A Trio of Baby Bonds for $299

Here is an opportunity for the man or woman with a few hundreds to take a part in the development of three great industries and at the same time get a pre-eminently safe and relatively profitable investment.

This sample investment includes three of the most popular "Baby" or $100 Bonds, and are the premier securities of a great steel and coal company, a large industrial concern, and a well-known public utility. In each case assets and earnings show a large surplus over the bond issue and interest requirements.

The price is $299 and accrued interest—the latter being refunded in the next interest disbursement. The average yield is 6 3/8— which is relatively high, considering the excellent security afforded. Payment may be made if preferred on our convenient monthly plan.

A Smart Reply.

The captain of a certain troopship conveying a cavalry regiment to the Cape was noted for his wit, and at every opportunity that offered he loosed his shafts of humor to the chagrin and embarrassment of his targets. Sooner or later the stinger gets stung, however, and this chronic pun-artist has no exception to the rule.

On one occasion, when about two days out from port, he approached a group of soldiers who were swabbing the forward deck, and singling out a big raw-boned Irish recruit, who was experiencing his first taste of sailor's life, he gravely asked:

"Can you steer the maimed mast down the forecastle stairs?"

"Quick as a flash came the reply: 'Yes, sir, I can. If you will stand below and coil it up.'"

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
OTTAWA, To-day. Canadian producers of silver will read with interest the communication weekly report Trade Commerce Department furnished by C. E. Just, Trade Commissioner at Hamburg. It is well known the German Government for the last forty years has kept a war fund of 120,000,000 marks of $30,000,000 in gold coin hoarded in the Julius tower in the fortress of Spandau near Berlin. Under the Defence Act of last session the Reichstag empowered the Imperial government to create a new war fund of same value, but in silver coin. The effect of this will mean the purchase of some 25,000,000 ounces of silver. As a great deal of silver is being coined by Germany for ordinary purposes the circulation country will be marked for very considerable quantities of silver during the next few years.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, To-day. Viscount Gladstone, Governor General of South Africa, cabled the Foreign Office denouncing the false and exaggerated statements current in England and India regarding the alleged ill treatment of Hindu workers in South African mines. The allegations about shooting, flogging and coercing Indians at work are absolutely false, says the message. Gladstone defended the Natal Government saying it will not use force except to suppress unprovoked violence on the part of strikers. Dispatches from Durban say, although there have been no more serious outbreaks, the situation is causing anxiety to Europeans who are arming themselves on account of the supplying of arms to Colliery workers. Hindu Colliers are kept inside barbed wire enclosures, the wires are electrified. Anybody touching them receives a shock of 220 volts.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
OXFORD, England, To-day. Chancellor Lloyd George thinks it impossible now for women suffragists to secure the passage of a bill granting Parliamentary franchise to women in the British Isles, as they have not a majority of people behind them, and have not captured the political machines. He gave this reply to three deputations which waited on him here and broached the question of woman suffrage. The speakers for the deputation from the Oxford Men's Political Union, told Lloyd George frankly, he being in favor of votes for women, should wreck the Government, if it did not grant them Parliamentary franchise. Lloyd George replied he was ready to do anything within the limits of party loyalty to advance the cause of Woman Suffrage. For the present, he said, he did not feel called upon to go beyond these limitations. Outside these limits he indicated the women had got on without him. Lloyd George added he thought several of his Cabinet colleagues who held the same views as he did took up similar positions. Lloyd George reiterated that the multiplicity of some women had set public opinion in the British Isles against them. There was he said, no use trying to pass a Women's Suffragettes Bill against the wishes of the public. In regard to forcible feeding of women who declared hunger strike while detained in prison for offences against the law, the Chancellor said the only alternative was to allow them to starve, and that was counselled by nobody.

ALL BLACKS AGAIN.
Berkley, Cal., Nov. 15.—New Zealand's Rugby fifteen crowned to-day its long series of successes against the best California teams by defeating a fifteen, made up of the pick of American Rugby players, 51 to 2. Since their arrival in California six weeks ago, the New Zealanders have played twelve games. They scored a total of 505 points, while only six points were made against them.

HOLMER DEFEATED.
The Boston Globe says: H. Hedemann, of Australia, deprived Hans Holmer of his title as the one-mile professional running champion of the world on inexhaustibly easy terms in their match race at Audenshaw, Manchester, Eng., on Nov. 1. It was a slow race, and apparently Hedemann had the better sprint. He won by four yards in 4 min. 34 sec., which is about 10s. slower than Holmer did when he beat Frank Kaulaly in September.

COSTS HARVARD $35,000.
The appearance of eleven well-conditioned, thoroughly coached players on the field against Princeton and Yale for the championship represents an outlay of more than $35,000. The entire coaching staff this season cost about $15,000, and to this must be added the heavy expense of equipping and training a big squad of players, the hire of special trains, and many other items of cost. It is figured that each one of the thirty players comprising the present Harvard squad, cost the athletic association $1,000 for his coaching and training, and this is a season that lasts about nine weeks. Harvard with her big outlay of money, isn't a bit more extravagant than other leading colleges.

WILL ROW IN ENGLAND.
Ernest Barry, the world's champion sculler, has received an offer to go to Australia and meet James Paddon, the Australian champion, in a match race for stakes of $2,500 a side and the title. Barry replied that Paddon can have a race on the Thames in England next Spring for either $2,500 or $5,000 a side, but that his business would not allow him to go to Australia. It will be recalled that Arnet came all the way from Australia to give Barry the chance to race for the title for the second time, otherwise the championship would still be in Australia.

A Weird Procession.

Snake Charmers Follow Celebrated Performer to His Grave.

Five hundred snake charmers, sounding weird notes on their pipes, formed the unusual yet picturesque procession that followed to his grave Katch Sarak, a man of big renown in his business, who died in terrible agony as the result of a cobra bite received while practicing his profession in the neighborhood of Garden Reach, India.

"Guru," or master, he had become dubbed by the people amongst whom he lived, such was his influence over poisonous reptiles. His services were sought recently by a neighbor who had missed many fowls from his compound. Going at dusk one day, the snake-charmer discovered a cobra of unusual size amongst the birds, so formidable, in fact, that he postponed his attempt to capture it until daylight, when he was successful in securing it.

Instead of dispatching the snake at once, he took it to the local bazaar for the edification of the natives. On attempting to extract its fangs, the cobra wriggled free and darted at its captor, who was bitten on three fingers. The "Guru's" supposed godlike qualities proved of no avail. Consternation reigned amongst the crowd as he lay in awful agony; the news of his plight spread swiftly through the bazaar and more than a hundred other snake-charmers scurried to the scene; but but all their efforts, all their devices, their earnest prayers, were of no avail against the powerful poison. Within ninety minutes Katch Sarak was dead.

With great ceremonial Katch Sarak's pipes, snake-basket, earthenware jars, and the other impediments of his craft were borne before him to the cemetery, where he was laid to rest amidst the heartrending wail of the pipes of his colleagues.

New Line to St. John's.

Black Diamond Steamships Probably Will Put on Run Within a Few Weeks.

Boston is to have a new steamship line to St. John's, N.F. unless the Black Diamond line changes its present plans for starting such a service within a few weeks.

General Freight and Passenger Manager Weldon of the Black Diamond Company has decided to put on a service to the Newfoundland coast. This line operates several services from Montreal to points on the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Mr. Weldon says that his company intends to start the new Boston run immediately, provided that he can obtain proper accommodations here, and that he feels the result of his inspection of the pier available. There is no St. John's service out of Boston at present, and both ports should find one beneficial. It is said by shipping men—Boston Transcript.
