

Like Tommy Atkins - "you are a credit to your country and to ^{all} your native land."

You have no idea how simply gorgeous this place looks now. It grows prettier every year.
Amy and I are perfectly happy with our books and each other but my eye won't allow me to do as much reading as I should like to.

Again congratulating you ^{on} much your success and wishing you more more, if possible, in the future and with kind regards

Remain
Yours very sincerely
A. Edith Jones.
