POTATOES FEATURE SATURDAY'S MARKET

Eggs Sell Retail at 65 to 70 Cents Per Dozen—Dressed Chickens Higher.

Potatoes were the feature at a large local market Saturday morning. All prices ranged around $1.45 and $1.50 per bag, wholesale, and $1.50 to $1.60 per bag, retail. Some farmers sold for $1.50 per bag retail, but the spuds were not of the best grade.

Retail prices of eggs fell to 65c and 70c per dozen. These quotations are the lowest that have been recorded for some time, and it is expected that these will become lower before the end of next week. Wholesale, eggs sold for 60c and 63c per dozen.

Dressed chickens to the retailer were 2c per pound higher. Prices are now 37c and 40c per pound. Live chickens brought 30c per pound.

No geese, ducks or turkeys were offered today.

Hothouse vegetables were offered in heavy quantities, green onions featuring. Lettuce and celery were plentiful.

NEW ADVANCE IN CHICAGO MARKET

All Wheat Prices Firmer, With Net Gains at Closing Time.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Insertion of higher wheat duties in the emergency tariff bill, together with an upturn in export bids, helped bring about an advance in the wheat pit today. The close was firm at ½c to 1¼c net higher, with March, $1.52½ to $1.53⅝, and May, $1.44 to $1.44¾. Corn gained ⅝c to ¾c, and oats, ¼c to ½c. The finish in provisions was 10c to 15c down.

Strength in the wheat market developed almost entirely during the last part of the day. Previous to noon the chief factor appeared to be selling on foreign account, and on the resulting decline the May delivery touched the lowest price yet for the present crop. Meanwhile reports were circulated that the British Royal Commission was reselling Argentine wheat, presumably to Germany, and that Germany had also bought wheat from Australia. About mid-day, however, sentiment changed to a considerable degree, many shorts covering and northwestern houses buying. Renewed interest was shown in the emergency tariff bill throughout the remainder of the session, and it was said export demand had improved, especially for low-grade flour.

Corn and oats swayed with wheat. A little export business in corn was noted. Besides, rural offerings of corn were small.

Lower quotations on hogs had a depressing effect on provisions.

'PEG WHEAT PRICES FALL, RISE AGAIN

Increased Activity in Cash Market—All Grains in Demand.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 4.—After opening today's wheat market declined until May reached $1.63¼, a loss of 3c from the opening. At this point there was much better buying, and prices reacted strongly. Exporters were reported as buyers today, and the volume of trading was larger than for some days past. The futures closed 1⅝c to 1¾c higher.

More activity was displayed in the cash market today, and there was an excellent demand for all grades.

Premiums were unchanged to 1c better. Offerings, however, continued light.

The coarse grain situation remained unchanged. Values were slightly higher in sympathy with wheat. Oats closed ¼c to ⅜c higher; barley, 1c to 1½c higher; flax, 1½c to 1¾c higher, and rye, unchanged.

A Foundation on Which to Build

Any builder knows he cannot start at the top of the structure and lay the foundation afterwards. He must first dig down, then lay the foundation, and build slowly upwards.

The foundation for many a snug little fortune has begun with a few dollars deposited with this company.

Begin the foundation for your fortune now. Even if you do have to dig at first, your account, at 3½ PER CENT, will grow when once the foundation is laid. After they save their first $100, many buy debentures at 5½ PER CENT

Keep a Record Of Your Securities

For the convenience of those desiring to keep a record of their securities we have prepared a concise and convenient SECURITY RECORD form for entering the name of the securities, date of purchase, amount, purchase price, annual income, time of interest or dividend payment, maturity, etc. Such a record is almost indispensable to security holders.

The beginning of the new year is a good time to see that your holdings are all properly entered, or your list brought up to date. Go over your securities carefully. There may be some maturing at an early date which could, with considerable profit, be exchanged for long term securities. In this connection we shall be glad to make su
