

STUDENT SHOT IN A FIGHT AT A CIRCUS.

Riot Threatened When it Was Found That Many Students were Injured.

Alleged Ill-Treatment of Patients in an Insane Hospital at Washington.

One Crazy Man Cured by Being Hit a Blow on the Head.

Columbia, Mo., May 12.—A State University student named Dale was shot and perhaps fatally wounded and several others were injured in a fight with employees of a circus here.

The wounded students were taken to a hospital, where fifteen received medical attention. Many others were turned away, as their injuries were too slight to require immediate treatment. One of the students is reported seriously hurt.

When it became known that many students had been injured a general riot was threatened. The Mayor addressed the students, pleading with them to avoid further trouble.

The Mayor offered his services as a nurse in assisting the doctor to care for the injured. The cause of the trouble is not known, but it is believed to have been due to some pranks.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL TO INSPECT RADIAL EXTENSION.

Government's Delay in Paying the County its Share of Good Roads Fund.

A special meeting of the County Council is being held today in regard to the Bartonville extension of the Radial Railway Company. The Council some time ago ordered traffic stopped till the road was put in the shape required by the by-law, giving the company permission to lay the line. The company has lowered the rails six inches and made other changes and is anxious to be authorized to resume the service.

The report of the County Engineer, Mr. J. F. Armour, who went over the line on Thursday, was read to the Council this morning. He said the ballast in some parts fell short of the requirements and that some of it should be removed and new ballast put in. This he estimated would cost about $175.

The engineer also reported that there

PLANS FOR THE RIGHT HOUSE ARE ON IMPORTANT SCALE,

And Will Mark Material Progress in the Business Portion of the City.

Until the City Council has come to a decision in the matter of the concession sought by Mr. Thomas W. Watkins in connection with the changing of the outlet of the alley now opening upon Hughson street, Mr. Watkins is not in a position to say just what sort of a building will be erected on Hughson street, between the present Right House and the Times office, but if the concession is granted it is the intention to put up a very fine building indeed, making one of the finest business blocks in the city. The Right House business has

The Russian Social democrats and other proletarian organizations have ordered a demonstrative one day's strike on the Russian May day, May 14. It will, however, be of a peaceful character, and no efforts will be made to compel the workmen who do not desire to participate to leave their work.

The Trans-Atlantic steamship lines are, according to the New York Journal of Commerce, preparing for an active tourist business this season and the prospects are considered particularly favorable for greatly exceeding the movement of a year ago. A very decided increase in this direction was a month ago, considered assured.

REV. DR. BEAVIS

HAS MET WITH GREAT SUCCESS IN DENVER, COL.

Upon his departure from this city a few years ago, Rev. Dr. H. S. Beavis, formerly acting pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and, for a time, pastor of First Congregational Church, went to Denver, Co., to take charge of a small Presbyterian Church. His many friends here will delight to learn that he has been eminently successful. The little suburban church has grown into a large and influential one, and now supports a thriving mission. Dr. Beavis is now chairman of the Committee on Education of the Presbytery of Denver; has just closed a term as moderator of the Presbytery of Denver and also a term as Moderator of the Synod of Colorado. He is also a member of the committee on Theological Education for the State.

WANTS INVESTIGATION.

MRS. PARKER SAYS SHE WAS DISCHARGED WITHOUT CAUSE.

Mrs. David Parker, 79 Napier street, employed by the Parks Board at Dundurn Castle for five years, and who was discharged recently, is demanding an investigation. She received $20 a month and says this is the main source of revenue for her family, which she is obliged to support. Mrs. Parker alleges that she was dismissed without cause, and she lays the blame chiefly on the curator, Mrs. Silley, and Mr. Albert Lewis, a member of the Board. When asked to resign, Mr. George Wild, another member of the Board, she says he admitted she had not been treated justly. Mrs. Parker claims that Mr. William Kavanagh, a member of the Museum Committee, told her the complaints were made by Mrs. Silley. If the Parks Board will investigate the matter Mrs. Parker says she has some surprises that will interest the public.

FALSE PRETENSE CASE.

WM. LAWSON REMANDED AT POLICE COURT TO-DAY.

