TRIBUTE TO LOCAL VOCALISTS.

The current issue of the Lewiston Chronicle pays the following eulogy to a popular Maple City vocalist:—
"It was a handsome tribute paid to the talent of Claire Monteith last night when the full capacity of the copera house was tasted to opera house was tested to accommodate the crowd that gathered to welcome the return home of Lewiston's popular singer. It was a delightful function that the Caecilian society had arranged to introduce him again to a Lewiston audience. Mr. Monteith was recognized previous to his departure for the east three years ago as a singer of much promise. Since that time his rare voice has been given a master's improvement. He sang last night with confidence, with accuracy of expression, with sweetness and with power, while his rich baritone voice has that sympathy of melody that few artists possess. His executions attracted repeated encores; he pleased every hearer."

WHO SLEPT?

"Yes," said Vitel Goudreau as the donned his thoughtful mood and shifted his cigar uneasily. "I have heard many fish stories but they are all lies, at least the majority of them. I don't think, however, that I have as yet told the story of how I lost and found this heary model." and found this heavy gold ring of mine. While I was proprietor of the pavilion at the Eau, I, as you know, did a lot of fishing. I mean I caught a lot of fish. Well, one day I was on the south pier fishing away when suddenly I missed my gold ring. Naturally, I felt bad but a strong tug at my line made me forget for a moment my loss. After a struggle I landed my fish. I felt so bad about the loss of my ring that I picked up the fish and trekked off to the pavillion where very much to my surprise I found the ring on my wash stand. I had forgotten to put it on."-Planet, April 16.

"Billy" Holman, the greatest single handed fish story teller in Western Ontario, is not responsible for this: A Thamesville man was out fishing the other day, when suddenly he miss-ed a valuable gold ring he was in the habit of wearing. Shortly after he caught a large bass. When he got home he found the missing ring on the wash stand where he had left in the morning. - Banner-News, May 30.

WAS CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Young Colored Lad Attemp s to Rob the G. T. R. Ticket Offices.

Had Filled His Pockets With Plunder Ere He was Captured.

Fred. Williams, a colored youth who gave his age as 16, appeared before Judge Houston this morning to inswer to a charge of breaking into the G. T. R. city ticket offices.

Last evening about 10.40, Robert Mercer, clerk in the office, was surprised to find the door unlocked. He went in and turned on the light and was somewhat startled to find a young colored lad lying in hiding, extended at full length behind the counter. The fellow had evidently been touching the ticket case, as his pockets were buiging with the spoils.

Mr. Mercer at once took in the situation and called the police and Henry Darr and P. C. Dezelia both. were soon on the scene and the young man was taken over to the police station. On being searched 20 card and coupon tickets were found on him and a skeleton key which had been used in picking the lock of the Atkinson and Rispin office.

Williams is the young colored boy who was in the police court about a who was in the ponce court about a month ago charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was fined at the time but promised Judge Houston that he would leave the city.

ton that he would leave the city. He, however, secured employment as porter at Chrysler Bros. barber shop and has smoe resided here. He claims to have come from Toledo.

Williams told the magistrate this morning that he was going by the offices of Atkinson and Rispin about. 10 o'clock, and had the skeleton key. 10 o'clock, and had the skeleton key in his pocket. He tried it and its opened the sloor. He had secured the key at King, Cunningham & Drew's. There was nobody with him when he had gone into the office. After securing the tickets fice. After securing the tickets
Williams took them over to Chrysler's barn. On looking at them, he saw they were not stamped and was taking them back when Mr. Mercer discovered him. No one had seen the

Mr. Rispin said the tickets wer Mr. Rispin said the tickets were negotiable without being stamped. The name of the place could easily be written in. He thought he had one of the best locks ever made. Williams pleaded guilty and was remanded till Tuesday to give the Judge an opportunity of making enquiries in regard to his character. The maximum penalty for the crime is 14 years at Kingston.

HUMORS

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way, but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad. Hood's Sarsaparilla remov and cures all painful and disfiguring troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the complexion like Hood's.

DOVER CENTRE.

Last Wednesday evening the manse was the scene of an exceedingly pleasant surpise. It was the occasion of a handsome presentation to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McLintoch, by the ladies' aid of which Mrs. McLintock was a valued member. The members of the Aid, with their husbands, gathered together at Mr. McKight's and "as the night was beginning to lower" proceeded in a body to the manse. The presentation, which consisted of two beautifully upholstered oak chairs, a set each of silver teaspoons and tablespoons, was made by Miss Ellen Angus, while Mrs. Frank Stokes read the following address:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McLintock,—As the time is approaching when you will be departing from amongst us, we desire to humbly express our appreciation of your ten years' labor as as pastor and wife, and also in some meagre way to convey to you the es teem in which you are held by the members of this congregation. shall look back with pleasure and delight over our years of spiritual work together and our sincerest wish will be for your future health and prosper-

We tender you these tokens of our affection and regard, not for pecuniary value, but as a slight re-cognition of the ability with which you have fulfilled the duties of your sacred calling. We entreat you to accept them in this light and hope they may serve to keep your Dover friends in remembrance in the years to come Signed in behalf of the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. D. Henderson.

President.

To this Mr. McLintock most fittingly responded, thanking those present for such a kind expression of their regard, which, he said, deeply touched both Mr. McLintock and himself. This agreeable function performed very pleasant social time was spent and a tasty repast spread, for which the ladies had thoughtfully provided. About 12 o'clock this happy gathering broke up, after having indulged in a 'most enjoyable evening.
