He had two bottles and two flasks of liquor on his person and some other articles, the property of Howard & Cranley. He was put under arrest, taken to the lock-up, and when searched the police found a key on his person which evidently had been made by himself out of a strip of steel. The prisoner is being defended by George A. Hughes.

Adopting Road Machines.

At the meeting of the Colchester, N.S., municipal council at Truro last week the warden, in his opening address, spoke of the road machine to which their attention had been called at the previous session. During recess he had corresponded with the warden of three counties where these machines had been in operation, as well as with others who had some practical experience with them. These letters would be read to the council in session, and they could all learn more concerning them. At a later session Mr. Albert Palmer, ex-M. P. P. of Queens Co., N. B., the agent for the road machines, was heard by the committee and the letters referred to by the warden at opening were read. Mr. Lawrence, M. P. P., was heard on the subject, and he intimated that if the council decided to purchase one of the machines, as an experiment, the price would be paid by the government from a fund kept for such purposes. The warden, at the request of the council, appointed a committee to take charge of the matter.

The Woodman's Lien Bill.

In framing the woodman's lien bill, which is now one of the statutes of the province, the Hon. Dr. Pulpney, law clerk, and Hon. L. J. Tweedie addressed themselves to the task of providing a measure that would be workable on simple lines, and in its operation would not cripple or injuriously affect the rights of any person. The lien established applies only to logs, in the common operation of the term, and not to such stuff as sleepers, shinglewood, cordwood, bark, etc., as little difficulty has been experienced in reference to that class of lumber. The act provides that before a man can attach the lumber he must prove to the satisfaction of a county court judge that he has fully performed his contract with his employer. This condition, it will be observed, meets the objection of many lumber operators, that they would be annoyed and put to loss by men who hire to work a whole season in the woods and remain for only a few weeks. In such case no lien can attach, nor can proceedings be taken. The whole proceeding is summary in its character and the costs are placed on the very lowest scale, in most cases not as high as those in a justice's court. If a party, without just cause, puts the law in motion, he is liable for costs, recoverable by attachment against him, and in default of payment, to be imprisoned.

Campbell-Scott.

The residence of Councilor John Scott of The Barony, in the parish of Dumfries, was the scene of a happy event Wednesday morning, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Matilda, to John Campbell of Kingslear, only son of John A. Campbell, president of the York agricultural society, and nephew of R. M. Campbell of this city. Rev. Mr. Ross performed the marriage ceremony and united them in the bonds of wedlock in the presence of a number of immediate friends. The young couple were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents. Conn. Scott presented his daughter with a thousand dollars in cash as a wedding present. The happy couple and some friends drove to their future home in Kingslear in the afternoon. In the evening the young men of the village turned out en masse, dressed in all sorts of outlandish costumes and armed with everything from a fog-horn to a Queen Anne musket, gave the popular young couple a rousing chivari at Mr. Campbell's residence.

McAlpine-Shenton.

The Queen Square Methodist church, St. John, was the scene of a brilliant wedding Thursday evening, when Dr. L. A. McAlpine, the eldest daughter of Rev. Job Shenton, a young lady well known in Fredericton. The bride, who was attired in a rich dress of white duchess satin, trimmed with lace, orange blossoms and lilies of the valley, was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Shenton. The latter wore a handsome gown of white broadcloth silk. Dr. A. F. Emery supported Dr. McAlpine. Rev. Mr. Shenton, with the assistance of his son-in-law, Rev. Oscar Gronlund, tied the knot. Dr. McAlpine gave the bride a beautiful gold crescent with diamond setting; Dr. Emery gave her a silver service; David McAlpine presented her with an antique bed-room set, and Rev. Mr. Shenton's gift was a check. The bride was a member of the church choir, and the pew holders sent her a large silver water pitcher and goblet. The ushers at the church were J. F. Gregory and H. A. McKee, ex-M. P. Dr. McAlpine and his bride went to New York on their wedding tour.

Young-McLeod.

A large number of the friends of the contracting parties assembled last evening at the residence of Howard D. McLeod, St. John, Thursday evening, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Lida B. McLeod, to Rev. Geo. M. Young of Upper Kent, Carleton county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Teasdale, who was assisted by Rev. Dr. Pope. Miss Nellie Jarvis was the bridesmaid and R. G. Murray supported the groom. After the wedding supper was partaken of, the young couple attended by a few friends drove to the depot, where Mr. and Mrs. Young took the train for the upper provinces. The bride was an especially popular young lady as the presents received by her amply testified. Rev. Mr. Young is well known here and has hosts of friends who wish him and his bride a long and happy life.

