AN EXCITING MAN HUNT

Maniac Running Wild in Field and Resisting Arrest.

Shot Policeman Green of London When He Tried to Arrest Him—Wound Is Serious, but Green May Recover—London Man of Bad Character Who Blames Cigars For His Lack of Mental Balance.

London, Nov. 7.—Between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a tea pedlar, while driving in London South, noticed a man running around a field with two revolvers, shooting at everything he could see. He phoned for the police and Policemen Green and Smith set out. Getting as near as possible to the field with the patrol wagon, they proceeded by foot and when near the man with the revolvers started to run southward.

When Green was about to grapple with him he turned pointblank and fired in Green's face, the bullet entering just below the left ear. Green fell and Smith approached to make the arrest, but the man fired at him, this time only scratching Smith's right arm. He then continued his retreat over the Grand Trunk tracks and down to the river's edge, where he threw one of his guns, and was overtaken by Smith, who handcuffed him.

The prisoner is Thomas E. Flaxen of Brick street, London, a very rough character, about 22 years of age, with a prison record, only recently being up on a charge of drunkenness. At short intervals after being arrested he shouted and yelled and it is believed he is a maniac.

Although Green is very seriously injured it is not thought to be fatal, unless blood poisoning sets in. Flaxen, while mumbling to himself, claimed that cigars were the cause of all his troubles.

TABERINTO ON TRIAL.

One Witness Testifies That Bruno Had the Knife in His Hand.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Yesterday Dominic Taberinto was placed on trial for his life on the charge of killing James Marlow in the Windsor barroom at Mimico on Sept. 22 last. Justice Clute is presiding. Mr. DuVernet, Crown Counsel; Mr. Robinette, counsel for the prisoner; and Michael Basso, court interpreter. Crown Attorney Drayton and County Constable Burns are assisting the Crown.

All the evidence for the prosecution is in. The witnesses corroborated one another to a great extent, in the important points. Mr. Robinette commenced the defence by calling some of the Crown witnesses, whose names were on the back of the indictment, but who had not been called for the Crown. One of them testified that Bruno who had a knife in his hand and not Taberinto. Prof. Ellis will be called to-day. The jury was locked up for the night at 5.30.

COLLAR SAVES TWO LIVES.

Keeps Man From Fatal Injury and Assailant From Hanging.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—What might have given Waterloo County another murder trial was narrowly averted by reason of the "stand-up-down" collar which the victim of a stabbing affray in Waterloo wore. But for this collar it is probable that his jugular vein would have been severed.

The wound was inflicted with a jack-knife, and Reinhardt, the assailant, is under arrest, charged with the deed.

The victim is John Kropf. Even as it is, his injury is a serious one. Baumann is in Berlin jail, having been remanded until Wednesday. There was a woman in the Baumann case who was employed as hostess at the Market Hotel, Waterloo.

BABY THROWN FROM A TRAIN.

Picked Up Dead in a Ditch Along the Railway Tracks.

Kingsmill, Nov. 7.—As F. Gable, section-man of the M. C. R., was walking down the track about one mile east of Kingsmill Station, he discovered the remains of a dead baby lying in a ditch by the side of the track.

It would appear this baby had been thrown from some express train during the night of Nov. 6.

Dr. Sinclair, coroner of Aylmer, was notified and decided that the baby was alive and in a healthy condition when thrown from the train.

The clothes consisted of a little undershirt and napkin, also a nightgown made of shaker flannel and a pair of black stockings.

Chef Smashes Windows.

Brockville, Nov. 7.—Because Alphonse Victor Marchese, who had resigned his position as chef at Brockville's leading hotel, the Strathcona, could not make a settlement with the proprietor in the matter of wages, he sought to get revenge by hurling stones through two of the large plate-glass windows. The police nabbed him shortly after the offence was committed, and the prisoner is now in jail on remand, charged with malicious injury to property.

Sentence Is Postponed.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—The Christian Scientists, who were found guilty of manslaughter at the spring Assizes in causing the death of Wallace Goodfellow, before Justice Clute, yesterday morning for sentence. The case will be argued before the Court of Appeal on Nov. 24. Sentence was deferred until Jan. 8, 1906.

No one ever reaches the top of the ladder unless he starts at the bottom of it.

HIS COMMISSION

Principal Plewes Receives Official Appointment—Kind Letter From Minister

Principal J. W. Plewes last evening received from the Provincial Secretary, Hon. J. W. Hanna, the Commission from the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario appointing him a member of the Provincial Educational Council.

Accompanying the Commission was a kind personal letter from the Minister of Education, Hon. Dr. Fyfe, asking the Mayor City Principal to accept the responsible position.

SUNDAY PAPERS

St. Thomas P. M. Decides What May Stand as Precedent in Province

St. Thomas, Nov. 6.—W. H. Anderson, the new dealer, was fined this morning by Justice Magistrate Gies for violation of the Lord's Day Act in selling Detroit and Buffalo papers, on Sunday, October 22.