Police Court this morning was of short duration, but brought in $1 a minute. William Lawson, who had been summoned three times to answer to a charge of false pretence was brought up today. The charge is that on the 5th of April he obtained $125 from John Allen by false pretences. Allen did not want to prosecute but the Crown would not let the case drop. The Chief asked for a remand as he says there are other cases in which the alleged victims do not want to prosecute at present, but who may be persuaded to alter their minds before he comes up again. The remand was granted.

James Bell walked into the dock this morning and accused himself of vagrancy. He asked to be sent down for a month, and was obliged by His Worship.

E. B. Parker, who was killed at Magnetawan, Muskoka, by his horses running away, while he was ploughing, and dragging him, was well known in Dundas and, it is thought, will be buried there. Mr. Parker lived in the Valley City many years and was, for a long time, license inspector under the Crooks act. He and his family were highly thought of.

VIVISECTION OF ANIMALS.

Medical Research Causes Pain to the Lower Animals

But is the Most Humane Work Done in the World.

Addresses of Presidents Eliot and Butler.

New York, May 12.—President Eliot, of Harvard University, and President Butler, of Columbia University, delivered addresses yesterday at the dedication of laboratories of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

"In spite of the fact that medical research involves the suffering and death of many of the lower animals used for purposes of study," said President Eliot, in the course of his address, "the work of medical research is in reality the most humane work now done in the world for its secondary objects are to prevent disease in men and animals. The primary object in medical research, as in all research, is the ascertaining of truth."

"No people are more in need than our own of learning the all-important lesson that the modern Germans and the modern Japanese have to teach," said Dr. Butler, in his address. "Respect for the man who knows and loyalty to the cause of civilization that is founded on rock. Our American happy-go-lucky, wasteful way of approaching a serious problem, our naive egotism and our exaltation of the man who does things, no matter how, must sooner or later give way to more patient study, to more respect for the experience and wisdom of other countries than our own, and to more regard for correctness and sound principle than for a superficial costly efficiency if we are to hold the place in the world's esteem for which we are rightfully ambitious."

HAVE ADOPTED A CONSTITUTION.

MEETING TO ORGANIZE CITIZENS' LEAGUE HELD LAST NIGHT.

Sir Thomas Taylor May Be First President—Will Be Twenty Members on Executive Committee.

Over a score of well known citizens assembled last night in the Board of Trade rooms to organize a Citizens League and adopted the draft constitution made by the Provision Committee. As announced before the aims of the league will be non-political and non-sectarian and to promote good civic government and promote good morals. A nomination committee consisting of the following was appointed to nominate members for the Executive Committee: W. A. Robinson, Rev. J. K. Unsworth, George Rathbourn, A. Alexander, Alfred Lewis, Thomas Morris and F. Claringbowl. Another meeting will be held next Friday night when officers will be elected and the executive committee appointed. Sir Thomas Taylor will probably be the first president of the new league.

Rev. Mr. Unsworth said this morning that those behind the movement are discouraged with the rather small attendance last night. He says the prospects for a big membership are very bright and that the Executive Committee will do its work on the instructions of the members. The membership fee is $1. There will be twenty members on the executive.

The Man In Overalls

Have a nip, old fel! Say, what dairy do you patronize?

What? Cass retire to an office at $6,000 per? Who said so?

Why should Whitney allow people to insert clauses into bills intended to rob Hamilton of thousands of dollars?

Our new story begins on Tuesday. It is a real love story. Pure and refined.

When the Ontario Government was naming back townships after local celebrities, it might have given us the township of Lamoreaux.

No, Mr. Trustee Allan, this question of the principals' salaries cannot be compromised by your withdrawing the charge that the principals do not sweep often enough and by arranging that they need not do the coal stoking.

I didn't know there were any baby farms in Hamilton. You see how innocent I am.

But what would happen if a hotel man bought milk from Peter Ray?

I hear that Johnny Wodell in intervals between rests is struggling desperately in composing, with the aid of a minor platform scale and numerous barrel staves, an air to be sung by the party chiefs on the occasion of Cass's retirement to that fat Government office. The words of the composition thus set to music begin:

"Just for a handful of silver he left us, Just for a ribbon to stick in his coat. Found the one gift of which fortune bereft. Lost all the others she lets us devote."

