

Weather Proverbs (continued)

We quote from Longfellow as follows:

"For I fear a hurricane;
Last night the moon had a golden ring,
And tonight no moon we see."

"When stars flicker in a dark background,
rain or snow follows soon."

"When the mists begin to nod Fisher, then put by your rod."

"When the clouds are upon the hills They'll come down by the mills."

"In the morning mountains,
In the evening fountains."

"When leaves show their under sides,
Be very sure that rain betides."

"When the clouds appear like rocks and towers
The earth's refreshed by frequent showers."

"When the wind is in the east,
it's neither good for man nor beast."

"The winds of the daytime wrestle and fight, Longer and stronger than those of the night."

"When the glass falls low,
Prepare for a blow;
When it rises high,
Let all your kites fly."
