Evidence of a German plot to align the nations of South America ment.

Forty telegrams sent by Count von Luxburg of "spurlos versenkt" fame, former German charge in Ar partment.

A Secret Agreement

One of the *messages revealed that Luxburg had induced the President of Argentina to seek a secret agreement with Chile and Bolivia. a "mutual rapprochement for protection against North America." It NEW ROUTE TO WESTER thing possible to have Peru brought into such an agreement.

The correspondence deals largely with efforts made by the German minister to prevent any rupture of relations with Argentine and throughout the despatch there was warning to his government to flatter the Argentinians and to word the note in reply to the Argentine protest against the sinking of the steamer Toro in such a way as not to offend them.

President Was Pliable

Evidence of the apparent pliabil of the Argentine President and of the opposition of Minister of Foreign Affairs Puerreydon is disclosed in many of the despatches. Frequent reference is made by the charge to difficulty, he was having in dealing with the foreign minister but emphasis is placed upon the ease with which he communicated with the President.
