Referring to that portion of your report of the last meeting of the Six Nation School Board which deals with Mr. Inspector Standing's review of the work of the Board for the year 1907, I beg to say, in regard to his remarks on the supplying of books for supplementary reading in the schools, that the requisition referred to was dated October 16, last, and on the 21st of that month was forwarded to the Government Stationery Office.

That Office advises the Department that the books were shipped in four lots on the following dates,- October 30, November 14, December 20 and January 38, inst. The fifteen copies of York Poetry books were not sent, as the name of the publishers could not be ascertained. If you will obtain this information, they will be ordered.

The Department would like to know if these books which were sent to you have been distributed to the various schools.
