

shall go on as if no such marriage had taken place, and the decision of the Court shall be certified as in other cases.

And as to appeals from the Court of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas; Be it enacted as follows:

- 5 XIII. An appeal shall lie upon a Judgment upon a special case in the same manner as upon a Judgment upon a special verdict, unless the parties agree to the contrary; and the proceedings for bringing a special case before the Court of Error and Appeal shall, as nearly as possible, be the same as in the case of a special verdict, and the Court of Error and Appeal are required to draw any inferences of fact from the facts stated in such special case, which the Court where it was originally decided ought to have drawn.
- 10 Appeal to lie from judgment on special case.
Proceedings.
- XIV. An appeal shall lie in all cases of rules to enter a verdict or non-suit upon a point reserved at the trial, if the rule to shew cause be refused, or if granted be afterwards discharged or made absolute.
- 15 And on rules to enter verdict, &c., on point reserved.
- XV. In all cases of motion for a new trial upon the ground that the Judge has not ruled according to law, if the rule to shew cause be refused, or if granted be afterwards discharged or made absolute, the party decided against may appeal, provided any one of the Judges dissent from the rule being refused or when granted, being discharged or made absolute, as the case may be, or provided the Court in its discretion think fit that an appeal should be allowed; provided that where the application for a new trial is upon matter of discretion only, as on the ground that the verdict was against the weight of evidence or otherwise, no appeal shall be allowed.
- 20 And on rules for new trial on certain grounds.
Provided one Judge dissents or Court allows appeal.
Not to lie in certain cases.
- XVI. No appeal shall be allowed in either of the cases mentioned in the three next preceding sections, unless notice thereof be given in writing to the opposite party or his attorney and to the Clerk of the Crown of the proper Court, within days after the decision complained of, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court or a Judge.
- 30 Notice of appeal to be given, and to whom and where.
- XVII. An appeal shall lie in ejectment in the same manner and to the same extent as in any other case.
- 35 Appeal in ejectment.
- XVIII. An appeal shall lie in all cases in which any By-law of a Municipal Corporation has been quashed by rule of Court after argument.
- Or from judgment quashing a Municipal By-Law.
- XIX. No other appeals from the decision of the said Courts of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas shall be allowed, unless the Judgment decision, or other matter appealed against, shall appear of record.
- 40 No other appeal except on judgment, &c., of record.
