YOUNG MEN PREPARED FOR BUSINESS PURSUITS

At DAYS Commercial College, No. 82 King St East.

N.B.—Letter of approval, addressed to Mr. Day Principal.

DEAR SIR—At your own request we have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the efficient manner in which you prepare young men for business pursuits.

For nearly two years Mr. Daniel Sprague, a graduate of your College, has held the position of book-keeper in our establishment, and it is with a great degree of satisfaction that we state that he is well qualified for the duties devolving upon him, and discharges them most assiduously.

We understand that Mr. Sprague came direct from your institution to us, and most certainly, if all your graduates do equally as well or nearly as he has done, they will not only show valuable results derived for the time and money spent, but in the highest degree reflect credit upon yourself as an instructor in the science of accounts and business practice. Such an institution as yours is valuable to the mercantile community, and young men generally would greatly study their own interests, as well as that of the business world, by availing themselves of your excellent course of commercial studies and business practice. With respect, yours,

DODGE & CO.,
 Lumber Merchants.
 Oshawa, April 11, 1871.

Its LOCATION is just where a business school should be, in the largest city, and in the midst of great business men.

Its GRADUATES are gentlemen occupying prominent positions in some of the largest business houses, and can speak for themselves.

Its LADY STUDENTS speak of the school in the highest terms.

Its SCHOLARSHIPS are good for life, and available in FORTY COLLEGES.
