

West Coast to ALASKA

A holiday introduced by Simpsons Tours last year. A holiday that proved to be such a success that early reservations are essential. You'll travel across Canada, cruise up the Pacific coast to Alaska then down to Los Angeles. Your cruise liner will be P & O Lines' splendid Arcadia... the largest liner cruising to Alaska. Aboard you will discover the traditional British service and courtesy. Lots to do on board and many fascinating and beautiful sights ashore.

ITINERARY:

Saturday: Jet by Canadian Pacific to CALGARY. Two nights at Banff. Monday: Overnight by rail to VANCOUVER. Tuesday: VANCOUVER. Sightseeing tour. Overnight at hotel. Wednesday: Embark on the SS ARCADIA. Sail in the evening. Thursday: AT SEA. Time to relax and join in the many activities on board ship as you cruise through the beautiful islands of British Columbia. Friday: KETCHIKAN. Step ashore for an all-day visit. Planked streets laid on pilings are still used in this pioneer city. Saturday and Sunday: JUNEAU. The capital of Alaska. Excursion along the Mendenhall Glacier highway. Sail Sunday morning through the LYNN CANAL. Monday: GLACIER BAY. The day is spent cruising through the waters of the GLACIER BAY NATIONAL MONUMENT where you will see the gigantic Blue Glaciers. Tuesday: SITKA. Day ashore. The Russian influence is visible in the buildings, churches and local people. Wednesday: AT SEA. Thursday: VICTORIA. Day ashore. Optional sightseeing tour of city and surroundings. Friday: AT SEA. Saturday: SAN FRANCISCO. Day ashore. Optional sightseeing tours included. Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown. Sunday: LOS ANGELES. Disembark and transfer to hotel for one night. Sightseeing tour included. Monday: LOS ANGELES-CANADA.
