

Dyspepsia

Many men live miserable, and often lead to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me as much good as anything of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. Foss, Waterbury, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

HORSE TALK.

An Offer of $60,000 for Arlon Refused.

Heat Racing Depreciated by the International Trotting Congress-General Sporting News.

THE TURF.

A London cablegram says: "There has been much talk this week of bringing the race horse Ormeau back to England from Buenos Ayres, a syndicate of turfists desiring to raise $45,000 with that view. It will be remembered that the Duke of Westminster, who won a fortune by the horse, sold him to South American for a large sum. The proposal to bring the horse back to England is strongly opposed by Mr. Chaplin, who asserts that the horse was unsound, and that to breed from him would be nothing short of a calamity to English blooded stock. The syndicate replies that many good horses have been bred from rosters, but Mr. Chaplin's opposition, backed by other leading sportsmen, has shown a damper on the scheme, and it is very doubtful whether Ormeau will ever see England again.

Arlon is by Electioneer, out of Manette (sister to Woodnut, 2:10, and Manon, 2:21), by Nutwood, 2:18. Electioneer, his sire, has 22 representatives in the 2:30 list, 21 of which are in the 2:20 list. Electioneer's dam, Green Mountain Maid, has eight representatives in the 2:30 list, six of which are in the 2:20 list, the best being Egon, 2:18, at 3 years old. Nutwood was bred at Woodburn Farm, Kentucky, and was by Belmont, a son of Alexander's Abdallah, that got the old queen of the trotting turf, Goldsmith Maid, 2:14, out of the same mare that produced Maid S, 2:08, viz., Miss Russell, by Pilot, Jun., out of thoroughbred Sally Russell, by Boston. Every line of Arlon's pedigree, is closely allied to the greatest trotters of the past.

Senator Stanford has refused $60,000 for the 2-year-old trotter Arlon. The trotting would not be for sale.

The International Trotting Congress in Europe passed a resolution deprecating heat racing, and another providing that every trotting race shall be started from a walk. The Canadian horses placed in Saturday's racing in the States were Appomattox first at Gloucester, Speculator second at Chicago, and Mayflower third at Guntentberg.

SATURDAY'S WINNERS.

At Guntentberg—Houston, Fagot, Toano, Kimberley, Zenobia and Mabelle. At Gloucester—Capstone, Zingara, Rose Howard, Appomattox, Daniel B. and Lita. At Chicago—Vanderbilt, Annie B., Anna Race, Annie Brown and Dr. Iseman.

At Nashville—Portuguese, Nero, Van Buren, Goldstone and Hydy.

BASEBALL.

Cumby's contract with the Cincinnati Baseball Club for three years, at $7,500 per annum, and $3,000 in advance.

The St. Louis Ball Club has signed pitcher "Kid" Gleason, of the Philadelphia club, at a salary of $4,000.

Harry Martin and bride, of Wallaceburg, were in Windsor on Friday on their return from their wedding trip. Harry is probably the best known amateur baseball player in Western Ontario, and his career has made many good double plays, but undoubtedly the most brilliant of them all was the one made the other day when he was assisted by the Methodist minister of Wallaceburg.

FOOTBALL.

McGill College defeated the Toronto University Rugby football team by 13 points to 7 in Saturday's match.

The Canadian-American, who played with only ten men against eleven, were defeated by the Sunderland Albion Club on Saturday by 2 goals to 1. Matches played, 33; won, 15; lost, 20; drawn, 4. The last nine matches have been 5 victories, 2 defeats and 2 draws.

THE KENNEL.

The International Field Trials Club. The run for the special prize offered by Mr. A. F. Hayward, Lordship of England, decided the absolute winner of the trials as it was between Blithe and Rialtas, the all-aged and derby winners. It resulted in the victory for Blithe. The officers of the club for next year are: Sheriff Morier, Chairman, president; Thomas Johnson, Winnipeg, first vice-president; Dr. Totten, Forest, second vice-president; W. B. Wells, Chatham, secretary-treasurer; committee, L. H. Smith, London; Montague Smith, Forest; T. G. Davey, London; F. Eddy, Detroit; L. N. Hilsenrath, Detroit; J. H. Nichols, Chatham; Joseph Kine, Chatham; S. Holmes, Chatham; C. R. Aikison, Jun., Chatham.

THE WHEEL.

A one-legged bicycle race for the championship took place at Minneapolis last week between Charles G. Kilpatrick, of Danville, Ill., and Harry Leathers, of Minneapolis, which was won by Kilpatrick, who made three miles in 12 minutes. This is the first championship race of the kind in the history of cycling, and the time made is considered wonderful for a one-legged man.

W. T. Symons, druggist, 184 Dundas street, keeps a full line of toilet articles.

SIX CASES.

NEW FALL GOODS.

