

Basin of Minas, with its white sails and steamers; Cape Blomidon; the distant Parrsboro shore and islands; historic Grand Pré, together with the serene beauty of the Gaspereaux Valley and River, all combine to make up a landscape unrivalled for beauty and inspiration, helping to mould the student and the man.

5th. Conversaciones, Receptions, At Homes, etc., are held at intervals during the year, when the young gentlemen of the Academy and College and the young ladies of the Seminary cultivate each other's acquaintance, thus developing the social side of education.

The Academy students also participate in the benefits to be derived from lectures, concerts and other entertainments held under the auspices of the College or Academy.

The Academy is easily accessible by the Windsor and Annapolis Railway or by the steamers of the St. John and Basin of Minas Route.
