

PRESENT IS TIME OF GREAT TENSION

MUCH IS SAID TO DEPEND UPON PERSONAL ATTITUDE OF GERMAN EMPEROR.

Paris, July 27.—The Temps says that although the conversations of M. Cambon, the French ambassador to Germany and Baron von Kiderlen-Waechter, the German Foreign Secretary, have taken on a tone of greater cordiality, they have not resulted in advancing the situation.

Paris, July 27.—The Temps says that although the conversations of M. Cambon, the French ambassador to Germany and Baron von Kiderlen-Waechter, the German Foreign Secretary, have taken on a tone of greater cordiality, they have not resulted in advancing the situation.

SAYS CANADA IS AT CROSS ROADS

Albertha's Federal Representative at Coronation Returns and Talks of Empire—British Statesmen too Much Occupied With Internal Questions, He Says.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

THE WEEK'S BANK CLEARINGS.

Returns From the Various Cities of the Dominion.

Table with columns for City, Date, and Amount. Includes Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Ottawa, Calgary, Quebec, Victoria, Hamilton, Halifax, St. John, Edmonton, London, Regina, and Brandon.

SAYS CANADA IS AT CROSS ROADS

Albertha's Federal Representative at Coronation Returns and Talks of Empire—British Statesmen too Much Occupied With Internal Questions, He Says.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

Calgary, July 26.—The vast resources of the Empire—its military and civil contingents representing every portion of the globe over which the British flag flies, were to me the most striking feature of the recent coronation of King George V.

RECIPROcity WAR IS NOT YET ENDED

TRUSTS WILL CARRY FIGHT INTO REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Washington, July 28.—The struggle over the Canadian reciprocity bill in the United States did not end with the President's signature. Indeed, it looks as if the war will only be begun.

MORE BONES FOUND ON DECK OF MAINE

Fragments Believed to Represent Three Bodies Under Hinge Coffin Found in Water.

Havana, Cuba, July 26.—Three feet of water was allowed to flow back into the Maine Coffin dam today because a big scow that had been floating inside went aground just ahead of the forward part of the battleship wreck, and it was needed along the starboard side.

CAMORRIST LAWYERS DECIDE TO STRIKE

And as a Result the Whole Trial May Have to Be Done Over Again—Proceedings May Be Definitely Stopped Now and Later Started Again.

Viterbo, Italy, July 26.—The lawyers for the defense have struck and have commenced the Camorrista trial was adjourned today until next Wednesday to afford them time in which to decide upon their future attitude.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 27.—The morning edition of the Winnipeg Free Press received yesterday morning several communications from the large western cities asking information as to the date of the Ohio editorial excursion party which will reach the West on their trip to British Columbia.

CLAIMED TO BE UNCLE'S HEIR

Malcolm Graham Incurred Debts at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Malcolm Graham, Trenton, who has been a trend to national celebrity in Canada, is finally landed in the hands of the police, and is now in jail on remand pending a hearing on his extradition.

GROWING TOBACCO IN BRITAIN

Under the Budget $6,000,000 Is Set Aside to Experiment.

New York, July 26.—Great Britain will not rely wholly on the decision of the United States Supreme Court to re-establish competition in tobacco.

HOPE TO SEE GREAT IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Conservative candidate for mid-Northamptonshire Speaks Enthusiastically of the Empire—Addresses Fellow Countrymen Living at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 27.—Guy T. Paquet, Conservative candidate for the mid-Northamptonshire seat in the British House of Commons arrived here yesterday after a trip through the West as far as Victoria.

STAGE LINE Edson to Grand Prairie Now Running.

Weekly trips are now being made between these two points. For all information as to Homesteads in Grand Prairie and Peace River Districts address Head Office:

Edson and Grand Prairie Transportation Co. 324 Jasper Avenue E., Edmonton.

H. C. BLAIR, Principal. 1st and Madison, SPOKANE.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

BUSINESS IS TO INVESTIGATE.

Council in St. Peter's Reserve Inaugurated Today.

Saskatoon, Man., July 27.—A vigorous controversy between counsel, in which the judges participated, was the feature of today's sitting of the St. Peter's Indian Commission of inquiry.

MODERATES ARE WITH LANSLOWNE

INSURGENT LORDS ARE BEING WEAKENED—ASQUITH WILL PLAY WAITING GAME.

London, July 27.—It is becoming increasingly evident that the "die hards" will not be able to deliver the "goods," or in other words, to poll their peers to anything like the extent claimed, and the government will not be forced to create a large number of peers, if any, in order to carry the veto bill.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT POURING IN

White House Wires Kept Hot by Messages From Friends of President All Over the World, Who Approve Reciprocity Pact—Section 2 Now in Effect.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament were telegraphed to the customs collectors along the Canadian border today.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 27.—The morning edition of the Winnipeg Free Press received yesterday morning several communications from the large western cities asking information as to the date of the Ohio editorial excursion party which will reach the West on their trip to British Columbia.

