

To Mrs. Henry.

DOUBT not, my friend, the sure reward,
That to your work is given,
But know that each sweet word shall plant
A sweeter flower in Heaven, Which through all time that is to come,
Shall spread its leaves abroad,
And fill with its unfading scent
The palaces of God.

F. L. S.