After the meeting had been called to order and the minutes disposed of the an-nual report of Secretary Allison on the work of the board during the year was After a reference to the number of meetings held, the report says it is with much sorrow and regret that the council is called upon to record the death of three members during the year, all of them active business men who were closely identified with the trade and commerce of St. John. Mr. Ward C. Pitfield, whose of St. John. Mr. Ward C. Pitfield, whose death occurred last April, was for a long period connected with the board both as a member of the council and also as vice president of the board. Mr. George K. He re-gretted, in this connection, to announce that Mr. William Jarvis, who had effici-ently filled the office of vice-president dur-ing the past year, and was therefore en-titled to the presidency for the coming year, had requested that his name should not be, put in nomination, and a press of business made it impossible for him to-give to the office the time its importance demanded. An article on the subject by the sceretary was 'published with a map showing the approaches to St. John in Sells' London Commercial Intelligence. A committe of the board have still this work in hand. A committee was appointed by the council to oppose the enactment of the material changes proposed to be made in the present assessment law until such in the present assessment law until such to the assessors for that purpose, and, in view of an entirely new assessment act being gassed in the present act of last session, and also to oppose the opposition to submit the question of an exhibition grant to a plebiscite. In reference to the winter port business he said that it was now firmly established and in a position for steady growth. The completion of facilities contemplated at Sand Point and those under way at the head of the header values required to secure the preparation of an improved municipal taxation for St. John, both of which were advocated by the board, were made law. The report refers briefly to various de-tails of work—including the proceedings in connection with the annual meeting of the board of trade of the maritime provcontemplated at Sand Point and those under way at the head of the harbor would add greatly to the accommodation of the port and strengthen St. John's claim' to marine activity. Mr. McLaughlin said he felt that The council received a delegation from a membership of 151 was not enough for a board in a city of the size and business importance of St. John. There should be at least 250 active members and he suggested that each of the present members use every effort to bring others It would be well for the board to con-sider the question of obtaining more can-tral quarters. The present rooms were pleasant enough, but they were so out of the way that the very fine reading room was not used as it should be. He hoped that it might be possible in the future to have central rooms with tele-graphic facilities, and where stock and marine reports would be received. Pos-sibly the board would have a building of its own. The fifteen hundred dollar sur-plus on hand at present would form a very nice nucelus for a building fund. Mr. George Robertson nominated Mr. Mr. William Jarvis seconded the nom-ination, and Mr. McLaughlin was unanimously chosen. It would be well for the board to con-It is Incontrovertible! The new schooner P. R. S., about 74 tons, built across the bay, is now in port She will be placed in the coasting trade

The sail tonnage market remains quiet though the present maction is largely due to the scarcety of vessels and the full rate to the scarcety of vessels and the suffrate generally required. Orders are offered covering long voyages, South America, West Indies and coasting trades, but in each department shippers find it difficult to ormplete negotiations owing to the

The two-masted schooner Good Tem-plar, which was seized by the authorities screal months ago on a charge of smug-gling herring into this country from the provinces, and has since been tied up at Commercial wharf, has been declared forfeited to the government, and will be sold at United States sale on December 8, together with her gear and fittings. The Good Templar was built at Essex in 1867, and was rebuilt at Meteghan in 1894. [Boston Globe, Dec. 2.

AN AWFUL DEED.

Bangor, Me., Dec. 4.-A special de-spatch to the Whig and Courier from Ashland, Me., states that a probable murder was committed in the plantation of Sheridan, near the town of Ashland, at about 1 o'clock p. m., Satunday. Leon Deprey and Philip Soncie, became engaged in a drunken row at the latter's home in Elorgravilla accelled home in Florenceville, so-called, and De prey losing all control of himself, seized an axe which was in the room and struck Soucie with it in the back. The axe cut through the shoulder blade and into the lung, making a wound seven inches deep

DLLCHAW 3 PILLS has said over and over again :--"It is a fallacy to imagine that anything will sell just because it is advertised. Now many nostrums luve been started with glaro and snuffed out in gloom ? The fact is, a man is not easily guided a second time; and every disatisfied purchaser does ten times more harm than one satisfied does good. Assuredly the sale of more than 6,600,000 boxes of BEECHAM'S PILLS per annum, after a public trial of half-accentury, is con-clusive testimony of their popularity, su-periority and proverbial worth."
