday afternoon were Mrs. H. C. Read and Miss Hazel Tingley.

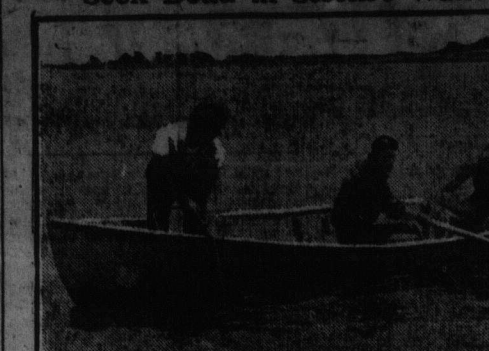

Mrs. G. W. Tingley and two children, of Fowal, P. E. I., were week-end guests of Mrs. Fred. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wood, who were in Rothsay last week attending the closing of Netherwood School, returned home Saturday.

Reports to hand indicate that Elio B. Spicer, Nova Scotia's greatest baritone, is meeting with great success in London, England. Mr. Spicer is expected home early in July, and will again be the soloist at the Berwick camp meeting.

Miss Ruth Tingley, of Boston, is visiting friends in Sackville.

Seek Dead in Storm's Wake

Life guards and volunteers dug waters of City Island, N. Y., to find more victims of the storm of June 12. The death toll may reach 100.

Ford and two little daughters left last week for a visit to Belltown, N. S. The C. G. I. T. girls of the Methodist church spent a very pleasant hour in the common room of the Ladies' College last Monday evening, when a presentation of a handsome gold bar pin was made to one of their members, Miss Marion Ryan, daughter of Rev. W. M. Ryan, who is leaving shortly for Charlottetown, P. E. I. Miss Ryan has been a valued member of the organization since coming to Sackville, and she will be much missed by the C. G. I. T. During the evening refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour spent.

Captain Leonard Tower and his wife, who were shipwrecked off Cape Hatteras early in April last, when the Cumberland Queen struck a shoal in severe storm, are now at their home here. Captain Tower intends taking a vacation on land for some time before resuming his seafaring life.

Mrs. W. W. Fawcett, of Upper Sackville, is in Fredericton attending the tenth annual convention of the New Brunswick Women's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. William Damory, of Chatham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edythe Bulman, to Arthur B. Gillette, of Sackville. The marriage will take place the latter part of June.

Mr. A. G. Putnam, manager of the Royal Bank here, is away on a fishing expedition.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wood, who were in Rothsay last week attending the closing of Netherwood School, returned home Saturday.

Reports to hand indicate that Elio B. Spicer, Nova Scotia's greatest baritone, is meeting with great success in London, England. Mr. Spicer is expected home early in July, and will again be the soloist at the Berwick camp meeting.

Miss Ruth Tingley, of Boston, is visiting friends in Sackville.

HILLSBORO

Hillsboro, N. B., June 23—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blackney, of Moncton, spent the week-end with friends in town.

Mr. Albert E. Woodworth and son Harold of Winnipeg, are guests at the home of Mr. Lester Woodworth.

Mrs. J. R. Murray and son, Jack, of Moncton, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cameron.

Rev. J. B. Gough has returned from Sackville, where he attended the N. B. & P. E. I. Methodist Conference.

Miss Kate Taylor, R.N., of Salem, Mass., is spending a vacation with her mother, Mrs. W. F. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLean of Moncton, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn West of Moncton, were here for the week-end. Mrs. Walter Gross of Calgary, Alta., is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. Thomas Lowther.

Mrs. George Rutherford and little

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR BABY'S OWN TABLETS

No medicine receives such great praise from thankful mothers as do Baby's Own Tablets. Once a mother has used them for her little ones she will find them a gift of silver, a mild but thorough laxative. They regulate the bowels and stomach, drive out constipation and indigestion, relieve colic and simple fever, and induce a healthy sleep and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Ouellette, Maddington Falls, Que., writes:—"I am well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets and will always use them for my little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Biscuits for Tea

Light, and crisp, and appetising, and above all, healthful and nourishing. These are best, of course, when made with REGAL FLOUR.

Saint Andrew's College For Boys

A Residential and Day School situated in North Roseville, a suburb of St. John, N. B. The object of the Board of Governors of St. Andrew's is the moral, mental and physical development of boys entrusted to them. Boys entering Lower School and continuing through the Upper School leave the advantage of an unbroken course in preparation for the University, Royal Military College and business. The School is maintained by a strong Board of Governors. The teaching staff consists of sixteen University Graduates in addition to the lay staff. Admission Terms: Higher Secondary, $100.00 per annum. For particulars and copy of calendar, address: Rev. D. BRUCE MACDONALD, M.A., LL.D., Headmaster, St. Andrew's College, Toronto, Ont.

OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE

Residential and Day School for Girls. Matriculation Course, Music Art, Household Science, Games, Gymnastics and Riding. For particulars apply to principal, Miss J. GALLAGHER, Reception September 25th, New Freeport Building, OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE, OTTAWA.

Genuine

BAYER

ASPIRIN

WARNING! Say "Bayer" when you buy Aspirin.

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on tablets, you are not getting Aspirin at all. Accept only an "unbroken package" of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," which contains directions and dose worked out by physicians during 22 years and proved safe by millions for

Colds	Headache	Rheumatism
Toothache	Neuralgia	Neuritis
Earache	Lumbago	Pain, Pain

Ready "Bayer" boxes of 10 tablets—Also bottles of 24 and 100—Drugstore.

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacturing Co. Manufacturers of Salicylates. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer, the Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."