CANADIANS MUST KEEP THEIR RACIST SPIRIT ALIVE

Premier Spank MeFella has once again proven that he is out of touch with the nature of the universe with his decision to close the Mormon hospitals in Quispamsis. The Mormons, in their long history in New Brunswick, have been a major contributor to our province's cultural milieu. Their hospital in Quispamsis has become known for its service and professionalism, and has gained international reknown for its high standards. Now, Spank MeFella has decided that this long history must draw to a close. Priemier MeFella seems to have the mistaken opinion that having separate hospitals for each religious denomination in every given area of the province, creates some sort of a redundancy of services. Nothing could be further from the truth. As everyone knows, no self-respecting Mormon would ever allow himself no Mormon doctor would allow himself to sink so low as to treat a Jew. I am told that the Jews feel the same way about treating Mormons. And why shouldn't they? Just as no Mormon doctor should be forced to treat a Jew, no Jew doctor should be forced to treat a Mormon. For that reason, it is not redundancy for all of Mormon hospital in Quispamsis is these religions to have their own hospitals, but simple practicality since if all of these hospitals didn't exist people would be forced to go without treatment.

The city of Saint John is a perfect example of how we not only cannot afford to reduce the number of hospitals, but that we actually need to have more hospitals. Can yor imagine if Saint John's hospitals were not operated along religious lines? This would mean that Catholics(!) would be treated by our good Loyalist doctors, and also that good Protestant patients would be found to endure the hocus pocus treatment of the Papist doctors. It is bad enough that we have to endure the Protestants Irish in our hospitals, but to force the Catholic Irish and the filthy French upon us is simply an invitation to riot.

This is why the case of the so important, it is symptomatic of the dangerous liberal attitudes that MeFella is trying to force upon us. By eliminating the Mormon hospital MeFella has effectively destroyed a tradition that has made New Brunswick what it is today. Instead of allowing us to have a multicultural society where all peoles remain distinct in their isolated identy, he has created the Yankee ethos of melting pot by forcing our cultures to interact with an another, thereby forcing us all to lose our identies.
