Town and County News

CONCERT.—We learn that Prof. Maitland intends at an early day, to give a concert of vocal and instrumental music at the school house, in section No. 5, Paisley Block. Particulars in a future issue.

ANNIVERSARY RE-UNION.—The anniversary meeting of the Guelph Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Thursday evening, 12th November.
A good programme will be provided, and a profitable evening is expected.

BOOKBINDING.—Those who require bookbinding in any style should not forget that we have in our midst a workman of ability and experience. Mr. F.
T. Chalmers, whose advertisement appears in another column, has purchased the business of Mr. R. Easton, and is prepared to execute all orders with promptitude, and in the best style of the trade.

NEW DOOR BY A BUREAU.—About 6.30 on Monday evening, a well dressed person was "rolling home" via Wyndham Street, stealing himself by propelling an empty baby's cab. No owl ever looked more sober than that man; but the exertions of the cab were wonderful to behold; and Monius, the great Mirth, was nearly make the old boy his First Lieutenant.

HESPELBERG.—Mr. R. Ballantyne, the agent for the "POLAR and TROPICAL WONERS," intends to begin his canvass in Hespeelberg and vicinity next week. Our readers will remember the opinion of pastors and school inspectors in regard to this book which appeared in the Mercury some time ago. As the work can only be procured in this way, it would be well for those who wish to possess it to give Mr. Ballantyne their orders at once.

COURT OF CHANCERY.—The Fall sitting of this Court will open at the Court House, Guelph, on Friday first, the Canadian presiding. The following is the list of causes set down for hearing—Winstanley vs. Mills, Jacobs vs. Jacobs et al; Ball vs. Ferguson, Peterson vs.
Peterson, Wagner vs. Mason, Peterson vs. Thompson, Paddock vs. Paddock, Jamieson vs. McCroly, Oliver vs. Kingsley, Carter vs. Carter, McDowell vs.
Oliver.

PRIMITIVE METHODIST TEA MEETING.
—A large audience assembled in the Primitive Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, on the occasion of the anniversary social gathering. Tea was served in the basement, and after the time-honored custom had been duly observed, a meeting was organized in the body of the church. Mr. R. Easton was moved to the chair. On the platform with him were Rev. Mr. Middleton, pastor; Rev.
Rev. J. Goodman, of Markham. Addresses were delivered by these gentlemen, and listened to with attention and pleasure. The meeting broke up at about ten o'clock, a collection of $65 having been taken up during the evening, to aid in furnishing the church edifice with gas.

MRS. HARDY'S LECTURE.—It is presented that there will be a large number in attendance at the lecture on Temperance to be given in the Town Hall tomorrow (Thursday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, by Mrs. Hardy, who is now well-known throughout Canada as an eloquent advocate of prohibition and social reform. The subject in her hands is dealt with in a style which, while it is very impressive, does not partake of fanaticism, and is the expression of feelings which have been strengthened by personal contact with the victims of intemperance and vice. Mrs. Hardy is now endeavoring to establish in Ottawa a home for fallen women, and thus far her efforts have met with encouragement.
Her mode of treatment of vicious characters—similar to that adopted by the Prison Reform Society—appeals to the common-sense of every thinking person, and her labor in this regard should meet with the success it deserves.

St. Catharines is going to have a street railway.
A nautical invention of some importance is reported from England. It is an "automatic governor" which will cut off steam instantaneously when the screw of a steamer is lifted by the waves out of the water, thus preventing the wrenching and straining caused by the accelerated motion of the wheel.

FIRE.—A very destructive fire occured in Montreal early on Friday morning, by which the new Nuts Block, near St. Salpêre st., occupied as wholesale warehouses, was destroyed; loss over $200,000. On Tuesday forenoon the show shop and dwelling of Mr. J. Moeler, the shoe shop of Mr. Geo. Ross, and the residence of Mrs. Burns on Richmond st., London, were burned.

DEATH OF MR. GEO. A. BARBER.—The Toronto papers record the death of one of the oldest residents of that city—Mr.
Geo. A. Barber. The deceased was at one time a teacher in Toronto, then School Superintendent, and afterwards for many years Secretary to the Toronto Board of School Trustees. Many years ago he was to some extent connected with the Toronto press. He was in his younger days an enthusiastic cricketer, and was an acknowledged authority on all questions relating to this game.

THE BEVERLY SHOW.—The Spectator says: "The Beverly show, held last Friday, was one of the most successful that the society ever held in Rockton. Beyery has always had the name of having the best township show in Ontario, and it kept up its good name royally on this occasion. The attendance of people was computed by some at three, and by others at four thousand; and some of the articles on exhibition were said to be equal, and in some instances superior to some of the same at the Provincial Fair.
The day was lovely, one of the best specimens of Indian summer, and in consequence the fair ladies of Beverly turned out in full force and looked their very best. Beverly has always been famous for its bread and butter and pretty women. The first prize in bread was taken by Mrs. Robert Lowrey, and on butter by Mrs. John Armstrong."

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE MERCURY

The Carlist Insurrection.

Rumored Rising Against Carlos.

Cause of the Excitement.

