Standing Still.

BY RUTH CAMERON.
"He who does not improve to-day will grow worse to-morrow."
—German Proverb.

An energetic young business man was telling me the other day about the splendid business of which he is one of the owners. "We are running full capacity in all our factories," he said proudly. "We have practically every bit of business we can handle."
"Then why on earth," I asked, "are you starting a campaign of advertising now?" He had just been outlining to me a campaign of advertising which he was about to start. "If you have all the business you can handle, why are you trying to get more?"
He laughed at my ignorance of business ways. "Because we have to grow constantly," he said. "If we were content to stand still we should soon find ourselves going backward. We'll get the business and then we'll find a way to handle it. There is no room now-a-days for any business that is not improving its methods and growing bigger and better every day."
I suppose every business man knows that.
It is an axiom of twentieth century business conditions.
But why confine it to business?
Isn't it just as true of life, itself?
Of you and me, and all other human

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.
"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. Dore, of New Brookland, S. C. to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months and was getting into a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Peppermint. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 167 pounds."

Household Notes.

Homemade cakes will be nicer if the flour is put in last.
Wood ashes mixed with kerosene will remove rust from iron.
String beans seasoned with mint are delicious served with roast lamb.
Whole peppers are better for seasoning soups and sauces than ground pepper.
Jelly cake should have the edges pared off carefully to make it roll easily.
Instead of using barley and rice for thickening soup try oatmeal occasionally.
A few minced nasturtium leaves sprinkled over an omelet give a snappy flavor.
A teaspoonful of vinegar put into homemade candy keeps it from being sticky sweet.
Witch hazel and rosewater, half and half, is good for wind-tortured complexions.
Baked stuffed tomatoes or peppers will be much improved if brushed over with olive oil.
Faded plush may be brightened by brushing it lightly with a clean sponge dipped in chloroform.
Fresh mint may be always at hand for cooking purposes by growing it at home in a glass of water.
Old kid gloves worn while ironing will keep the hands in good condition and free from callouses.
Chopped preserved ginger added to the sauce served with cottage pudding is a delicious accompaniment.
Butter will keep sweet much longer in a crock jar with a tight fitting cover than in any other way.

THE PROMISE
Chicago, April 24.—Stanislaus Zysco defeated Constant Lemarin at the Coliseum last night in two straight falls. The Pole secured the first fall in 53 minutes and put his man down a second time in 45 minutes, using a toe hold both times. It is understood that Frank Gotch will meet the winner, probably on July 4.
After he had introduced the big wrestlers, Referee Ed. Smith announced all bets off. No reason for cancelling bets was given. Assistant Superintendent of Police Schuetler was at the ringside prepared to stop the bout if he saw either of the wrestlers "stalling."

Getting Pa Into a Dress Suit.

Whenever Pa and Ma have got to go to some place swell
An' Pa must wear his evening clothes you ought to hear him yell.
He starts in grumbling days before an' says to Ma that he Can't understand why people want to Cause him misery.
"You needn't think that I'm goin' to rig up for that affair
If it's a dress suit party," says he, "I won't be there!"
But Ma, she doesn't say a word, she's heard that tale before.
An' Pa goes on: "If there's a thing that really makes me sore
It is to have to squeeze myself into that spike-tailed coat,
An' be in agony all night. That sure does get my goat!
You needn't plan on bein' there, I'm tellin' you what's so.
If they want spike-tails on the men I'm not a-goin' to go!"
An' then the party night comes round an' Pa sits down to tea,
An' Ma has got her hair all crimped as pretty as can be;
She's all fixed up to go except to slip into her gown,
So's she'll have time to wait on Pa an' get his dress suit on,
An' put the buttons in his shirt an' straighten out his tie.
An' Pa just grunts, an' cats, an' says: "It must be nice to die."
As soon as Pa goes up the stairs then all our troubles start
In getting Pa dressed up to go we all must play a part;
I get his shiny shoes, an' Sis gets out his fancy vest,
An' Ma keeps humping all the time, she has no chance to rest,
Coz Pa don't stay in one room when he puts his dress suit on,
If we had 18 bedrooms he'd make use of every one.
He turns the house clear upside down; you'll find on every chair
Some garment that he's taken off or just about to wear.
An' all the time he's growling that he'd rather go to bed,
Or tell of a hundred things he'd like to do instead
Or goin' where he's goin', but at last away they scoot,
An' once again Ma's landed Pa into his evening suit.

BURIED AT SEA.—A sad ceremony took place on board the Allan Liner Sardinian, on Friday last when the ship was stopped and the body of a Russian girl, two years old, consigned to the deep. The child died of pleuro-pneumonia. A small Russian boy is now dying on board with the same ailment. His case was pronounced hopeless last night by the ship's surgeon.
