

and may be lawful, by a vote representing two-thirds of the Capital Stock aforesaid, at any general meeting to be called for that purpose, to increase the capital stock aforesaid either by the addition of new subscribers to the said undertaking or otherwise, to a sum not exceeding in all the sum of seventy-five thousand pounds ; and the capital so to be raised shall be in all respects part of the capital stock of the said Company, and every holder of the new stock shall be a member thereof.