Smiling & Singing.

I read some sunshine stories advising me to smile, for smiles have charms and glories that make them well worth while. I held a job of clerking at Wax & Bulger's store, and so, while I was working, I smiled and smiled some more. Oh, I was always beaming in that great mart of trade; my fangs were always gleaming, my gums were well displayed. Then Wax came up and muttered (he seemed as mad as sin): "Oh, keep your face a-shuttered! Cut out that ghastly grin! Our customers are blinded by teeth from ear to ear; a home for feeble minded they'll think we're running here." And so I started singing as round the store I sped and Bulger soon was flinging steel bootjacks at my head. "Cut out that silly bawling! When folks come to the store, they hear your caterwauling, and go to come no more!" And then I tried to whistle, to show how glad I was, and Wax (who's mostly gristle) just soaked me on the jaws. Those people optimistic who write, for tolling throngs, their essays eulogistic of smiles and cheery songs, they have a noble calling, and they sincerely teach, but they would find it galling to practice what they preach.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of the late Wm. R. Firth took place from Hayward Ave. yesterday afternoon. An unusually large number of mourners attended. The members of the Knights of Columbus and B. I. S. took part in the procession, of which fraternalites the deceased was a prominent member. At the Cathedral the obsequies were recited by His Grace the Archbishop, assisted by Bishop Power, Rt. Rev. Mon. Roche, Dr. Greene, and Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan. His Grace paid a brief but eloquent tribute to the deceased, referring touchingly to the uncertainty of life and the importance of being prepared to meet death. Following this the procession wended its way to Belvedere Cemetery where interment took place.

Hr. Grace Notes.

From a postal lately received from Mrs. W. H. Ellis, formerly of this town, but now of Plymouth, England, we learn that Mrs. Ellis was then in London where she went to meet her husband. She spent several days sight-seeing in the big city, and is now at her Plymouth Home again. Mrs. Ellis, who it will be remembered was a Miss Minnie Thonny, sends kind regards to all her friends.

A resident of this town was before the court on Thursday, charged by Const. W. Dooley with indecent exposure on the public streets during August, September, October and November. He pleaded not guilty, and was defended by Mr. Higgins. The evidence was so clear that a conviction was had, and His Honour Judge Oke imposed a fine of $45.00 or imprisonment for three months. Mr. A. paid the fine. Constable Dooley heard of the case almost by accident, and after working on it for two weeks had sufficient evidence to warrant entering the case. The Const. is to be congratulated on the way he conducted the prosecution.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Archambault, of Montreal, arrived from that city some three weeks ago on their honeymoon trip, and put up at the comfortable hotel of Mrs. James Pike, Harvey St. Mrs. Archambault was formerly a Miss Snow, daughter of Mr. Thomas Snow, of this town, and being married so comfortably seemed to cause a jealousy in the minds of many of her former friends. When the couple appeared on the street they were much annoyed at being shouted after by some ignorant ones, and otherwise insulted. On Monday night last patience ceased to be a virtue and Mrs. A. slapped a young offender across the face with her hand, but the heavy gold rings she wore were harder than the hand and caused the young girl's face to become swollen. For this they were brought before the court and a small fine imposed. Our citizens are indignant at the way this young couple were said to be treated since coming here. We are always sounding the praises of our town as a summer resort for tourists, but we are afraid Mr. Archambault will not be able to speak favourably of it on his return to Montreal. Mr. A. is a well-to-do business man, and considers himself fortunate in getting a Newfoundland wife. We wish them unalloyed happiness on their journey through life together.

Now that war news and fish prices are looked for by our people, we have been asked to request the compiler of the public message at St. John's, not to monopolize the message with Sir Edward's reply to the Evening Telegram and other such happenings that will keep until the mail arrives. We generally get the public message here after the Daily News is on the street.

An Excellent Sermon.

After Pontifical Vespers in the R. C. Cathedral last night Rev. P. Kelly preached a very eloquent sermon, taking as his text: "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins." The preacher exhorted all especially during this month of November, specially devoted to the souls in purgatory, by their prayers and assistance at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the Sacraments to help release from their sufferings the souls of the departed.

Father Kelly also preached at the last Mass at St. Patrick's.

