A Churming Book.

The "County Gentleman."___

This is a charming book, written in a fresh, unconventional, unsophisticated style, quite free from affectation, and full of interesting and picturesque, though not unduly florid; passages of word-painting and desoription. The authoress has couched her work in the form of a semi-domestic narrative, purporting to detail, the experiences of the Le Ford family, whilst camping out at Boundary Bay, on the United States frontier, near New Westminster in British Columbia. Miss Herring has certainly endowed with vitality Mr. Le Ford, of Anglo-Canadian parentage, his ailing wife, of German extraction, their twin elder daughters, Bess and Josie, the various younger members of the family, their Chinese servant Ke Tan, their English friends Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth, and the latter's widowed cousin, Tom Templeton, who saves two of the children from being caught by the tide, and eventually marries Bess, Josie falling to the lot of a young clergyman from New Westminsner, Mr. Wilbert. We should also mention Templeton's little daughter Dolly, whose mother. Nanette, had been a rancher's halfbreed child, and that is all of Miss

Herrin about, delight the m campin and plo scriptio ready i phic e phrase pages o tion.

note p

fishing

and th

to the

some c

ing In

bourho

riding

episop

sensati

book c

tration

tograp

dians,

readv

ring w

pen th

fiction

be exp

Camp

Arst s

part