W. H. THORNE,

Destructive Fire.

What proved to be a serious fire broke out in a barn in the rear of a house on Waterloo street, near Golding, last evening, about a quarter to twelve o'clock. It was a very bad place to get at a fire, and had the wind been heavy the result would have proved most disastrous to the locality. The house to which the barn belonged was next Hon. Mr. Anglin's. In the rear was a shed, then came the barn used to place coaches, where the fire broke out, and on Castle street was another barn where horses were kept, adjoining the first named. On the corner of Castle street stood Mr. Thos. Miller's house and his outbuildings extended back as far as the others. In an inneredibly short time the fire had worked to the huose in front and the barn in the rear of a house on Golding street occupied by Mr. C. H. Wright took fire, and then the ell of Hon. Anglin's house. It was enough clasourage the firemen to see the mes leaping up from so many buildment of the provided prevent it. range the firemen to see the aping up from so many build-before they could prevent it ad communicated with a shed q Mr. A. Christie's house, on reet, and then to his house, hands soon went to work to ousehold effects from the ell. stely Mrs. Anglin is absent upten, and Mr. Anglin is aland therefore the house
