MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

LIVE STOCK

Toronto, Monday, Feb. 23.—As the spring trade further develops business men do not tend to become more optimistic. As indicated last week, spring orders are not coming in so rapidly and travellers report sales hard. This in itself is enough to indicate that the country has not yet recovered from the depression that became evident last summer. One favorable feature is that money is a little more plentiful and may now be had on call at 6 per cent, although even at this price banks do not seem anxious to place loans.

Grains have been stronger this week, while the live stock market has tended to lower levels. Dairy produce is firm on a normal market.

WHEAT

The wheat market has been strong the world over. Prices have generally advanced, and there has been considerable enquiry for Canadian wheat from Europe. Wheat holders, however, are very optimistic and little business is being done.