All the newest shades in Suitings, Trouserings and Overcoatings. Time to match. Work first-class. No fancy prices. Come and see.

HARRY LENOX

CORNER RICHMOND AND CARLING STREETS.

THE DISFRANCHISED MASSES

Complicated Machinery of the Dominion Franchise Act in Motion.

Its Iniquitous and Troublesome Workings Well Illustrated in London Cases.

How Many Worthy Citizens Are Deprived of Their Manhood Rights.

Saturday Afternoon.

The Dominion voters' list revision was continued Saturday afternoon.

CONSERVATIVE OBJECTIONS.

Young John Morkin was objected to on residential grounds. He swore he had been in the city all year and had earned over the regulation amount.

Old Mr. Platt was called by the Tories. He hadn't seen Mr. Morkin for a couple of years and the latter recently told him he had been in Chicago and had seen his (Platt's) boy there.

Young Morkin was "roasted" very severely by the revising officer for this, although the words were evidently spoken as a joke. A witness was produced and proved that Morkin had been in the city continually.

Mr. Fraser—It does not matter. He ought to be made an example of. He will have to wait until another revision before he gets a vote.

Mr. McKillop protested vigorously. Mr. Morkin had not spoken seriously to Mr. Fraser and he was not on oath. He asked to change the qualification to that of owner's son.

The revising officer refused. Mr. McKillop again pleaded the injustice of the procedure.

The Revising Officer—I have given my ruling, and I want you to understand that must stay the ruling. I don't want anything said after I have given the ruling, and I won't have it.

John McNeill had lived the last nine months in London, having come direct from the States where he had been three years working. Objected to, but judgment reserved.

J. J. McPhillips and John McNeill were absent from the city a couple of months each during the year, and judgment was reserved on such as to their qualifications as owners' sons; John Miller, gone to States; off; Thom Mangali, in East London; off; David S. Mills, off; Robert D. McDonald, Tory witness said he could not find him as horse street, off; witness found him at Horton street, objection dismissed; John McDonald, off in division 3, on 14 division 3; John C. Green, off; James Gillespie—his brother dead when Conservative witness to States; off; Rev. E. B. Lancelotti, removed; off; James H. McCall, removed; off; Henry Clark, removed; off; Hugh Clark, objection withdrawn; W. L. Graham, dead; off; Henry Clark, off; Edwin Green, objection dismissed; Fred Gibbard, off; J. E. A. Hutton, objection withdrawn; Wm. H. Joanes, gone to States; off; Andrew Jack, removed; off; James Irvine, retained; Geo. H. Lett, off; W. H. Sharp, name retained; Louis H. Smith, objection withdrawn; Richard Vick, painter, objected to on the ground that he was not an owner. His son clearly swore his father had owned property for two years, and had other property besides. Mr. Cox was not satisfied, and the case was held over.

Wm. Warwick, gone to States; dropped; Henry Brunstead, dead; off; John Brunstead, withdrawn; Joseph Donohue was not present and his name was scored off.

Joseph B. Henry, on as owner. He proved his mother was owner of the property where he lived, but said he paid the taxes out of his earnings.

Mr. Judd objected to this being regarded as a tenant.

Witness then swore he made $9 a week and Mr. McKillop claimed he should be admitted as an income voter.

Mr. Judd—Are you a printer?

Witness—Yes.

Mr. Judd—One of the traveling kind, or do you stay in a place? (Laughter.)

Witness—I stay.

Mr. Judd—Where were you when you were last away?

Witness (laughing)—At Fort Stanley.

Mr. Judd—We don't want a traveling, funny. Answer my questions properly.

Mr. McKillop—You must expect it, when you begin it.

Mr. Fraser—It is better to have none of it.

Mr. McKillop—But Mr. Judd invited it. Mr. Fraser—Allow me to be the judge of what is funny.

Mr. McKillop protested against the idea of a witness being attacked for replying to a counsel.

After a "gridiron" examination, it was elicited that the young man earned $9 a week as a printer, and his vote stood.

Wm. C. Kerr, dropped; M. Kieley, gone to Chicago; dropped; Charles Lawrence, dead; off; Geo. Munkoff, objected to by both parties, in the States; dropped; Theo. Martin, objected to by both parties, in the States; dropped; David McKenna, dropped; William McNeill, merely moved, objection dismissed; R. A. McVean, struck off; Charles Scranton, gone to St. Louis; off; John Vilett, struck off; John Vilett, not of age, objection dismissed; Daniel Baker, not tenant. Mr. Baker had simply moved from one street to another, but was appealed against. He is a C. P. R. employee, and Mr. Essey strongly objected to the evidence tendered, on the ground it was not sufficient. A long time was spent in giving the fullest of particulars. Name added.