CLAIMED TO BE UNCLE'S HEIR

Malcolm Graham Incurred Debts at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Malcolm Graham, Trenton, who has been a trend to national celebrity in Canada, is finally landed in the hands of the police, and is now in jail on remand pending a hearing on his extradition.

GROWING TOBACCO IN BRITAIN

Under the Budget $6,000,000 Is Set Aside to Experiment.

New York, July 26.—Great Britain will not rely wholly on the decision of the United States Supreme Court to re-establish competition in tobacco.

HOPE TO SEE GREAT IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Conservative candidate for mid-Northamptonshire Speaks Enthusiastically of the Empire—Addresses Fellow Countrymen Living at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 27.—Guy T. Paquet, Conservative candidate for the mid-Northamptonshire seat in the British House of Commons arrived here yesterday after a trip through the West as far as Victoria.

STAGE LINE Edson to Grand Prairie Now Running.

Weekly trips are now being made between these two points. For all information as to Homesteads in Grand Prairie and Peace River Districts address Head Office:

Edson and Grand Prairie Transportation Co. 324 Jasper Avenue E., Edmonton.

H. C. BLAIR, Principal. 1st and Madison, SPOKANE.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

BUSINESS IS TO INVESTIGATE.

Council in St. Peter's Reserve Inaugurated Today.

Saskatoon, Man., July 27.—A vigorous controversy between counsel, in which the judges participated, was the feature of today's sitting of the St. Peter's Indian Commission of inquiry.

MODERATES ARE WITH LANSLOWNE

INSURGENT LORDS ARE BEING WEAKENED—ASQUITH WILL PLAY WAITING GAME.

London, July 27.—It is becoming increasingly evident that the "die hards" will not be able to deliver the "goods," or in other words, to poll their peers to anything like the extent claimed, and the government will not be forced to create a large number of peers, if any, in order to carry the veto bill.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT POURING IN

White House Wires Kept Hot by Messages From Friends of President All Over the World, Who Approve Reciprocity Pact—Section 2 Now in Effect.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament were telegraphed to the customs collectors along the Canadian border today.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 27.—The morning edition of the Winnipeg Free Press received yesterday morning several communications from the large western cities asking information as to the date of the Ohio editorial excursion party which will reach the West on their trip to British Columbia.

CLAIMED TO BE UNCLE'S HEIR

Malcolm Graham Incurred Debts at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Malcolm Graham, Trenton, who has been a trend to national celebrity in Canada, is finally landed in the hands of the police, and is now in jail on remand pending a hearing on his extradition.

GROWING TOBACCO IN BRITAIN

Under the Budget $6,000,000 Is Set Aside to Experiment.

New York, July 26.—Great Britain will not rely wholly on the decision of the United States Supreme Court to re-establish competition in tobacco.

HOPE TO SEE GREAT IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Conservative candidate for mid-Northamptonshire Speaks Enthusiastically of the Empire—Addresses Fellow Countrymen Living at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 27.—Guy T. Paquet, Conservative candidate for the mid-Northamptonshire seat in the British House of Commons arrived here yesterday after a trip through the West as far as Victoria.

STAGE LINE Edson to Grand Prairie Now Running.

Weekly trips are now being made between these two points. For all information as to Homesteads in Grand Prairie and Peace River Districts address Head Office:

Edson and Grand Prairie Transportation Co. 324 Jasper Avenue E., Edmonton.

H. C. BLAIR, Principal. 1st and Madison, SPOKANE.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

BUSINESS IS TO INVESTIGATE.

Council in St. Peter's Reserve Inaugurated Today.

Saskatoon, Man., July 27.—A vigorous controversy between counsel, in which the judges participated, was the feature of today's sitting of the St. Peter's Indian Commission of inquiry.

MODERATES ARE WITH LANSLOWNE

INSURGENT LORDS ARE BEING WEAKENED—ASQUITH WILL PLAY WAITING GAME.

London, July 27.—It is becoming increasingly evident that the "die hards" will not be able to deliver the "goods," or in other words, to poll their peers to anything like the extent claimed, and the government will not be forced to create a large number of peers, if any, in order to carry the veto bill.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT POURING IN

White House Wires Kept Hot by Messages From Friends of President All Over the World, Who Approve Reciprocity Pact—Section 2 Now in Effect.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament were telegraphed to the customs collectors along the Canadian border today.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 27.—The morning edition of the Winnipeg Free Press received yesterday morning several communications from the large western cities asking information as to the date of the Ohio editorial excursion party which will reach the West on their trip to British Columbia.

