THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 15, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

The snow-plough made its first trip this season on Tuesday morning last.

The mercury on Wednesday night is said to have got down to 11 degrees below zero.

Mr. W. E. Roscoe will begin his course of lectures on Contracts at Acadia College on Saturday, the 16th inst., on arrival of the p. m. express from Kentville.

Mr. Frank G. Curry, of Denver, Col., has our thanks for late copies of the Denver Post, giving an account of the mining resources of the state, and the building up of the city of Denver. The Times is a typical Western journal, bright, breezy and boomy.

Mr. J. M. Shaw, our genial knight of the razor and shears, has added to the beauty of his tonorial parlor by putting in a handsome shelf of quartered oak. It was constructed by Messrs. Curry Bros. & Son, of Bridgetown, and is a very nice piece of work.

A delegation of sons of the great Crowell family, held a conference at the Wolfville Hotel, of this town, on Monday last. Representatives of different branches were present from New England, Halifax, and other parts. The object of the conference was to decide upon some method of procedure for the obtaining of the vast fortune now awaiting them in the Bank of England.

A very pleasant skating party was given in Aberdeen Park, on Tuesday evening last, by Mr. J. S. Heales. A large number were present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. A number of "Company 9's" members were present in their gay uniforms, and flitting hither and thither gave quite a military aspect to the affair. During the evening hot coffee and cake were served. Mrs. C. R. Burgess and Mrs. C. H. Borden were the chaperons.

The regular annual meeting of the members and adherents of St. Andrew's church was held on Wednesday evening. The report of the managers shows the finances of the church to be in a healthy condition. All departments of work are being successfully carried on. The members of the managing committee for the ensuing year are: Messrs. George Thomson, W. H. Chase, D. B. Shaw, B. O. Davidson, D. A. Munro, J. Elliott Smith, and Harold Gillmore.

The officers of the Wolfville Division for the present quarter are:
W. F. — H. G. Harris
W. A. — Miss F. E. Davison
R. S. — B. C. Davison
A. R. S. — Miss Belle Patriguin
F. S. — T. R. Wallace
Treas. — Geo. V. Rand
Clk. — H. A. Moore
Cond. — Miss Annie Patien
A. Cond. — Henderson
L. S. — Miss Hattie Eyr

Monday night was beautiful and clear, and when the citizens of Wolfville retired to their downy couches, they little thought that in the morning their eyes would open on the biggest and snowiest storm of the season, thus far at least. But such was the case. Snow had fallen during the night to the depth of six or seven inches, and a sharp wind was blowing from the north, making it very uncomfortable for the pedestrian. The pleasant music of sleigh bells during the week, with the exhibition of the drivers, has made the town take on quite a lively hue.

To My Friends:

I take this opportunity of wishing the compliments of the season and also thank you heartily for many kind favors in the past, and hoping the year of 1897 will be a happy and prosperous one for you.

I remain,

Yours truly,

DENTISTRY.

Messrs. C. R. Dickey & Co., of Canning, have assigned to D. M. Dickey.

Rev. Dr. Sexton will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church at Grand Pre on Sunday morning next.

A rumor is current to the effect that a branch of the Commercial Bank, of Windsor, is to be started in Wolfville.

The Foresters had an oyster supper at Mr. J. W. Beckwith's hotel on Tuesday evening last. Mr. C. O. Whale was present as guest of honor, and in company with a number of Court Blomdon's orators delivered an address. A very pleasant time was spent.

Mr. D. B. Mayne's latest achievement in the mechanical line is a model of a chainless bicycle. It is on an altogether different principle from anything yet produced in the way of a chainless "bike," and Mr. Mayne is confident of its successful working. He has applied for a patent.

The Messenger and Visitor came to us in its last issue, in a changed form. It is now a sixteen-page journal, and presents a fine typographical appearance. It is very ably edited by Rev. S. McCully Black, and is one of the most interesting denominational publications that we get.

There will only be two eclipses of the sun in 1897. The first, on February 1st, will be invisible in Canada. On July 23, a partial eclipse of the sun will be seen in Canada. Ash Wednesday, will be on March 3; Good Friday on April 10; Easter Sunday April 13, and Christmas day on Saturday.

A musical entertainment of a high order is to be given in College Hall this evening, under the auspices of the College Y. M. C. A. A fine programme will be rendered by the Wolfville Orchestra, the College Quartette, and Rev. P. M. Macdonald, soloist. A rich treat may be expected.

We omitted last week to acknowledge the receipt of wedding favors from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duncanson. The marriage took place at the residence of Mr. W. H. Duncanson, this town, on the evening of the 30th ult. The bride was formerly Miss Mary Green, a sister of Mrs. Duncanson. The ACADIAN extends to the happy couple best wishes for a happy and prosperous life.

Dr. J. B. March, of Berwick, and Dr. W. B. Moore, of Kentville, performed two delicate surgical operations in the former's office on the 23d ult. An extra thumb was removed from the hand of a child of three years, and an eight-year-old son of the late J. Alfred Stronach, of British Columbia, was operated on for contracted muscles of the thigh. The lad had never been able to walk. Both patients are now doing well.

On Monday evening next a lecture is to be given in the Methodist church by Rev. Geo. Sexton, M. D., LL. D., F. R. S., on the subject: "If a man be dead, be he again?" The answer of science and philosophy? Dr. Sexton will preach on Sunday evening in the Methodist church on "Reason, Faith and Faith." Those who had the pleasure of hearing the learned doctor during his last visit to Wolfville, will be glad of another opportunity of listening to him.
