Victory for Bennett and

Bennett Government

Is surer and surer.

Monday is Nomination Day.

Look down the list of Bennett

Standard Bearers.

And the people of the Ropewalk did not want to hear Sir Richard Squires speak!

What a contrast to the reception given him in 1918 and 1919.

He went to the wrong place to vilify Mr. Monroe and others.

The people of the Ropewalk, like many others places in St. John's West, gave him a chance.

He failed miserably.

On the third of May he will be told in plain English language what two-thirds of the voters of St. John's

West District think of him and his associate W. F. Coaker.

We cannot help having Better Times with the Bennett Government.

Proof: Higgins' visit to Bell Island.

His very presence inspired good news.

He was the first to announce an increase of wages to the miners.

And if it is possible to do still better for the wage-earners on the Island the Bennett Government will do it.

When Bennett was Morris's Lieutenant he worked hard and succeeded in carrying out every one of the one hundred promises made in Morris' manifesto.

Bennet will likewise carry out every promise in his own manifesto.

Every member of his party is pledged to do it.

We will not make a gift of Labrador to Canada.

Labrador is too valuable to Newfoundland.

Bennett's bounty of one dollar paid to the fishermen direct for every quintal of fish he catches, is more encouragement and more benefit to the country than all the Reids' deals Coaker and Squires can think of.

Conception Bay men have everything to gain by electing a Bennett Government.

They have everything to lose should Coaker and Squires be returned to power.

Ten days more and the story will be told.

Come on Newfoundlanders! Show the spirit of your forefathers!

Away with Coakerism and all that it brings with it.

The time has come when you must do a man's job.

If you want another four years like the past three and a half, you have one sure way of getting it by giving Coaker, Campbell, Gibbs and Squires another chance.

He spent the morning in the editor's sanctum and his pockets were chocked full of his writings.

Gibbs was the most favored contributor to the infamous Morning Post during the last election.

To all concerned: See that you get your Telegrams next week. A movement is on foot to block their delivery.

They are desperate, and will stop at nothing to delude the electorate.

Be on your guard during the next ten days. Let no false cries delude you.

VOTE THE STRAIGHT TICKET FOR BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES!
