CHATHAM TO SECURE CARSHOPS OR CASH BONUS OF $16,000

Result of Deputation's Visit on Pere Marquette Officials--Satisfactory Report of Major Scholfield and Ex-Mayor Malcolmson Unanimously Accepted—General Manager Carpenter Met the Committee Most Fairly-Votes of Thanks to Deputation.

This despatch chronicles the happy termination of years of litigation and difference between the city of Chatham and the railroad, and marks the dawn of a co-operation and mutual

By it the city receives some $16, 000,00 from the railroad company or the building of the car-shops in Chatham.

Some months ago The Planet first took up the matter of avoiding expensive litigation by the appointment of a strong and representative citizens committee to personally wait upon General Manager Carpenter and in a friendly spirit present Chatham's claims to the car-shops or some ade quate compensation.

The Planet's suggestion was taken up in a most energetic and buriness like way by his worship, Mayor Mc-Keough, who submitted it to the Council and urged action upon its

As a result a strong committee was appointed, consisting of his worship the Mayor, ex-Mayor Hugh Matcolmson, Major G. P. Scholfield, President W. A. Hadley, of the Board of Trade, Ald. W. S. Marshall and Ald, W. T. Piggott.

These gentlemen visited Detroit yesterday and held an extended and friendly consultation with the officials of the railroad, as a result of which a special meeting of City Council was held this morning at ten o'clock.

There were present Mayor Mc-Keough and Ald. McCoig, Marshili, Scullard, Piggott, Mounteer, Robinsoe. Edmondson and Martin.

The Mayor, in opening the meeting. said it had been called to consider and deal with the report of the committce. He asked Major Scholfield to submit this report.

Major Scholfield gave a most lucid and business-like history of the negotiations. He said the committee, after obtaining much valued information from preparatory consultation with City Solicitor Wilson, had visitmet General Manager Carpenter and the solicitor and genthe Council and citizens suggesting further delay. It was a case for ac-

Mr. Carpenter suggested the advis-ability of establishing divisional carshops in Chatham, along the lines of the old Erie & Huron agreement, viz., one engine to eight miles.

Major Scholfield pointed out that mileage would scarcely be a proper mileage would scarcely be a proper or equitable basis. He felt that an arrangement governed by the ratio of waterings and tonnage would be adequate, but that the principal consideration should be the general and central car-shops.

This matter Mr. Carpeater could not close without extensive estimates. Beyond it he had no suggestion to offer—neither had the committee. Accordingly, in the event of the carshops not being secured, a monetary basis of consideration was discussed.

When the matter was being dealt When the matter was being dealt with at Ottawa, Hon. Mr. Blair, then Minister of Railways, had mentioned, perhaps as a mere figure for estimate, the sum of $15,000 relative to the consideration of the shop side of the question, apart from the station.

Mr. Carpenter had suggested a sum of $5,000, while the ideas of the conmittee centred on $20,000.

of $5,000, while the ideas of the conmittee centred on $20,000.

Mr. Carpenter said it seemed a little unreasonable to penalize the Pere Marquette for the default of the old Erie & Huron, and in that the committee partially concurred, stating their willingness to let the improved and bettered system and service stand as an offset against defaults in the past.

As there appeared some danger of a deadlock the committee decided to withdraw for an hour, in order to consider the possibility of justly reducing their claim to some extent, while it was hoped that Mr. Carpenter might substantially increase his offer.

At the expiration of that time the conference resumed and after some discussion the sum of $16,000.00 was mutually decided upon to be paid in two years and bearing five per cent. per annum interest unless shops astisfactory to the city of Chatham were within that time established in Chatham

Chatham.

Major Scholffield urged the acceptance of This agreement as in the city's best interest. He paid tribute to Mr. Carperter's frank and sincere method of conducting the business of the conference and said that the railroad was not in any sense antagonized by its terms. The company did not feel that it was a "hold-up"—the matter had been adjusted in an amicable and businesslike way. up"—the matter had been adjusted in an amicable and businessilke way. In concluding Major Schoffield said that he believed that, by this agreement, the city was nearer securing the carshops than ever before and added that, while he was the spokesman of the delegation in arriving at the agreement, every member of the committee heartily endorsed it. He then read the following letter Hon. W. E. McKelouigh, Mayor,

Chatham, Ont.: Dear Sir, Referring to the conversation of your committee to-day,-The Pere Marquette Railroad Com The Pere Marquette Railtroad Company will accept your proposition for the payment of $16,000.00 in lieu of all claims of every kind and nature in connection with the payment of a binaus by your city to the Enic & Huron Railtway for the location of shops at Chatham; provided, that we may pay this sum on or before two years from date, with five per cent. interest per annum thereon, unless shops are erected, satisfactory ss shops are erected, satisfactor to the people of Chatham, by thi

This letter is contingent upon the acceptance of same by the proper authorities of the city of Chatham.