Depredations by Carlists.

Alsace and Lorraine Assembly.

Count Von Arnim's Imprisonment.

Cruel Treatment and Public Sympathy.

London, Oct. 21st.—A despatch from Spain says that the negotiations for the surrender of the Carlist battalion commanded by Benigno Gorodo, have apparently failed. The story of the rising against Don Carlos in Basque Provinces is false. It originates in the conduct of an eccentric member of the Carlist Provincial Deputation, who has spoken disrespectfully of Don Carlos, and venge-fully advised peace. A proposal to shoot him caused great excitement among his friends, which is the only foundation for the reported revolt.

The Carlists, on Sunday, burned a manufactory and some houses, within the limits of the Roncesvalles lines, before Bilbao. Loss $100,000.

Berlin, Oct. 21st.—The representative of Alsace and Lorraine will be at a deliberative character. Its functions will be to advise the Imperial Government on all subjects of local legislation, and to examine the budget for the Provinces.

London, Oct. 21st.—Special adventices from Berlin represent that public sympathy for Count Von Arnim is increasing, on account of the harshness with which he is treated, and the vigor of the domiciliary searches.

The Manitoba Penitentiary.
—A late number of the Manitoba contains an account of the Hon. Mr. Laird's visit to Stoney Mountain, where the Provincial Penitentiary is being erected by the contractors, Messrs. Morrison & Barclay, of Guelph. On Mr. Laird's arrival, he was met by these gentlemen, who showed him and his friends over the work in progress.

The foundation of the one wing of the building (which is at present all that is to be built) had been excavated and the stone walls raised to a level with the surface, and presented a peculiarly solid and substantial appearance. The wall had been sunk 25 feet below the level of the foundation, but no water had as yet been reached. Mr. Barclay suggested that he thought it probable that they would have to sink through stone until the level of the hill base was reached and after that a stratum of clay would be found and water below. Mr. Lecourt, the engineer, pointed out to Mr. Laird the advisability of completing the whole building with stone instead of using brick according to the present plan. The material excavated from the foundation would build a far more lasting and solid wall than could be done with brick, and the expense would be but slightly increased.

Mr. Laird seemed pleased with the appearance of the works, and particularly with the energy and skill with which they had been pushed forward by the contractors. He specially admired the level solidity of the stone flooring of the foundation hewn out of the solid rock.

A visit was also paid to the celebrated snake hole, where a number of the reptiles were still gliding about, although Mr. Barclay said that over seven carloads had been killed and burnt by his men since the commencement of the building.

On returning from the building site the party sat down to a solid repast of beef steaks and pudding and other mountain delicacies, provided by the contractors, to which drinking appetites did ample justice, and then started off to inspect the brickfields at the base of the hill. Here 400,000 bricks were already made and built into a kiln ready for burning. 100,000 more were in course of being made, which would make up the half million intended to be completed this fall. The clay was of a fine quality and the bricks had all been made by experienced hands.

Resolutions of Sympathy.
At the regular meeting of the Western City Lodge, No. 93, I. O. O. F., held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Chatham, on Wednesday evening, 14th inst., the following resolutions were adopted by the death of Mr. Robert Crawford, formerly of Chatham, but previous to his death a member of Reliance Lodge, I. O. O. F., Guelph, were unanimously adopted:—Whereas it has pleased the Almighty Father to take from our midst by death, one well-loved and deeply lamented Brother, Robert Crawford, after a long and painful illness which he bore with remarkable Christian patience and resignation, and exhibited in his daily life the teachings and precepts of our beloved Order, which not only calls upon us to pay due respect to the departing, but also to mourn with those who mourn; we therefore deem this a fitting opportunity for recording our sorrow for our departed Brother and our deep sympathy with his bereaved widow, children, and relatives.

It is therefore resolved, that our sincere and warmest sympathy be and hereby is extended to his bereaved and sorrowing wife, children, and relatives, in this day of their bereavement. Resolved that as a token of respect for our departed Brother, the charter of this Lodge be dressed and the members of this Lodge wear the mourning badge for thirty days.

Winterbourne Correspondence.
An additional store is to be opened in this village as soon as a building can be got ready. Mr. Simons, of the village of Montrose, is to move to this place, and we have no doubt he will bring the trade of many of his old customers with him, thus adding to the business here. There is room for stores if business can be created, or rather, drawn in from the neighoring places. What we want now is a good harness maker. There is none here, and one is certainly needed.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian Synod at Chicago, on Monday, a motion by the action of the Chicago Presbytery in striking Prof. Swing's name from the rolls, was carried by a vote of 53 to 25.

"Oliver Goldsmith, the Good-Natured Man."

SECOND DAY.

By Our Special Correspondent.