What was Cass doing that he didn't get on to the attempt to rob the city?

Isn't there a law against tempting a man to violate the law?

It's a good thing that the Legislature is to be prorogued next week. We would have had to keep a man down there all the time to see that the city wasn't being cheated.

Don't forget about our new story. It begins on Tuesday next.

If you are uptown or downtown to-night or to-morrow take a look at the Gore. Gardener Duncan's posies are prettier than a picture.

John Patterson may want Dundurn Castle as a terminal station.

License Inspector Birrell may yet have to appear before the tribunal of the Con Club (if he has not already been there) to answer for the milk in the cocoanut.

Have you enough of bread to do you until Monday?

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Don't drop the paper. I am not going to preach. I was just going to ask you why it is that nobody ever tries to popularize the weekly prayer meeting. Perhaps you never go and don't know anything about it. Or perhaps you think it is kept up specially for old women and older men. If it is, it shouldn't. If I were a preacher and saw an average attendance of from ten to twenty out of a congregation of anywhere from 500 to 1,000 members, I would either call the prayer meetings off entirely or do something desperate to force the people to come in. Now I have no desire to be censorious, but I think the preacher and his fellow workers are partly to blame.

Instead of holding these meetings in a cubby little hole of a class room I should try how it would work to open up the church proper, turn on the electric or gas light, hire the organist and choir to supply the best in the musical line, have an up-to-date service in every respect, and if necessary throw in a plate of ice cream or oysters, according to the state of the weather. If there is anything at all in religion, and most people seem to think there is, and if there be a hereafter of wear and tear, an hour in the middle of the week is not too much to devote to their consideration. We are only going to be here for a short time, and we shall be a long time somewhere else.

LAI D AT REST.

The funeral of the late James H. Blair took place from the family residence, Binkbrook township, on Thursday, the 10th inst., at 1:30. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Taylor, Methodist Minister, at Hall's Corner, and interment took place in the family burying ground at the English Church, Mount Hope, Rev. Jos. Fenner, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Barton, being the officiating clergymen. Notwithstanding the busy season amongst the farming community, a very large number attended the funeral, testifying to the high respect they entertained for the deceased.

The late Mr. Blair was for some years employed as salesman by E. D. Smith, M. P., and was highly esteemed by his employer as an honorable and trustworthy man.

He left a widow and four children.

You ought to see the bargain that is offered now at peace's pipe store. A fine briar pipe in a good case. It is a long mouthpiece and silver ferrule. Now reduced to 50 cents at 107 King street east.

SULTAN OF TURKEY YIELDS CONDITIONALLY.

Belief That it is Merely a Preliminary to Acceptance of Britain's Demands.

The Turkish Government Said to be Preparing to Submit to the Wishes of Britain.

There Can be Nothing "Conditional" in the Acceptance of the Terms by the Turks.

Constantinople, May 12.—The Turkish Government has accepted the demands of Great Britain conditionally.

It is anticipated that this is only a preliminary to the complete acceptance of the British demands in regard to the Tabah boundary question.

Preparing to Submit.
London, May 12.—The Foreign Office has not yet received advices that the Porte has definitely acceded to the British demands, but the latest official despatches from Constantinople intimated that the Sultan is preparing to submit. It is said at the Foreign Office that there can be nothing "conditional" in the acceptance as the demands of Great Britain are irreducible minimum.

The change in the Sultan's attitude must have taken place very late last night or early to-day for the Grand Vizier's visit to the British Ambassador, Sir Nicholas O'Connor, at eleven o'clock last night had no immediate result except to emphasize the fact that the attempts of Turkey to arrange a compromise, as were those of Tewfik Pasha, the Foreign Minister, on the previous day, and Sir Nicholas again pointed out the futility of suggesting modifications of the British demands which constituted the absolute minimum.

HAMILTON STEAMBOAT COMPANY SOLD OUT.

McKenzie & Mann are Said to be the Purchasers.

It is announced officially that the Hamilton steamboat company has sold out. The statement was made this morning and confirmed by one of the directors. All the stock is being bought by the new owners, who are paying 110 for it. Who the purchasers are the old directors do not know yet.

