It is well that Canada should play her part -- in drafting and proclaiming to the world -- an International Bill of Rights -- as a guide and a direction post -- for the freedom-loving peoples of the world.

It is less evident that Canada -- free Canada -- heir to the common law -- should tamper with her heritage of liberty -- by seeking to inscribe in statutes -- the freedom that is inherently ours.

More important to us -- at this time -- is a Bill of Duties: --

Loyalty
Comradeship
Unity
Peace
The Golden Rule.
