"The Index threatens to be a serious rival of The Nation, or rather to supersede it altogether, now that the latter paper is only the annex of the Post. It has had a life of four years already, and measures are now being taken to secure for it the larger circulation of which it is well worthy."—The Examiner, New York.

"I am very much pleased with the Index. You have struck a note of dignity, earnestness, fairness, and cleanness, that places your paper above all American educational journals known to me. The sobriety of your style, and your unvarying freedom from sensationalism are very refreshing to one who wanders somewhat weary in the weed-grown fields of school literature."—Principal Samuel Thurber, A.M., Boston.

OF
SCIENCE,
AND THE ARTS,

An Independent Journal of Liberal Education, under the editorial direction of Alexander Winchell, Charles K. Adams, and William H. Payne, professors in the University of Michigan, and Charles H. J. Douglas, instructor in the University of Wisconsin.

"* The Index occupies its own peculiar field in education, supplementing and completing the work of the best State educational journals, and serving, in a broad sense, the general cause of liberal education throughout the country. It discusses in a scholarly way a wide range of educational themes of vital importance to every intelligent thinker and member of society. Its field is broad, but its aim is definite. Its spirit is catholic, but its convictions are decided.

"* The Index is of great value to scientific readers on account of the widely varying lines of work of its scientific contributors, and the consequent catholicity of its tone. Among well-known scientists that have recently contributed to its pages, or are soon to do so, are Professors Edward A. Birge, Ph.D., Edward J. James, Ph.D., William Trelease, S.D., Charles A. Van Velsor, A.M., Henry C. Adams, Ph.D., Frederic W. Staebner, George H. French, Henry H. Belfield, Ph.D., John E. Davies, M.D., Charles O. Thompson, Ph.D., G. Stanley Hall, Ph.D., Henry Sewall, Ph.D., Horatio N. Chute, S.M., Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Stephen N. Fellows, D.D., William T. Harris, LL.D., and others.

"* The publishers solicit the subscription of every person interested in the continued success of an independent exponent of liberal culture, of such distinctive breadth and soundness as hitherto have not been characteristic of any American educational journal.

$2.50 per year (TWENTY-FIVE NUMBERS)

Send 25 cents for three specimen copies.

INDEX PUBLISHING HOUSE, Madison, Wis.

"The Index has my warmest sympathy. It is doing a grand work for education in this country."—Prof. Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Baltimore.

"The Fortnightly Index continues a well-edited journal of liberal education. Its tone is thoughtful and suggestive, and it is rapidly becoming the recognized medium of communication between the leading thinkers of our country."—Jewish Messenger, New York.

"One of the most valuable periodicals which comes to us among our exchanges is the Fortnightly Index. It is always thoughtful, candid and scholarly, and deals not only with questions of pure scholarship, but with many of the issues of the day, in a spirit of the highest intelligence."—The Christian Union, New York.

Magazine of American History.

"This periodical is without a rival in its domain, and is becoming indispensable to all intelligent readers. It is an unflinching source of historical and documentary evidence of the growth and expansion of our vast country."—Christian Advocate

"It is more than a periodical: it gathers into permanent and accessible form material that would otherwise be lost, or only found with great effort. Its articles are uniformly well written, and the illustrations and print complete the attractiveness of the magazine."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

"Mrs. Lamb is making of this magazine one of the best periodicals in America."—New York Tribune.

"It is always a pleasure to welcome the Magazine of American History, with its antiquarian interest, its historical and biographical value, its fine type and paper, and its antique illustrations."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Each number always presents an admirable collection of papers, and maintains the high character of the gifted editor, who, in her history of New York City, displayed the highest qualities of an author. The magazine is as instructive as it is entertaining."—Scientific American.

"Its contents are excellent, and every family in the world should be on its subscription list."—Detroit Every Saturday.

"This publication has steadily increased in interest. It fills a niche of its own, and fills it so admirably as to ward off any attempt at competition."—Baltimore American.

"It is exceedingly valuable for the best portraits of historic characters which can be obtained. Last year the presidents from Washington to Arthur were given from the most authentic sources, and alone they were worth the subscription to the Magazine."—Newburyport Herald.

"The editor is giving great dignity to our country in recording the lives of families that are noble in the highest sense. The illustrations are very fine and interesting."—Boston Globe.

"This periodical richly deserves the high rank accorded to it by leading historical scholars in the two hemispheres."—Boston Transcript.
