

and move the animals according to the directions given to them by the said inspector. In case the owner refuses or neglects to furnish the necessary assistance, the inspector may employ men at the cost of the shipper, which shall be paid to the inspector before a clean bill of health is given.

Sec. 59. In order to prevent the danger of contagion or infection resulting from the overcrowding or overlading of animals on board ship in any port of Canada, the inspector shall not permit cattle or other animals to be laden on board any ship in such port, until he shall be satisfied that suitable space and provision has been made for the number of cattle or other animals to be shipped on board such vessel, and that a greater number of animals shall not be shipped than such ship can safely and properly carry, and such inspector shall not grant a clean bill of health to such ship until all such provisions as aforesaid shall be made to his satisfaction.

Sec. 60. The collector of customs of any port where such inspection as aforesaid is adopted and required shall not give a clearance to any ship having cattle or other animals on board for exportation without being shown a clean bill, signed by the inspector, to the effect that the measures provided by the said Act and the present regulations as hereinbefore set forth have been obeyed and carried out.

Sec. 61. On glanders or other contagious disease of horses being discovered on board any steamship, railroad car, stable, shed or other place, it will be the duty of the inspector, on the removal of any infected horse, to superintend the thorough disinfection of such steamship, railroad car, stable, shed or other place, without loss of time, in the manner prescribed under the general regulations for disinfection of premises.

Head Ropes.

Sec 62. The importation of head ropes which have been used for tying up cattle in the United Kingdom or on board ship is prohibited, and all vessels neglecting to observe this regulation shall be liable to be declared to be infected under "The Animal Contagious Diseases Act."
