

Scotia, returned Monday from a pleasant trip. The many friends of Miss Bevie Jones heard with deep regret of her death Sunday morning at her home in Main street. Miss Jones had been very ill for some weeks suffering a great deal with gonorrhea, which was the cause of her death. She will be greatly missed as she had been an active worker in her church and also in a great many charitable institutions. Especially will she be missed in the hospital, in which she had always taken the deepest interest and for which she had worked with great zeal. The family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. Rev. D. Hutchinson, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the funeral service, assisted by Rev. S. T. Teed and Rev. W. Penna. Mr. Hutchinson spoke most fittingly of the deceased, her Christian life and work.

Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, of Chatham, spent Friday in town.

Miss Murphy will leave Thursday for Ottawa, where she will spend the Easter holidays with her friend, Miss Elsie Emerson.

Mr. R. Clark, manager of the Bank of Montreal, gave a small dinner party Tuesday evening to a few gentlemen friends.

Miss Grace V. Smith, bookkeeper in K. Beaman's jewelry store, has resigned and will leave in a few weeks for Everett (Cal.).

Miss Smith's many friends will regret to hear of her intended departure. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Abitibi, who have been living in Montreal for two years, have removed to Boston, where they intend making their home.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Bishop, Botsford street, when her daughter, Miss Ida Bremer Bishop, was united in marriage to Mr. Irvine M. Malcolm.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room which was beautifully decorated with potted plants, the decorations being carried out in pink and white. An aisle was formed through the centre of the room by six little girls carrying white ribbons. Through this the bride and groom passed, as Miss Hazel Lockhart played Lohengrin's wedding march on the piano.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. MacDonald. The bride wore a most beautiful gown of white crepe de chene, over white silk, elaborately trimmed with white ribbons, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and carnations. The little maid of honor, Miss Marion Crockett, was dressed in pink silk and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Before the wedding, the bride and groom were taken to Crystal Lodge, North River, tomorrow.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

BRISTOL.

Bristol, March 30—William Rogers has returned from a pleasant visit to Boston.

Miss Robert Allison left Tuesday for her former home in Chicago.

Rev. D. Fisher will spend April 3 and 4 in the parish in Sunday school work. The convention will be held on the 14th. George Davis, returned today from Green River station, where he has been spending a few days.

Miss Alice Gibson, who teaches at Windsor, is spending her Easter vacation at home, Florenceville, and Mr. A. Conkright at Woodstock.

Three more cases of diphtheria are reported in the family of Barrill Donovan, Gordonville.

Liba Gibson has sold her girl mill at the Mission to George Wiggins, a former resident of this village.

TRACY STATION.

Tracy Station, March 31—Misses Rennie and Josephine Hart, of Everett (Mass.), are spending their Easter vacation with their grandparents at Tracy.

Miss Lizzie Kent is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Dundas, of Hove, is in attendance.

A cow which has been loaded with potatoes from here is on the siding waiting to be moved. Prices range about $1.10 per barrel.

Miss Ella Messerance has taken charge of the school at French Village.

Fred Tracy, of Three Tree Creek, is very ill. He is suffering from cancer of the stomach.

Miss Pearl Seeger entertained a number of her friends at her home on Wednesday evening, the 30th inst. After a very enjoyable evening the guests departed about midnight.

ST. MARTIN'S.

St. Martin's, N. B., March 31—Fred J. Bonnell and A. Cassidy, of Sussex, were here on Monday. They purchased from A. W. Fowles a quantity of lumber and intending to be used in the construction of the cheese factory here.

On Tuesday evening, Michael Kelly, accompanied by Mr. Edward McBride, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairville. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairville, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home after visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Pennfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

HAVELOCK.

Havelock, Kings county, N. B., March 31—Havelock has been comparatively quiet for nearly two months, but this morning we again heard the shrill of the locomotive whistle. The road has been closed since Feb. 15. Probably the regular train will be running April 1.

But although we have been out of the rest of the world by train, Havelock has not suffered socially. The quadrille assembly has met regularly each week the morning we again heard the shrill of the locomotive whistle. The road has been closed since Feb. 15. Probably the regular train will be running April 1.

A number of social events have taken place recently. A drive to Intervale and a dance at the home of Mrs. J. A. Douglas.

The teachers of Havelock Primary School will leave for their homes tomorrow. J. Raywood, principal, will visit his brother, Lorne, who was recently injured by jumping from a moving train at Westfield.

David A. Wright is still very ill. Mrs. Ben. Fowles is very ill, and no hope is entertained for her recovery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bease Seely will go to St. John tomorrow to spend Easter.

Havelock Mineral Springs Company will commence operations Monday, with C. H. Keith as manager.

Miss E. Louise Price will spend Easter in St. John and embrace the opportunity to visit her friends.

Mrs. Reid Keith will shortly move to Moncton. Her husband, a government employee, has purchased the property.

Before the wedding, the bride and groom were taken to Crystal Lodge, North River, tomorrow.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

WASHADEMOAK.

Washademook, April 1—Scott Foster died this morning of tuberculosis, at the home of his mother, the late Mrs. Douglas, who died during the month of February. He was about thirty years old, and leaves one brother, Jesse, of New York.

