industrial pursuits, and supporting their families in greater comfort than they at present do.

It would be well
that you should give these matters your serious consideration; and report whether the sums above referred to would not be more judiciously employed, if expended in the manner last suggested, than they are at present

Those amounts will,
as a matter of course, be in the future, entrusted to you for expenditure; and they must be accounted for by you in detail
