

Mechanics' Institute

Mechanics' Institute was organized in 1834 in connection with the library of the Mechanics' and Debating Club, whose constitution was. Its library contains about a thousand volumes.

Among the books to be found there are the Standard Daily Globe, and the New York Life (New York), Puck, Harper's Weekly, Little's Living Age, the last mentioned being the most interesting and illustrated monthly magazine. Other papers, such as the Farmer's, Harper's, Review of all these treasures for a subscription of One Dollar per Annum, or Five Cents any woman; 1893-4.

.....J. B. DANFORTH

.....C. H. FINCH

.....GEO. ANSON AYLESWORTH

.....Hon. Officers-and

.....D. A. NESBIT, B.A.,

.....REV. J. GANDIER,

.....MRS. DUNWOODIE,

.....MISS DRURY.

..... } L. E. PRATT

..... } MISS DEWEY

.....JOSEPH WESLEY COURTNEY

.....ANSON AYLESWORTH,

.....Secretary