This was the title of a lecture delivered by Mr. James Fahey, of the Herald, on Tuesday evening, on behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The Town Hall was crowded on the occasion, and the lecture was in every sense a success.
The lecturer sketched in a very entertaining way the life of the Good-Natured Man, who is very pleasant to the ear, but spoke like poor Poll," drawing illustrations from Goldsmith's poetical productions, and entertainment from the mistakes which were so characteristic of the poet. His life at school, where he was—like other eminent men—a dullard; his companionship with Burke, Garrick, and Dr. Johnson; his wanderings in search of nothing, and his success in generally finding nothing; his career, commenced without money and closed with £1,000 to the credit of his creditors; were sketched with a facility of expression which was rendered very pleasant and interesting by the interposition of anecdotes and humorous illustrations. The contrast was drawn between Dr. Johnson, the strangely inconsistent, vigorous character, who retains his readers against their will by the force of his writing, and Goldsmith, who attracts by his ingenuousness, and retains by the charm which he has thrown about the writings which have mortalized his name. The strange friendship—no less firm than strange—which sprang up between these two personages, so widely different in character, was compactly upon; and the gallery, composed of Boswell, Johnson and Burke, Garrick and Goldsmith, in which the Good-Natured-Man took a prominent place, was referred to in terms which elicited the hearty applause of the audience.

The lecture closed with an appropriate reference to the character of Goldsmith, and the charity which characterized his life and writings—the charity which was sought to be dispensed by the Society for whose benefit the lecture was delivered.

At the conclusion of the lecture Mr.
James Gow, in a few well-chosen remarks, moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer.
Mr. George Hood seconded the motion, expressing his pleasure that the Town of Guelph should be honored by the presence of such a talented speaker, but remarking that his genius had been developed by attendance at the meetings of the Town Council;—that school of oratory of which the town was—as it ought to be—very proud. Mr. Fahey acknowledged the vote in a few remarks, expressing his pleasure that we had a school of oratory among us, but advising parents not to send their children there on account of the late hours to which the exercises are usually prolonged.

Presentation.
At the semi-monthly meeting here on Tuesday night, of Prince Arthur L. O. L.
No. 1331, Deputy-Master Bro.
Samuel S. Walsh was the recipient of a handsome Malacca Cane with heavy silver head, on which was engraved, "Bro. S. S. Walsh, presented by L. O. L.
No. 1331," and accompanied by the following address:—

To Brother Samuel S. Walsh, Deputy-
Master of Prince Arthur L. O. L., No.
1331, Guelph.

It is with the greatest pleasure that the brethren of L. O. L., 1331, for your great zeal and untiring energy in the great and glorious cause which our forefathers fought for and won, and which we are sworn to maintain and defend with our money, our property, and to which the whole civilized world is indebted for civil and religious liberty.

We present you with this address and canoe as a slight acknowledgment of our brotherly love towards you. Also the many obligations we are under for your kindness and kindness towards the brethren; and as a society, your experience of many years has been and is still of great value to this Lodge; also the prompt and efficient manner in which you carry out the duties attached to your office; we have, therefore, great pleasure in presents with this small token of our brotherly love towards you.

Accept this cane as an expression of our brotherly feelings towards you, trusting it will be a support to you whilst on your journey through this wilderness on earth; and when it pleases the Great Master of the Universe to call you hence, may you be prepared to start on your journey face heavenward to enter into the Grand Lodge above, prepared for those that know our Master's will and do it. In conclusion, we assure you that we sincerely trust that our kind Master may long spare you health and strength to be an ornament, and a useful member to the Loyal Orange Association.

Brother Walsh made a feeling and appropriate reply, thanking the brethren for their present, and assuring them that he would ever cling to the principles of the Orange Association, of which he had been a member for forty-five years, and would ever remember the kindness of the brethren of 1331.

North Waterloo County Show.

SECOND DAY.

By Our Special Correspondent.

The weather for the second day was better than the day previous. The sun shined quite steadily a great many to a good show otherwise would have remained dark. There must have been close to 4,000 visitors during the afternoon. The receipts at the gates were nearly $240. In addition to the exhibition of animals of yesterday, we have to-day John Wet-son, of Ayr, who exhibits two straw cutters, adapted either for hand or horsepower; a gang plow, a drag saw, and a Pitt's horse-power for 4 horses. Cameron & Co., Galt, show a variety of ploughs, including Hill's patent, a patent jointer plough, a Mahaffy patent plough, also the old No. 4 (which is the Warden's favorite) besides different varieties of sod ploughs. In horses the show was quite a success, there being nearly 80 entries.
There were some very fine animals shown, but owing to their being scattered over the ground it was impossible to get a list of the animals, many of which were well worth special notice. The show of Durham cattle was very good, some very fine animals being shown. F.
Lowell, Peter Stouffer, and George Lob-senger, show five 3 year old bulls, Henry Snyder show a fine 2 year old roan bull, a yoke of working oxen, 5 grade cows, and 1 heifer, all fine animals. Henry Cressman shows a Durham cow, a roan heifer calf, 3 year old grade heifer, and a fat heifer. Your correspondent saw other cattle that were well worthy of mention, but could not get the owners' names. In sheep the show was very good—there were over 80 pens of Leicesters, Southdowns and Gotswolds. In pigs the show was the best we have seen for some time, but your correspondent is unable to give names of exhibitors.
Among them is a new breed, called the Maze, which was imported from the United States, but we could not find out who is the owner. The show of poultry was very creditable—almost every kind of fowls being represented.