Three Scott act cases were tried before Parish Court Commissioner J. F. Roberts Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Anne Phillips, John E. Cole, both of Cole Island, and Alexander Gale, of Young's Cove, were committed and fined $50 each and costs. E. E. Peck, of Hopewell Cape, appeared for the complainant, and John R. Dunn, of Gagetown, for the defendants. This is said to be the beginning of a determined effort to rid the province of the Scott act in Quebec county, and more prosecutions may be looked for.

Rev. W. E. McFadyen, Baptist home missionary, will preach next Sunday in Thornecliffe, the Colon Islands. The service at Thornecliffe will be a memorial service for the late Richard Hetherington. Invitations are out for the wedding of Mrs. Maud Beece, of Cumberland Bay, and Frederick Jeffrey, of Bagdad.

BLISSVILLE.

Blissville, Sunbury Co., March 30—The five Baptists of this place have decided to build a parsonage this season and quite a sum of money is already in the hands of the trustees to commence it.

The ladies will hold a supper and sale at the hall on Friday evening, April 1, to assist in the work. A good time is expected.

Burpee Seely, one of our popular young men, intends leaving for British Columbia to make it his future home.

The students from here attending Mount Allison and Provincial Normal School are spending their Easter holidays at home.

Sleight is still excellent and people are taking advantage of it after the bad roads of the winter.

Smith Bros. are saving their new steam mill. They are laying a track from their mill to the C. P. R. They have the steam already on the ground.

Days if the weather continues mild. Smith Bros. have driven in both North and South Branches of the Oronto.

James Howe is here as foreman for Moore & Co., of St. John, who have a large drive in the South Branch. It includes last year's cut as well as this season's.

F. Barnhill has finished hauling, having done an extensive business. He manufactures his lumber at Clarendon in his own mill. He gives employment to 100 or more men and forty teams.

RIVERSIDE.

Riverside, A. county, April 1—Mrs. C. H. Bray returned from Montreal on Thursday. Mrs. Bray had been undergoing treatment at the private hospital of Doctor Lockhart, and her many friends are pleased to see her return in such good health.

The coronium tree given by the ladies of the Riverside Social Club on Tuesday evening at the home of Hon. A. R. McDonald, was a most successful one. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $12, are to defray the debt on Riverside hall.

Mrs. J. A. Tibbets is visiting friends in Fredericton. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $12, are to defray the debt on Riverside hall.

Mrs. J. J. Dowling continues in very poor health.

Harvard Peck has moved his family into the house owned by Thomas Dobson.

The body of William Daley arrived by train from Moncton on Sunday afternoon, where the young man was accidentally killed by stepping off a moving train on Friday evening. Deceased was the third son of John Daley, of this place, and about thirty-two years of age, his principal occupation was that of a seaman, and he had just left his ship in Halifax on his way home for the Easter holidays. His coming was not known to his parents until the news of his sudden death was received. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family, consisting of father, mother, three brothers and two sisters. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Greer, St. John county, April 1—The logging camp, heretofore nearly all suspended operations for the winter, and are now preparing for the spring drive.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

RIVERSIDE.

Riverside, A. county, April 1—Mrs. C. H. Bray returned from Montreal on Thursday. Mrs. Bray had been undergoing treatment at the private hospital of Doctor Lockhart, and her many friends are pleased to see her return in such good health.

The coronium tree given by the ladies of the Riverside Social Club on Tuesday evening at the home of Hon. A. R. McDonald, was a most successful one. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $12, are to defray the debt on Riverside hall.

Mrs. J. A. Tibbets is visiting friends in Fredericton. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $12, are to defray the debt on Riverside hall.

Mrs. J. J. Dowling continues in very poor health.

Harvard Peck has moved his family into the house owned by Thomas Dobson.

The body of William Daley arrived by train from Moncton on Sunday afternoon, where the young man was accidentally killed by stepping off a moving train on Friday evening. Deceased was the third son of John Daley, of this place, and about thirty-two years of age, his principal occupation was that of a seaman, and he had just left his ship in Halifax on his way home for the Easter holidays. His coming was not known to his parents until the news of his sudden death was received. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family, consisting of father, mother, three brothers and two sisters. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Greer, St. John county, April 1—The logging camp, heretofore nearly all suspended operations for the winter, and are now preparing for the spring drive.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

APOHAQUI.

Apoahqui, Kings Co., April 4—Miss Laura Nowlan is spending the Easter holidays with friends in St. John.

The editor of the Sackville Post and Mail, Mr. J. A. Tibbets, is visiting friends in St. John.

Mrs. J. J. Dowling continues in very poor health.

Harvard Peck has moved his family into the house owned by Thomas Dobson.

The body of William Daley arrived by train from Moncton on Sunday afternoon, where the young man was accidentally killed by stepping off a moving train on Friday evening. Deceased was the third son of John Daley, of this place, and about thirty-two years of age, his principal occupation was that of a seaman, and he had just left his ship in Halifax on his way home for the Easter holidays. His coming was not known to his parents until the news of his sudden death was received. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family, consisting of father, mother, three brothers and two sisters. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Greer, St. John county, April 1—The logging camp, heretofore nearly all suspended operations for the winter, and are now preparing for the spring drive.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her father, Mr. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Monks' curling club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding.

Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of hinged china, accompanied by the address by Mr. Allen on the subject of curling.

Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. G. Marris was very seriously ill at his home in Botsford street.

Miss Helen Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people.

Mrs. Reid, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Randall, at her home in King street.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is attending Mr. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Botsford street.