Moore-Holly.

The palatial residence of Hon. James Holly on Douglas avenue, St. John, was the scene Wednesday evening of the marriage of his second daughter, Miss S. Carrie Holly, to John E. Moore, one of St. John's rising young merchants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Sibbald, the bride wearing a handsome light brown travelling dress. After the ceremony the company sat down to a grand banquet. This over, the bridal party drove to the Union depot, where they took the train for Boston and New York. A large number of friends were at the station and they gave Mr. and Mrs. Moore a great send off. They were showered with rice, and as the train moved out the explosion of torpedoes was almost deafening. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have the best wishes of all classes. They are a very popular young couple, as was shown by the immense number of presents received by the bride. Mr. Moore's fellow boarders at the Victoria sent him a cabinet containing some forty-three pieces of silver.

At the Free Baptist parsonage, Wednesday evening, Fred B. Morgan and Bertie Nash, both of Caverhill, were married by Rev. Mr. Hartley.

LONG RAN THINGS.

A Former Kingslear Resident at San Francisco.

San Francisco Call.
Signs of impending trouble are beginning to show in the Hawtissue society of this city, and it is probable that before long the entire workings of that organization will be opened to the public, for all the members are talking about it, and the membership amounts to several hundred. The society is divided into three branches, and Dr. S. F. Long, who is sort of a pooh bah in a small way, presides over the department. It is between Dr. Long and the ex-financial secretary, G. A. Frost, that the trouble centers. The Hawthorn society has long been known as "Dr. Long's society." He formed it, and some members claim he is running it solely for his own glorification. Spurred on by charges of mismanagement and dishonesty, Frost goes ever farther than this, and says that Long is running the organization for his profit. This the doctor denies, however, and offers the books in evidence. Regarding the books the members again complain, for financial reports from headquarters are few and far between, and the suspicion that the secrecy of the reports is due to the lack of funds upon which to report, is steadily gaining ground. But Dr. Long says that the society is in good financial standing, as will be shown as soon as the books are gone over.

The society is essentially a social organization, but there has been added to it a beneficial element and also an orchard and vineyard scheme. Fifty cents a month allows the socially inclined to partake of that portion of the society. A dollar and a half more every month entitles them to sick benefits, and the purchase of shares of stock in the vineyard and orchard will let the member in on the countless profits which must eventually accrue from this investment.

Off at Last.

The schooner Fred H. Gibson, built last year at the mouth of the New Brunswick river, was towed to St. John last week. It will be remembered that the vessel stuck in the mud while being launched last spring, and as a consequence remained in the sand and ice all summer and winter. The recent freshet floated her. As she has been kept well painted, she was not materially damaged. She is now on Hilary's blocks. The Fred H. Gibson is 134 feet keel, 33 feet beam, and 123 foot hold and will register about 400 tons.

THE MONTEON ALDERMEN

Decline to be Dictated to by the Fireman.

(Wednesday's Times.)
At the city council meeting, last night, a communication from the secretary of the fire department was read, stating that at a general meeting of the fire department a motion was passed requesting the council to have the extension ladder placed back on the ladder wagon.

Ald. Ayer, in referring to the communication, said it was a high-sounding mark of cheek on the part of the fire department. He would be in favor of the letter being handed back to the secretary, and requesting him to furnish the council with the names of the mover and seconder of the resolution. He also thought that the firemen should be informed that when the council needed their advice they would ask them for it. He would go so far as to favor dismissing the mover and seconder of the resolution, as he thought disturbers should be put out of the department.

Ald. Magee said when he made the motion to have the ladder taken off the wagon he found that the ladder had only been used once in seven years. He could not see why it should be handled through the streets year after year and be called into use. He moved that the letter from the fire department be handed back to the secretary requesting him to inform the firemen that when the council wanted their opinion they would ask for it, and also requesting that the names of the mover and seconder of the resolution be handed in to the council.

Seconded by Ald. Ayer, who spoke at some length in regard to the matter, the firemen in connection with this ladder. He spoke strongly against the council being approached by the fire department in the way they had, and said if they were to resign their places could be easily filled. He, however, did not think the majority of the men were inclined to fall in with the step taken at the fireman's general meeting. Ald. Magee's motion was passed unanimously.