The penalty imposed was ten dollars and costs. His worship's judgment is a lengthy one. He laid it down that the term tradesman was used in the same sense to-day as it was when the act was passed in 1845; and that Mr. Anderson was engaged in the trading and sale of papers in his ordinary calling as newsdealer. He did not agree that an agent being a person within the classes enumerated in the Act may carry on business with impunity. Nor did he consider the defendant an agent for anybody in carrying on his business as newsdealer. He thought the printer and sold them on his own account for gain. Newspapers come under the head of goods and chattels, and that the newspapers were only bought to be read and afterwards thrown away did not dispense with their sale or ownership. The words of the Act were comprehensive enough to include newspaper. If not, then a man, he thought, might keep a store or shop open and sell books, magazines and newspapers on Sunday with impunity.

BAVARIAN WILL BE FLOATED.

Injuries Not Past Repair—Light Out Caused the Wreck.

Montreal, Nov. 7.—"We have every reason to believe that the Bavarian will be successfully floated," was the statement made by the Messrs. Allan yesterday after seeing a great part of Sunday on board the stranded liner.

"There is water in No. 5 hold in the ballast tanks, and in the engine-room compartment, but though the tide has risen and fallen five times since the disaster the other compartments are intact, and when a considerable portion of the cargo is taken out the undamaged portions will have ample buoyancy to float the entire hull."

"The damage in the engine-room is the most serious feature of the accident, as it will add to the difficulty of executing temporary repairs. The engines and boilers have been displaced, and the funnel casing slightly forced up, but there is no question of the ship's back being broken or the general damage being irreparable."

"Mr. Davis, who is at the scene with his wrecking plant and the S. S. Strathcona, is also sanguine of floating the big liner. Up to Nov. 10 the tide is a rising one, which is a materially favorable factor in the situation. The work of discharging the cargo is going steadily on, the butter and cheese coming out perfectly dry."

It appears that the disaster was primarily due to the light of the gas buoy, known as the St. Margaret's Tail buoy, being out, a fact of which neither pilot captain nor owners were aware.

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 7.—I.G.R. authorities here received word by wireless telegraph yesterday from the steamer Montreal, now at sea, that the vessel will arrive at North Sydney to-day to land 100 tons of passengers and cargo by rail to Quebec. The Montreal left Montreal for London and Havre Oct. 28. It is thought she has met with an accident, and is coming here to land her passengers.

TWO DIE FROM EXPOSURE.

Party of Four Were Dumped From Boat in Bay of Quinte.

Ameliasburg, Nov. 7.—A drowning accident occurred on the Bay of Quinte, off the Ameliasburg shore, at 9 o'clock Sunday night. Some parties were illegally fishing in the bay, and a party of four, consisting of Frank Orendonk, one of the councillors of the Township of Ameliasburg; Wm. Urquhart, and James and John Garbutt, went out in a skiff to warn the fishermen to leave. They had gone only a short distance when a squall swamped the boat. They shouted and soon received help from the land, and all reached shore. Doctors Elecker and Horan were summoned, but Orendonk and Urquhart failed to rally and died from exposure.

The Garbuts are in a bad condition, but their recovery is likely.

Our lives are very short at best. Why not try to do all the good we can during this lifetime, and not only get a good example to others, but leave the world better than we found it?

The fellow who is most popular with himself generally has the fewest friends.

WITTE ISSUES APPEAL

Duty of Every Faithful Subject to Aid in Pacifying Country.

Reforms Are Being Delayed by Disorders—Cause of Conflict Is Found In the Fact That Hostility Has Been Aroused Among the Different Classes of the Population—The Odessa Massacres.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—The Official Messenger yesterday prints another strongly worded appeal for confidence. It bears Count Witte's remarks. "Although it is impossible in every case," the note says, "to diagnose the true cause of the conflicts, it is clear that the origin generally is the hostility aroused among the different classes of the population. Those who are dissatisfied with the manifesto provoke the indignation of those who require it with gratitude, leading to attacks and counter attacks, all of which could be avoided if the people only had confidence that the reforms set forth in the Imperial manifesto will be executed. Disorders only delay the reforms which are designed to give the people a representative assembly in which to settle their differences. The duty of every faithful subject of the Emperor is to aid in the pacification of the country."

The political situation is most complex. Whether the Government will be able to outlive the populace or not is problematic.

From Living Tomb. Many touching scenes were witnessed Sunday when the political prisoners were released under the amnesty decree. At the Schusselburg fortress, where the most dangerous political prisoners are kept in solitary confinement, a great concourse gathered, looking for loved ones who vanished years ago and whose whereabouts were unknown. But only four were released. Disappointed women waiting for sons, husbands or brothers, broke down and wept. A man named Fraienko and a comrade, who said they had spent over 20 years in prison, came out with long white beards. They knew practically nothing about what had occurred during their long imprisonment. Sazonoff, the murderer of Interior Minister Von Plehve; Peter Karpovich, the assassin of Minister of Public Instruction Bogolipoff; Gerolinski, the chief of the Terrorist conspiracy, and other Terrorists were not released.

Must Go Whole Way.

