The Misses Seaman and Mrs. Stafford, of Barronsfield, N. S., who recently purchased the residence of Ralph Creighton, arrived Tuesday to take possession of their new home.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes, of Burman, who was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Schurman, left Saturday for Fredericton and Woodstock, where she will visit before spending the winter in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. C. Hamilton, who has been spending the past fifteen months in Edmonton and Spokane, Wash., has returned to Wolfville and is the guest of her sister, Miss Margaret Harvey, Seaview avenue.

Mr. J. G. Kenney, Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at New Germany accompanied by Mrs. Kenney and her two sons, spent the week end here at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. K. Kenney, Prospect Street.

Misses Helen Angus and May Thurber leave to-day for White Plains, N. Y., where they will enter the White Plains Hospital to train for nurses. Many Wolfville friends will join THE ACADIAN in wishing them success.

Miss Marie Wilson, who has been spending the summer at her home here, left on Wednesday for New York, where she will take lessons in voice. Miss Wilson will sing in St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, next Sunday evening.

Mr. A. Emerson Warren left last week for New Haven, where he will take post-graduate work at Yale in Biology and also be an assistant teacher in that department. He will visit his uncle, Rev. A. W. Warren, of Gloucester, Mass., enroute.

Capt. Wilfrid Lockhart, of the Pan-American Petroleum Company, returned home on Tuesday to visit his family. The many friends whom he made last year and on former visits are glad to welcome him back to Wolfville and trust that his stay may be an extended one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davidson, of Middleton, were in town over Tuesday night, on their way home from Halifax, having accompanied their son Herbert, who is entering the sophomore class at Dalhousie University. They were guests while in Wolfville at the home of the former's brother, Mr. B. O. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pick and two children, of New York, have been recent visitors in this vicinity. Mr. Pick, who is a son of the late Leonard Pick, of White Rock, has not been home for twenty-seven years and expresses wonder at the changes that have taken place. His sisters Grace and Lucy, of Boston, who have not been here for seventeen years, have also been paying a visit to their old home land. They have been welcome visitors at the home of their sister, Mrs. George Eye, Lower Wolfville, and other relatives and friends in the vicinity.

Dr. Milner, of Halifax and Mrs. Milner arrived Tuesday for a short stay in town.

Bartley Atwell, of Gaspereau, who has been a competitor the past two years in the Halifax Herald and Mail marathon, has again entered for the 1923 race. He says he is in better condition than ever before and hopes this year to win a prize.

Miss Rosamond Archibald reports that she has been meeting with very great success in her tour of the province in the interest of "Better English". In Yarmouth she was given a truly royal reception and she was obliged to shorten her visit to that county in order that she might be able to attend to pressing engagements in Annapolis, Kings and Hants. Miss Archibald is afraid that she will not be able to visit all the points in the Maritime Provinces desired before the New Year, when her leave expires.

Mr. D. Graham Widden, Wolfville's Presiding Councillor, was in Bridgewater last week and on Thursday evening addressed a public meeting of the citizens called to discuss the proposition of adopting the Town Manager scheme in that town. Mr. Widden is reported as giving a practical address in which he outlined the history of the system and also recounted his own personal experience so convincing were Mr. Widden's arguments that the meeting decided by a large majority in favor of the proposition.

Mr. J. G. Kenney, Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at New Germany accompanied by Mrs. Kenney and her two sons, spent the week end here at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. K. Kenney, Prospect Street.
