turned their backs upon their country's call at this time.

What will they feel like when the men of Canada come home again and tell how they drove the Hun back and rid the world of that terrible curse while these "stay at homes" looked on? I would not take a good deal and be in their who had given their lives for king and country as the chaplain said in his remarks, "No honor was too great for him who had laid down his life for his friend." O Canada was then sung with band accompaniment, then attention and the king and we marched back to the hospital with many a thought of the dear ones at home whose best beloved were laid to rest in this quiet spot far from home.

After the duty to the dead had been carried out the patients in the hospital day of Canada was not allowed to pass unnoticed for them. A band concert was arranged for the patients and, for those who could take such delicacles, strawberries and cake had been pro-vided. Miss McCafferty continues in her most interesting letter anent the observ-ance of the day "a base ball match with the Harvard unit was held on Canada Park and afternoon tea was served on the grounds, at which all the inhabitants were present, it being for many the first time they had ever seen a real base ball game. In the evening the officers and sisters gave a concert and supper in the Red Cross recreation hut to the whole

Miss McCafferty says that "the spirit of the men is wonderful" and in spite of all their wounds they are quite cheerful and sure that now we have Frits on

Deutschland Is Outside 3-Mile Limit

Washington, Aug. 2-The navy department tonight received a report from the destroyer Sterrett, in Hampton Roads, saying the tug Thomas F. Timmins had reported that "the submarine Deutschland had passed out of the capes and passed the three mile limit at $.80 tonight."

Seen Passing Virginia Port.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 2—Radio messages received here late today said the German submarine Deutschland was off New Point Comfort, near the entrance to Mobjack Bay, fully 45 miles from Cape Henry. This would mean a four hours run to Cape Henry in the event that Captain Koenig decided to make his dash to sea tonight.

A Fact as to Editors.

On rainy days, and also on other oc-casions which are not unconnected with the postman's visits, we find the whole of a truth in this from the Thomas-ville (Ga.), Times:

If you see an editor who pleases everybody, there will be a glass plate over his face and he will not be stand-ing up.