Prince Lvoff explained yesterday that the deputation of the Moscow Constitutional-Democratic group, of which he is a member, which called on Count Witte demanding the convocation of a constitutional convention, believed that such a course was the only solution of the present situation. He added:

"Count Witte asked for our support and told us that our views more nearly corresponded with his than any other group. But the support of no party can now stem the tide or affect the final development of the great national drama. Autocracy has abdicated in words, but cannot stop half way."

As it is in Finland. Stockholm, Nov. 7.—A telegram from Abo, capital of the Province of Abo-Bjornborg, Finland, says that Governor Borgstrom has joined the Constitutionalists, and that the garrison of 1,700 men, including 100 Cossacks, remains passive by his orders. The members of the Supreme Court have been compelled to resign. Abo, however, is perfectly quiet. The Emperor's Finnish manifesto was received with enthusiasm, processions marching, singing through the streets.

Warsaw Citizens Unfit. Warsaw, Nov. 7.—The Governor-General yesterday issued an order setting forth that as he has ascertained that the citizens of Warsaw are not fit to profit quietly by constitutional liberties, he henceforth prohibits processions and open-air meetings, and threatens to disperse crowds by force of arms.

The Odessa Massacres. Odessa, Nov. 7.—The town was quiet yesterday. It is now estimated that the killed and wounded during the recent riots here number 6,000. The city hospital alone contains 2,000 wounded. Out of the 6,000 casualties, those who were killed or wounded aggregate, up to midday, 1,374, of which number 713 were taken to Jewish cemeteries and 661 to Christian cemeteries.

The Governor-General has requested the editors of the local newspapers to refrain from publishing accounts of the happenings of last week in order to avoid inflaming the public. The editors acceded.

Anti-Semitic disturbances are reported from all the outlying districts. The peasants are greatly excited, and are urged on by agitators from Odessa. Troops have been despatched to the disturbed districts.

It is claimed in some quarters here that estimates higher than 2,000 killed and 5,000 wounded are exaggerations.

Used Bayonets. Tomsk, Siberia, Nov. 7.—The troops yesterday were forced to charge with bayonets against a mob which was pillaging Jewish houses. A number were killed and many were wounded. The city is half sacked.

Novogorodskoye, Russia, Nov. 7.—A bomb was thrown Sunday into the apartments of the commander of the fortress. The commander was killed, and his wife, their children and an orderly were wounded.

Finn Strike Declared Off.

Helsingfors, Nov. 7.—The manifesto has created a splendid impression, and the populace is cooling off. In spite of the opposition of the Socialists, the strike has been declared off.

Our affections are our life. We live by them; they supply our warmth.

LINE DITCH

Causes Animated Dispute and Intricate County Court Assault Case

Judgment was reserved for one week in the County Court case tried before Judge Houston yesterday, in which Chas. W. Haviland, of Chatham Township, took action against Robt. A. Steen for assault.

The evidence was very complex in character. It showed that Mr. Haviland had taken exception to the position of a ditch Steen was making upon his property, following which the alleged assault followed, Steen knocking or shoving his antagonist down several times and leaving some ugly scars. The testimony of Engineer McGeorge and neighboring witnesses went to show that Haviland was justified in the objections he made to the location of the ditch, although Barrister W. F. Smith, who appeared for Steen, put up a magnificent legal fight, disputing every inch of the prosecution's vigorous attack. The case was decidedly intricate owing to the necessity of determining the engineer's awards and profiles. O. L. Lewis conducted a strong case for Haviland.

A GOOD SHOW

The Stoddart Stock Company opened at the Grand last evening with "The Senator's Daughter."

There was a good house, nearly every seat being taken, and it is an assured fact that the company will receive excellent patronage in Chatham.

The play last night was a good one and all of the rolls were well taken. It was thoroughly appreciated, judging from the liberal and enthusiastic applause.

The specialties were new and bright and proved pleasing features of the production.

The bill for to-night is Hall Caine's "Christian," and it promises to be one of their best performances.

Another Identification Gone Wrong. Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Although the police were said to have identified a woman who was murdered at Hamilton, Ont., as Pansy Lovthian, a wealthy young woman of Denver, Col., Miss Lovthian is alive and well in this city, and tells the police she is unable to account for their mistake.

Prince Arthur's Mission. London, Nov. 7.—The Foreign Office last evening formally announced that King Edward had selected Prince Arthur of Connaught to proceed to Japan and confer on the Japanese Emperor the Order of the Garter.

SPECIAL MATINEE

MEN'S SHOES

IN

CORRECT STYLES

Bend your mind for a moment toward the THREE great qualifications of footwear:—

STYLE—QUALITY—PRICE

STYLE is no more than tinsel without quality to perpetuate it.

QUALITY is essential, but at any but a fair price it is not economical.

PRICE is a splendid test but must have both style and quality to warrant it.

We have studied these problems for years—they're our daily business and we flatter ourselves that we have accomplished much in each of them.

Our styles are new and correct—many of them exclusive with us.

Our quality is kept rigidly to the highest standard.

Our price is the lowest that can consistently be made.
