

Written for CATHOLIC RECORD. CATHOLICS OF SCOTLAND.

BY THE REV. ANNEAS M'DONNELL DAWSON, LL. D., F. R. S.

PART II. JAMES GRANT, J. M'DONALD, GEO. HAY, ETC., AND THEIR TIME.

The bad feeling which prompted and accompanied so much illegal proceeding did not easily die away. It soon began to decrease. But it was some time before it was safe for Bishop Hay to stay constantly at Edinburgh.

It will be remembered that when the Relief Bills for England and Ireland were passed, a prayer for the King and the royal family was generally adopted by the Catholics of those countries.

There is mention at this time of the scarcity of funds for the maintenance of the seminary at Scalton. It was determined, therefore, to charge, in future, each boarder £5 yearly. Candidates for admission on the endowed fund were also required to pay the like sum during their probation.

The appointment of a successor to the deceased Bishop John MacDonal was not a matter of such unanimity as that of Bishop Geddes.

On occasion of a Royal Proclamation ordaining a general fast throughout the land on account of the critical circumstances of the country, the bishop laid it as a duty on all his people to use a Prayer for the King and Royal Family, observing "that as it is the duty of every member of society to wish well to the country and the State to which he belongs, as the light of nature teaches, but also as the Holy Scripture expressly commands, to make supplications, prayers and intercessions for kings and all that are in high stations, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life under their rule."

being elated by so many honors. He retired to Valladolid, intending to spend there the Christmas holidays.

After a most fatiguing sojourn of four months in London, Bishop Hay returned to Scotland, July 1770; avoiding the larger cities, he proceeded, at once, to Scalton. There, with the senior priests of both vicariates, he fell, once more, that he was among friends, and could enjoy that tranquillity to which he had been so long a stranger.

With a view to introducing more canonical discipline among the clergy, which he had been meditating for some time, the bishop published a very long pastoral letter which might rather be described as a treatise. An idea of it may be derived from the heads of the section into which it is divided.

Corpus Christi, the Annunciation and the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin; the festival of SS. Peter and Paul; of All Saints, and of the patron saint of the place wherein it is kept. On Easter Monday and Tuesday, and on Pentecost Monday and Tuesday, the precept of hearing mass was left binding, but not the obligation of abstaining from servile work.

A new outbreak of popular fury comes to be mentioned. It occurred in England; but was connected with Scotland, inasmuch as it was headed by a Scottish nobleman, and suggested by the success of a Scotch mob in preventing Parliament from passing a relief bill in favor of the Catholics of Scotland.

doers was acquitted. Notwithstanding his cruel and atrocious proceedings, he was, on occasion of the riot, "unwinded of justice." He found his way to Newgate at last, having labelled the Queen of France, and there ended his illustrious career.

No woman can be contented and happy if her skin is covered with pimples and blotches. These disfiguring eruptions are easily removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is perfectly safe to take, and is a thoroughly reliable blood purifier.

What a striking commentary upon the charity of non-Catholics is presented in the declaration which the Hawaiian government made to the Sisters of St. Francis, at Syracuse, N. Y., that in their opinion, it was useless to look for nurses for the lepers of the kingdom outside of the Catholic Church.

It is a matter of some importance compared with other applications of electricity. By this agency Polson's Nervine is made to penetrate to the most remote nerve—every bone, muscle and ligament is made to feel its beneficial power.

Indications of Dyspepsia, such as Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Rising and Scurrying of Food, Wind on the Stomach, or a Choking or Gurgling sensation at the pit of the Stomach are fully met by Burdock Blood Bitters which has cured the worst cases on record.

People who are exposed to the sudden changes of our northern climate have little chance of escaping colds, coughs, sore throat and lung troubles. The best safeguard is to keep Haygard's Pectoral Balm at hand. It is a quick relief and reliable cure for such complaints.

One Good Point. Out of the many possessed by Burdock Blood Bitters is that it may be taken at all seasons of the year, and by either young or old.

PROPER, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

IT IS SAFE TO USE Freeman's Worm Powders, as they act only on the worms and do not injure the child.