Rumor has it that the purchasers are the great railroad men, Mackenzie & Mann. It is known that they have interests here already and are trying to get patents to water front property. All the shareholders will be given the opportunity to sell out at the same price, which is considered a good one. All the existing contracts have been taken over and the business will be run as usual.

NO ACTION TAKEN YET IN THAT LIQUOR CASE.

Something of Sensational Character May Yet be Brought Out.

When asked this morning if the Board intended taking any action as a result of the demand made yesterday by Mr. Charles H. Peebles that Inspector Birrell either prosecute the firm of Peebles, Hobson & Co., on a charge of breaking the liquor law, or apologize, Chairman Henry New said that the commissioners would not interfere. One of the commissioners stated that in April last Mr. Birrell complained about the liquor shop in connection with the store not being entirely separate and legal according to law. It is said he threatened to take action without the consent of the Board if the Commissioners did not instruct him to do so. The Commissioners say instead of doing that he pursued the course made public.

The Inspector, when asked if he would prosecute the firm, declined to discuss the matter. "I will let Mr. Peebles do the talking now," he said. "The end is not yet," he added, and intimated that could Mr. Peebles have seen what was going to happen he would have pursued the wisest course by remaining silent. Mr. Peebles, as already stated, says that a woman went to the store shortly after 7 o'clock last Saturday night and pleaded that she be given liquor for sickness at home. This was refused, but she finally obtained it through the pleading of another party. The woman it is claimed was sent there by Inspector Birrell.

When Mr. Peebles was spoken to today he said it was impossible for the firm to do anything more than it had. The impression had gone abroad that they were breaking the law and their only desire was to put the public in possession of the facts.

Was the action of the inspector taken with a view to collecting a disputed account? Mr. Peebles claims that the firm refused to settle for an account for milk from the Farmers' Dairy Co., because it was not right. On Saturday night after the incident at the store the inspector is said to have made out the account and posted it. The marks on the letter show that it passed through the mail at 11:15.

Hotel Men Met Yesterday.
The hotel men held a meeting yesterday to further discuss the proposed advance in prices, which was to have gone into effect on May 15. The matter was left in the hands of the executive committee, which will meet shortly. It has been practically settled, as announced before, that five cent whiskey shall be abolished.

The hotel men say that there is no truth in reports that they will not stick to the agreement.

"That is why we are moving so carefully in the matter," said a prominent hotel man to-day. "There will be an advance all around, and we want to fix it so that there will be no excuse for breaking it."

The result of the first meeting was a proposition to sell all Canadian and imported case goods 15 cents straight. Some change may be made in this.

The matter of an increase in hotel rates will not be dealt with by the Association. Some of the hotel men say the announcement that they were considering such a thing was premature, and that it is not at all likely that such action will be taken.

Must Take Out Licenses.
Inspector Birrell says there are still about ten hotel men who have not paid their license fee. About sixty-six bartenders have taken out licenses. There are about 100 in the city.

"Any hotel man or bartender who has not taken out his license by the 15th, is out of business," said Mr. Birrell to-day.

There are still four shops that have not taken out licenses. One of these will have a license by Monday, and it is thought the other three will before May 15th.

J. & P. COATS.

THREAD MANUFACTURERS MAY LEAVE SCOTLAND.

Paisley, Scotland, May 12.—J. & P. Coats, thread manufacturers, who have large works in the United States, Russia and Germany, have decided to cancel their extensions here on account of local interference between them and their female employees, and to build abroad instead.

Excavations, which had been begun for a new mill to cost $1,250,000, have been ordered stopped. This action causes consternation here.

MILTON KEPT IT.

CHAIRMAN RAY EXPLAINS DIFFICULTY OVER NEW ROAD ROLLER.

The Machinery Committee of the County Council will meet this afternoon, after the Council meeting. Chairman Ray explained the difficulty over the new road roller this morning. It appears that the town of Milton had first right of purchase of any machinery shown at the demonstration there. The Wentworth Machinery Committee purchased the roller, but afterwards, Milton claimed it. The company has agreed to deliver a similar roller within a week. The roller is on the way now, it is said. It cost $2,400 and weighs over ten tons.
