

II. FEBRUARY hath XXVIII. Days. 1806.

The Farmer's hard toils are with plenty well crown'd,
And the wants of his household supply'd,
A sweet smiling summer, and its joys, are found,
With wife, children, and warm fire-side.

The Tar homeward points, and each fear does forsake
That dar'd in his bosom reside :

Exults o'er his gains, which a summer can make
With wife, children and warm fire-side.
