

Items Of Local Interest

The building of the Acadia Dairy Co. has undergone repairs and has received a new coat of paint, and is much improved in appearance.

The Office that has used an Edison Mimeograph a week needs no further argument as to its merits. A. Milne Fraser, 157 Hollis St., Halifax, N. S.

Apple pickers have had exceptionally good weather for harvesting their crops which is an exceedingly good one. There are a large number of apples however, still to be picked.

In the September monthly lists for the High School, Colin Munro led, with every mark first class. This same student made the highest aggregate at the Provincial examinations last year.

A number of the members of "Pointz" Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Hantsport, paid a fraternal visit to St. George's Lodge on Monday evening last. A very enjoyable time was spent and suitable refreshments were provided.

For the present political campaign the National Liberal and Conservative Party in Wolfville have engaged Temperance Hall as their headquarters, while the Liberal party representatives will use the store and office of J. F. Calkin for a similar purpose.

Lloyd George has named the delegates to the Conference on Limitations of Armaments and Far Eastern Problems to be held at Washington. Sir Robert Borden will represent Canada. Sir Robert has made a special study of international questions, and is exceptionally well equipped to take a useful part in the Conference.

Mr. W. B. Eaton, of this town, met with a very serious accident on Monday of this week. He was riding down a steep hill near Lawrence town, Annapolis Co., on his bicycle when the front wheel suddenly collapsed throwing him with considerable violence. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and regained consciousness in a neighbouring house to which he had been carried. Mr. Eaton was considerably scratched and bruised about the face and had a fortunate escape from much more serious injury. He is recuperating at his home in Wolfville for a few days.

The Young-Adams Co. engagement at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Thursday afternoon attracted fairly good houses, though not so good as they deserved. This company is a good aggregation of players, and its performances are always enjoyed. On Wednesday evening "The Price She Paid" was exceedingly well put on. For Thursday's matinee, "Mildred" was presented, and on Thursday evening "Butting It Over", a sparkling comedy was very much enjoyed by the audience. The Young-Adams Co. will be given a hearty welcome when they again favor Wolfville with a visit.

His Lordship the Viscount Forsythe de Fronsac will lecture in the Reading Room of Acadia University Library on Sunday afternoon, October 23, at four o'clock, on the subject of Heraldry, and especially Canadian Heraldry. Viscount de Fronsac is a lineal descendant of Nicholas Denys, that indomitable and versatile aristocrat who figured so largely in the early history of Nova Scotia, especially of Cape Breton Island. We are fortunate indeed to have this nobleman lecture to us. He is the Herald-Marshall of the College of Arms of the Noblesse of Canada, is the author of several works on Constitutional Law and of two histories of Canada. He is also a musician and a poet.

NEW MINAS ITEMS

Mrs. Dee, of Halifax, spent a couple of weeks at the home of Miss Alice Hallam. Mr. Walter Kilcup spent the week-end in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker, who have been occupying the residence of E. Fuller for the past six months, have moved to the house recently vacated by Mr. Oicle. Mrs. Percy Harris and two children, of Digby, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Burbridge DeWolf.

Miss Ella Casgrove of the Western Union staff of St. John, spent the last week visiting Mrs. J. E. Connell, and other friends.

Messrs. Gibson and Murray, who have been boarding at the home of Mrs. Sidney DeWolf, are leaving soon for their respective homes.

What might have proved a bad automobile accident, occurred on the road just east of the residence of Mr. J. E. Connell on Sunday afternoon last, when Mr. Oyler and friend in returning from the golf links had one of the forward wheels come off, bringing the car to a stand still, while the loose wheel kept on in its flight crashing into the verandah of Mr. Connell's house and knocking off one of the hand rails. No very serious damage was done to the car.

Mr. Lockhart, who purchased the Amos Griffin farm last fall, has made great improvements on the place, installing a better water supply and also repairing the buildings. Under Mr. Hutchinson's management the farm gave him this year nearly 2000 barrels of splendid clean apples, against 300 barrels the year before he took the farm over.

Dr. Cogswell and wife, of Halifax, motored to New Minas on Saturday, spending the week end at Mr. E. Fuller's returning on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walsh have returned from their wedding trip and are now established in their fine new Bungalow, Crescent avenue, Kentville.

Mr. Louis Redden has taken a position with Mr. Wright, of Wolfville, for a time, owing to the Redden Wood Working industry having shut down for an indefinite period.

We learn that Mr. B. O. Davidson, who recently underwent a serious operation to his eye, is now slowly recovering his sight. We hope this may be so as Mr. Davidson is one of Wolfville's foremost citizens.
