HAEL O'SULLIVAN, LL.B. AND PH. B., SHOWS WHAT HARD WORK AND BRAINS MAY ACCOMPLISH.

The question was recently asked by some inquiring Protestants visiting Rome, 'Why does the Pope not wear a cross like the bishop's?' A learned prelate and theologian gives the following explanation of this fact: The pontificate of St. Peter was a long one. It lasted 25 years. During this time he sent a cross During this time he sent a grea per of missionaries to eve Michael O'Sallivan, the police-man-lawyer, who graduated with high honors from the college of St. Francis Xavier, at the Broadway Theatre, New York, Monday even-ing week, in the pride of his associ-tion of the college of the sacoci-Germany. Forty days after his arrival Materne died, and one of his brethren came to Rome to acquaint. St. Peter with the fact and beg him ing week, is the pride of his associates at police headquarters. Lawyer O'Sullivan is destined to become famous, if perseverance and love of law, with a large head full of grey matter, have anything to do with bringing about such a reward.
