> INDUCTION.—The Rev. J. K. Smith, late of Galt, Ontario, was inducted on Thursday evening into the charge of the Fort Massey Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Prof. McKaight preached an excellent sermon after which the Rev. Mr. Logan, of Cornwallis, put INDUCTION .- The Rev. J. K. Smith, late which the Rev. Mr. Logan, of Cornwallis, put the usual formula of questions to the newly chosen minister, who upon applying to them satisfactorily was welcomed as a member of Presbytety. Mr. Logan then proceeded to address him dwelling on his duties as a Christian gentleman, a Christian student, and a Christian minister. The Rev. Mr. Sedgwick addressed the people in his usual racy and for cible style, after which Mr. Smith was welcomed among them by the members of the congregation. Not the least pleasant part of the evening's proceedings was that in which the congregation through Mr. Buest, handed to Mr. Smith a check for his first quarter's salary

London, Oct. 31 .- Despatches from Turin parts to the suffering people.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—The upper house of the Prussian Diet has rejected the Country Reform bill by a vote of 145 to 18. This was done in the face of a threat from the Minister of the Interior, that if the measure was deteated the Government would dissolve the Diet and convoke a new one.

New York, Oct. 31.—Steamship Missouri, Captain Curtis, which lett New York Oct 17th for Havana and Nassau, was burned off Abaco, Oct. 22nd. Over eighty lives were lost. The news is received by the Anna, just arrived at Key West from Nassau. Only twelve persons are known to be saved. The Missouri had 34 passengers and a crew of 58 men. The fire was discovered at 9. o'clock, a. m., in the pantry and suddenly burst in volumes of fime amidships, spreading rapidly over the ship. The boats were launched immediately, and all but one swamped at once. Those remaining on board were compelled on account of the flames to jump into the sea. Those saved landed in one of the boats on Abaco at 6 o'clock, p. m., on the 22nd., and were taken from there in a small schooner to Nassau

The catastrophe occurred during a heavy gale Buda, the capital of Hungary. Ninety four cases are reported, of which 27 have proved fatal. Among the cases are those of 29 soldiers, who were stricken ill simultaneously and of which five have died.