His complituented their position freely and openly. They were there in the endeavor to get rid once for all of the differences and difficulties which existed between the two corporations. They felt their mission must be a definite one—that it was utterly useless to return to the Council and citizens suggesting further delay. It was suggesting for the solid provided at the council and citizens suggesting further delay. It was a member of the committee, made a capital address. His committee, made a daddress. His committee, made a capital address. His committee, made a manual discussion supported the terse, logical and businesslike manner in which he had presented the report of the committee. He had gone over the ground completely and Mr. Malcolmson believed the settlement arrived at the council ever made. He was vigorously opposed to need-less litigation and the legacy of discussion which it provoked, and it was exceedingly encouraging to see an amicable and profitable settlement arrived at. a member of the committee, made a arrived at further delay. It was a case for action and finality. The committee did not want money. Their desire was to secure the car-shops for Chatnam. Mr. Carpenter had met the committee most frankly and sincerely, Major Scholffield had said concerning the fairness with which the Railroad met the committee. Mr. Carpenter was a strong man and a fair man and the committee were glid they had given it considerable thought, the proposal to establish their central car-shops in Chatham did not seem, at present, practicable, although he would not say that it was not possible to locate them here. But it did seem, to use his own expression, like a man going out of his home to get his meals.

Mr. Carpenter had met the committee were glid they had been enable to retain his respect towards the city. Mr. Carpenter had said frankly and pleasantly that he liked Chatham—there was an air of business hustile about the place which he admired. And, Mr. Malcolmson continued, it meant much to Chatham to maintain a friendly attitude towards the railfroad—the market day rates alone proved that. As a ratepayer he earnesitly advised the Council to accept the agreement and have it ratified.

Ald. Marshall then presented the following motion:

"Aid. Marshall then presented the following motion:

Moved by Ald. Marshall, seconded by Ald. McCoig.—

"That while the city of Chatham would prefer to have the workshops in Chatham, yet as the committee, according to the report of Mr. G. P. Scholfield, were met in a spirit of goodwill and friendship by Mr. Carpenter, who finally made the offer contained in his leitter, of 28th October, 1908, on behalf of the Pere Marquette Reillway Company, addressed to his worship W. E. Mc-Keough, Mayor; this Council should in the same spirit of goodwill and friendship accept, and the Council does hereby accept, and the Council does hereby accept, such offer; and that the sahoitor be instructed to stay proceedings now pending before the Railway committee of the Privy Council."

In presenting the motion Ald. Marshall said he was exceedingly glad settllement had been arrived at and believed it would be a duity to the advantage of the city to accept it. Mar. Carpenter had melt the committee in a most cordial and amicable manner and he had every hope that Chetham would receive at least the divisional carshops and perhaps the regular workshops.

divisional carshops and perhaps the regular workshops.
Alth McCoig im seconding the motion said he felit sure the citizens would be well satisfied with the cash payment although they would prefer the carshops. The cash remuneration was sufficient to induce an industry of the size of the carshops to locate here anyway. He thought the gortlemen who had devoted their time and effort to this matter were deserving of the thanks of all rate-payers.

Alth Edmondson offered his hearty congratulations to the committee for securing a settlement of a long and tedious controversy. He hoped yet t see the shops established in Chat ham.

Ald. Martin made a spirited and capital address. He said he had been viewed as the heathen and the skeptic in this matter and accordingly it afforded him special satisfaction to congratulate Messrs. Maleolmson and Scholfield on the splendid result they had achieved. When The Planet first suggested the course he had put up an aggressive fight for an unpopular cause in the interests of the people and The Planet had criticised at times cause in the interests of the peop and The Planet had criticised at time and The Planet had criticised at times severely because he did not favor the project. Now he saw the results—the advantage of both stands. He thanked these gentlemen on behalf of his constituents for what they had done and congratulated them on having the good office of the city solicitor Mr. Wilson. Ald Martin was heartily in favor of acceptance of the agreement.

Ald. Piggott also spoke vigorously in support of the agreement. As chairman of the Industrial committee he has contributed largely to the