Flavius J. Crystler was objected to by the Conservatives on the ground that he had not enough income. Witness said he was a taxidermist.

Mr. Essey—Then you use a staff?

Witness (with a salami)—Yes, that's what I am.

Mr. Essey—What do you stuff?

Witness—Anything that comes along. (Laughter.)

Mr. Essey—Do you do anything else?

Witness—I dress my children. (Laughter.)

Mr. Fraser—Is that stuffing, too? (More laughter.)

Mr. Essey—How much do you earn in a year?

Witness—Six or seven hundred dollars.

Mr. Essey—The other fellows are all starved out. You make a great deal.

Witness—Yes, I have to do so. What do you think I keep eight or nine children on?

Mr. Essey—Can you show me how much you make?

Witness produced a statement, showing he earned a good income making fans for Mr. Davy. He and his wife did it together.

Mr. Essey—Doesn't your wife do the business and get the money?

Witness—The missus can do the work as well as the rest of them. But she's not the boss. (Laughter.) I got the money and take it back to her.

Mr. Essey—You are the messenger?

Witness—I am the husband of a good wife. My wife and I work together. We have eleven children.

Mr. Essey—Who is the tenant?

Mr. Essey—Why do you give your money to your wife every time if it belongs to you?

Witness—Why does every man give his money to his wife?

Mr. Essey—Is it not because it is hers?

Witness—Because I let her spend the money—to look after the children.

Mr. Essey then attacked the witness' nationality.

Witness—My old father was an old U. E. loyalist, and I was born at Niagara Falls. There's nothing wrong about me. The examination lasted a long time; but Mr. McKillop showed from the witness that he was well entitled to a vote, and the attack was withdrawn successfully.

Crysler shook head all round, amid much laughter, and departed proud that he had resisted the determined attempt to take his vote from him.

James Chue, gone to the States, both objected, struck off.

Chas. R. Commander, assaulted because he was not a tenant. His daughter pays the rent with his money, but he earns it. He was put on as an income voter.

Robert Durcan, a respectable colored citizen, had his vote attacked by Mr. Essey because he was alleged to be not a British subject. He produced his certificate. He had made $300 a year last year. He said he was a jobber, and made all his money by hard work.

Mr. Essey pressed for every detail.

Witness—I am working every day hard, but I can't tell you every particular of it. I keep no list. I work for everybody. I have a partner, but he gets his share, too.

Mr. McKillop—You work at night soil a good deal.

Witness—Yes, and we get paid for it.

Mr. Fraser said the witness had not very satisfactorily explained his income, but he had made out his case.

Mr. McKillop—If he has not, I will examine him further and leave no doubt about it.

The vote was put on.

George Murray, a sky parachute artist, said he now worked at the cigar business and got $5 per 1,000. He could make 1,500 in a day. After further evidence the case was adjourned.

Robt. Henderson, license inspector, not tenant, objection dismissed; Charles Colby, not tenant, objection dismissed; Theo. Burke, not owner, objection dismissed.

LIBERAL ADDITIONS.

Geo. Benson added.

John Anderson added.

Alf. Vick, owner; John Callendar, income.

Daniel Kane, income, was examined at great length by Mr. Judd with the object of trying to make it appear that he had earned $300 a year as a C. P. R. employee.

When he told of a visit he paid to Detroit he was asked if he did not go there looking for work. He said he might have done so, but did not regard that as an offense.

Mr. Judd—When are you going away again?

Mr. McKillop objected. This was going to be a long one.

Even the revising officer had to interfere and the vote was allowed.

Mr. McKillop—Good boy, Mr. Kane.

Mr. Judd—You have no business to interfere with Mr. McKillop's work.

Mr. McKillop—Oh, yes, if please.

Thos. F. How, bank manager, application by both parties, was dropped by the Conservatives. Stands for evidence by Liberals.

Chas. G. Manners, income, added; Ignatius D. Durkin, owner's son, added; Matthew J. Mullany, owner, added; David Walsh, owner's son, added; Philip Mohan, income, added; Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Henry Stratford added.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.

D. R. Rolston, Chas. H. Crawford, income, was in the regular American army and took the oath in 1882 and remained a soldier for five years, but had not been naturalized since his return. Led over to see the nature of oath taken.

SPECIMEN RED TAP.

Just after the court rose for recess, John McGowan, a well-known employee at McKillop's, added Alex. and Cord, cigar maker, income, added; Wm. H. Buxton, worked with his father as a painter and got his share of the money earned. He was not given a vote.

CONSERVATIVE ADDITIONS.

Wm. Connor worked in the United States four months in the year and boarded three months in Detroit. Liberals submitted that he had not been a resident of Canada for a continuous year. He was not a tenant, as his wife lived with her mother here. Conservatives held that he was entitled to a vote. Judgment stands.