Daughters of Empire

Saturday afternoon the Daughters of Empire held a meeting in the British Hall, Mrs. A. Macpherson presiding. A committee was formed to draft a programme of work for the Association next year. It is not yet decided whether the summer camps will be conducted under the same conditions as during the past two seasons.

DON'T WAIT.

During changeable weather in Spring and Fall thousands of children contract Sore Throats as result of exposure, getting feet wet, etc. A neglected sore throat is likely to develop into Tonsillitis, Quinsy, Diphtheria, or a chronic state of Rheumatism that will impair bearing. Often operations on the Tonsils become necessary because a simple sore throat is neglected. Stafford's Pharyngeal is the best preparation known for all sore throat troubles.

To Dr. Stafford & Son, St. John's, Newfoundland.

Dear Sirs,—I received the medicine you sent me for my child. I thank you very much for sending it so quick and believe it had just arrived in time to save my child as he was nearly gone. After giving the child a few doses, it completely cured him and now he is as well and hearty as a child can be. It was genuine medicine for that complaint.

Wishing you prosperity,
Yours truly,
Signed, . . . . .

Don't forget the name PHORATONE prepared only by Dr. F. Stafford & Son, St. John's, Newfoundland. Price 25 cts. Postage 5 cts. extra. P. S.—We have this letter in our possession and can be seen at any time.—Nov. 12, 11.

ANOTHER BIG LAND SCANDAL.

Dear Mr. Editor:—We have another big land scandal in St. Mary's Bay. About a year ago an undertaking was given prominent Tories in Salmonier and St. Mary's, that there was another Branch Railway to be built across the neck of land dividing Trepassey from St. Mary's Bay, thence over to Holyrood (now St. Vincent) up the eastern side of St. Mary's Bay, and on to either Whitbourne or Briggs Junction. The party heeled knew of this new $2,000,000 Branch Railway and they applied for all the unoccupied land in the Riverhead Valley. The people of the Riverhead of St. Mary's held this land in common, it was their grazing land, they always looked upon this land as a great asset to their prosperous and growing farming settlement. A surveyor was brought up from Trepassey and the land was surveyed in lots, and we understand has been granted. Any person acquainted with this section will see at a glance that the Railway will run right through this Valley, and the lands that they have applied for, therefore the Government will have to pay Thousands of Dollars for the right of way for the new Railway, over this land. Some years ago in Sir Robert Bond's time a few Tory heeled tried to get this same land, but the people protested, and Messrs. Jackman, Bonia and Sullivan backed up their protest and our grazing ground was saved for that time. The people of this settlement have again protested against this outrage, but we hear now our protest is ignored and the grazing ground that our fathers used since we moved us from "the Harbor," is taken from us. Will you, Mr. Editor, give this letter a place in the columns of your paper and ventilate this outrage?

Worst Stomach Trouble Ended.

No Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia five minutes after taking "Pape's Diapiesin."

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapiesin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no more sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

A Double Bereavement.

Saturday last we recorded the death of Mr. Michael Byrne, father of Mr. Richard Byrne, spirit dealer of Water Street. That afternoon there passed away at his residence, Tessier Place, Mr. John Aspell, in his 67th year. Mr. Aspell who was well known and esteemed in the city was Mrs. Byrne's father, and this double bereavement has caused for the family the sympathy of their many friends in St. John's.

Hockey Matters.

The Hockey League will meet shortly to make preliminary arrangements for the coming winter and draw up the season's fixtures.

The League, we hear, will also make special provision for the hockey players in the way of having better accommodation at the Prince's Rink.

The Crescents will not retire from the League this year as reported. They have imported new sweaters and promises to do even better puck chasing than heretofore.

Recovering.

We are glad to be in a position to state that Miss Martin, daughter of Mr. A. W. Martin, of the General Post Office, is now rapidly recovering from the effects of her recent accident on Bell Island. She arrived from Bell Island, Saturday, accompanied by her mother and sister, Mrs. J. J. Miller. Dr. Guthro accompanied her from the Island to the Cove where her father met her. Yesterday she was able to receive several of her many friends in the city who were delighted to notice the improvement in her condition. She owes her recovery in a great measure to the care and skill of Dr. Guthro and the advice and kindly interest of Dr. Rendell.