CLAIMED TO BE UNCLE'S HEIR

Malcolm Graham Incurred Debts at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Malcolm Graham, Trenton, who has been a trend to national celebrity in Canada, is finally landed in the hands of the police, and is now in jail on remand pending a hearing on his extradition.

GROWING TOBACCO IN BRITAIN

Under the Budget $6,000,000 Is Set Aside to Experiment.

New York, July 26.—Great Britain will not rely wholly on the decision of the United States Supreme Court to re-establish competition in tobacco.

HOPE TO SEE GREAT IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Conservative candidate for mid-Northamptonshire Speaks Enthusiastically of the Empire—Addresses Fellow Countrymen Living at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 27.—Guy T. Paquet, Conservative candidate for the mid-Northamptonshire seat in the British House of Commons arrived here yesterday after a trip through the West as far as Victoria.

STAGE LINE Edson to Grand Prairie Now Running.

Weekly trips are now being made between these two points. For all information as to Homesteads in Grand Prairie and Peace River Districts address Head Office:

Edson and Grand Prairie Transportation Co. 324 Jasper Avenue E., Edmonton.

H. C. BLAIR, Principal. 1st and Madison, SPOKANE.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

BUSINESS IS TO INVESTIGATE.

Council in St. Peter's Reserve Inaugurated Today.

Saskatoon, Man., July 27.—A vigorous controversy between counsel, in which the judges participated, was the feature of today's sitting of the St. Peter's Indian Commission of inquiry.

MODERATES ARE WITH LANSLOWNE

INSURGENT LORDS ARE BEING WEAKENED—ASQUITH WILL PLAY WAITING GAME.

London, July 27.—It is becoming increasingly evident that the "die hards" will not be able to deliver the "goods," or in other words, to poll their peers to anything like the extent claimed, and the government will not be forced to create a large number of peers, if any, in order to carry the veto bill.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT POURING IN

White House Wires Kept Hot by Messages From Friends of President All Over the World, Who Approve Reciprocity Pact—Section 2 Now in Effect.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament were telegraphed to the customs collectors along the Canadian border today.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 27.—The morning edition of the Winnipeg Free Press received yesterday morning several communications from the large western cities asking information as to the date of the Ohio editorial excursion party which will reach the West on their trip to British Columbia.

CLAIMED TO BE UNCLE'S HEIR

Malcolm Graham Incurred Debts at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Malcolm Graham, Trenton, who has been a trend to national celebrity in Canada, is finally landed in the hands of the police, and is now in jail on remand pending a hearing on his extradition.

GROWING TOBACCO IN BRITAIN

Under the Budget $6,000,000 Is Set Aside to Experiment.

New York, July 26.—Great Britain will not rely wholly on the decision of the United States Supreme Court to re-establish competition in tobacco.

HOPE TO SEE GREAT IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Conservative candidate for mid-Northamptonshire Speaks Enthusiastically of the Empire—Addresses Fellow Countrymen Living at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 27.—Guy T. Paquet, Conservative candidate for the mid-Northamptonshire seat in the British House of Commons arrived here yesterday after a trip through the West as far as Victoria.

STAGE LINE Edson to Grand Prairie Now Running.

Weekly trips are now being made between these two points. For all information as to Homesteads in Grand Prairie and Peace River Districts address Head Office:

Edson and Grand Prairie Transportation Co. 324 Jasper Avenue E., Edmonton.

H. C. BLAIR, Principal. 1st and Madison, SPOKANE.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

BUSINESS IS TO INVESTIGATE.

Council in St. Peter's Reserve Inaugurated Today.

Saskatoon, Man., July 27.—A vigorous controversy between counsel, in which the judges participated, was the feature of today's sitting of the St. Peter's Indian Commission of inquiry.

MODERATES ARE WITH LANSLOWNE

INSURGENT LORDS ARE BEING WEAKENED—ASQUITH WILL PLAY WAITING GAME.

London, July 27.—It is becoming increasingly evident that the "die hards" will not be able to deliver the "goods," or in other words, to poll their peers to anything like the extent claimed, and the government will not be forced to create a large number of peers, if any, in order to carry the veto bill.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT POURING IN

White House Wires Kept Hot by Messages From Friends of President All Over the World, Who Approve Reciprocity Pact—Section 2 Now in Effect.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—Instructions for the administration of so much of the law as is effective until the whole agreement is ratified by the Canadian Parliament were telegraphed to the customs collectors along the Canadian border today.

THE OHIO EDITORS COMING

Party of 175 Active Newspaper Workers Due July 28.

Winnipeg, July 2